Lall captures Mixed BAM title

The squad captained by Hemant Lall won the Freeman Mixed Board-a-Match Teams by a margin of 2.5 boards. Lall of Dallas TX played with Peggy Kaplan of Minnetonka MN, Petra Hamman of Dallas, and Winthrop Allegaert and Judith Bianco of New York City. Their two-day total was 35.65.

In second with 33.15 was David Berkowitz (captain) and Lisa Berkowitz of Boca Raton FL, Josef Blass of Chapel Hill NC, and Anna Sarniak, Marcin Lesniewski and Ewa Harasimowicz of Zakopane, Poland.

The Lall squad qualified tied for second place. They won 33.5

Fast and steady wins the race

John Diamond, and Geoff Hampson, kept the pedal to the metal to win the NABC+ Fast Pairs Friday. They turned in consistently first-rate games—60%, 63%, 69% and 54%—to win the event by almost a full board.

The 60-percent game turned in by Robert McCaw of Sudbury MA and Lewis Gamerman of Westwood MA was good enough to move them up from fifth after the first final session to second place.

The winner's circle is a familiar place for Diamond, Boca Raton FL, and Hampson, Las Vegas NV. Both have won multiple NABC titles. Hampson won the NABC+ Fast Pairs in 2007 playing with Bobby Levin; Diamond had a second place finish in 2008.

Diamond and Hampson were members of the Rosenblum Cup Teams from the Philadelphia World Championships in 2010.

The winners entered the final day in second place with a 170.34 point carryover; their final score was 2238 06 on a 64 top. McCaw and Gamerman were sitting in ninth place at the start of the second day; their final score was 2182.29.

Chen wins big in Mini-Spin 0-1500

0-1500 Mini-Spingold champs: Kaiyu Qian, Sam Yu, Yuan Chen and Wenbo Zhang.

The team captained by Yuan Chen pounded Jean La Traverse's squad in the first half of the 0-1500 Mini-Spingold II KO Teams to generate a lead that even the most resilient of opponents would be hard-pressed to overcome.

Chen was up 53-1 after the first quarter and 102 to 24 at the half. Second-half scoring was even--not what La Traverse needed to gain ground. The final score

Spingold semis: Team Monaco vs. Fleisher, Nickell vs. Cayne

Four close matches in the quarterfinal round of the Spingold Knockout Teams ended in victory for the squads captained by Pierre Zimmerman, Marty Fleisher, Nick Nickell and Jimmy Cayne. Zimmerman of Team Monaco will take on Fleisher, and Nickell will battle Cayne in the semifinal round.

Zimmerman defeated the Danish squad led by Gregers Bjarnarson in the quarterfinal 175-125. Nickell came from behind in the third quarter to defeat Roy Welland's team 146-137. Cayne beat Carolyn Lynch's squad 138-85. Fleisher emerged from a small third-quarter deficit to defeat Team Iceland 146-133.

Donner meets Lewis in Mini-Spin I final

The squads led by Gary Donner and John Lewis triumphed in the semifinal round of the Mini-Spingold I 0-5000 KO Teams to advance to today's final bracket.

Donner, playing with Deborah Murphy, Lauren Friedman and Larry Lerner, defeated the team captained by Sally Hill 104-29 in three quarters of play. Hill's roster: Jerome Weiss, John D'Errico and Gary DeWitt.

In the other bracket, Lewis played with David Sokolow, Howard Einberg, Maris Zilant, Susan Fuller and Saul Gross. Lewis defeated Bob Lyon's squad 159-129. Playing for the Lyon team were Brad Bartol, Matt Cory and Zach Brescoll.

Youth bridge schedule changes

The World Bridge Federation has made major changes to the 2012 World Youth Bridge Team Championships, previously scheduled for the World Mind Sports Games in England in August 2012.

Both the dates and the location for the Damiani Cup (for players 20 and younger) and the Patiño Cup (25 and younger) have been changed.

These competitions will be held July 25–Aug. 4, 2012, in Cuba. Although general tourist travel to Cuba from the United States is not allowed by the U.S., there are exceptions, including exceptions for competitions such as this bridge event.

The United States Bridge Federation is working with the U.S. State Department to learn more and to get approval for U.S. bridge teams to attend the Youth Team Championships.

The USBF will not set firm dates for entering the trials for these events until the details are

Notice to players

Each player must have an ACBL convention card filled out and on the table. Please note that other types of convention cards, such as the WBF convention card or homemade cards that do not sufficiently resemble the ACBL convention card, are not acceptable substitutes.

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. Both cards of a partnership must be identical and include the first and last names of each member of the partnership.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6-board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

West found himself on lead against 4♠. He wanted to lead one of his doubletons. After all, he had four trumps and could maybe score some extra tricks by ruffing. We love to lead short suits--singletons and doubletons. My hero, Eddie Kantar, says that we love leading short suits so much that we would leading a void if we could.

Instead, consider this guideline: When you, as a defender, have four of declarer's trumps, lead your longest non-trump suit in hopes that declarer is short in that suit. If you have a five-card suit, odds are that declarer will be short. This is called a forcing defense. You will be forcing declarer to ruff in his hand--the hand usually long in trumps. This will aggravate declarer no end as you, the defender, will end up with more trumps than declarer. It's not pretty and it is the most brutal defense. It is sometimes referred to as "tapping" or "punching" the declarer.

With all that in mind, West led the ♦7 versus 4♠. Partner won the ace and returned the ♦10. West won the king and led yet another diamond. Declarer was forced to ruff in her hand. Declarer started to pull trumps. She reckoned she would lose only the trump ace and the rest would be a walk in the park.

West won the first round of trump with ♠A and led another diamond. Now declarer had to ruff a second time in her hand. She led another high spade and East failed to follow suit. Now West had three spades left and declarer only had two.

When declarer played ♣A-K-Q, West scored her second trump trick and when the smoke cleared, the result was down one.

On the hand above, declarer was powerless to get out of this mess. Let's see what he can do on this next hand.

Note that East-West are not vulnerable and North-South is. Knowing his opponents must have the balance of the points, East preemptively jumps to 4♥ to make it tougher for South to enter the auction. This bid is sometimes called "the Weak Freak" and shows a bad hand with five trumps.

As it turns out, if South can make 4♠, it would be right for East-West to continue on to 5♥ as that contract will be down only two. Minus 100 is way better than minus 620 if North-South can make 4♠. Even doubled—minus 300 is better than minus 620.

Let's see how 4♠ fares.

West leads the ♥A, followed by ♥K. South ruffs the second heart. Now his long-hand trump holding has been shortened. If he draws all the trumps (which break badly this time), he still has to attack his diamond suit missing the ace.

When West wins the ♦A, he can now run his heart suit and have his way with West. This is ugly. Declarer has lost control of the hand because his trump suit is depleted.

Even if West delays drawing trumps and attacks the diamond suit sooner, North can duck his ♦A for one round, win the second round of diamonds and give East a ruff.

How could South save the day and make his contract? On this hand, South has an automatic club loser. On the second heart lead, he should simply discard a small club. This play is called a loser-on-loser play. Now, whatever West leads next, South cannot be hurt as he still has a sturdy supply of trumps.

Being forced to ruff in the long hand is always troublesome for declarer when he is dealt a normal supply of trumps. As a defender, it is always right to lead high cards in suits which dummy has when declarer is out of that suit. As declarer, look out! see if you thwart the forcing game and maintain control of the hand by pitching a loser instead of ruffing.

Bidding commentary: Routine

Lead commentary: Routine

Defensive commentary: East signals with the ♠8 at trick one showing an honor. With K-x, East overtakes to unblock the suit and with 8-x East plays low to deny an honor.

Play commentary: Assuming clubs are not 4-0, as South you have ten sure tricks---five clubs, three hearts and two side suit aces. So what can go wrong? Clubs may be 4-0. This actually happens a bit more than a quarter of the time, so be prepared.

If East has four clubs, there is nothing you can do to prevent East from winning a club trick. However, if West has four clubs, you can pick up the suit if you start with the ace.

After East shows out, it is easy enough to pick up the suit by eventually leading low towards the dummy twice.

Careful declarers (like you) should consider the possibility of 4-0 splits rather than be burned by them. Also, do not waste time worrying about a 4-0 split that you can do nothing about (East having four clubs). Concentrate on the 4-0 split that you can do something about.

Sectional at Sea

By Phillip Alder

The American Contract Bridge League sanctions various cruises during the year that award silver points in the duplicates. The latest was from July 15 to 26, out of and back to Southampton via the Norwegian fjords and the North Cape. The tournament director was Marilyn Blair of Naples and I gave daily lessons.

The highlights were the delightful group of about 40 people taking part, many of whom we had cruised with or taught before, and the scenery. Those fjords, especially the ones in Geiranger and Olden, were spectacularly beautiful. It was also interesting for most of us to experience the midnight sun for the first time.

The only minus was Cunard. We sailed on the new Queen Elizabeth and were nickel-and-dimed constantly. We got on board to learn that everyone would be charged $11 per day (or $13 for those in the bigger staterooms) to cover the tipping of the staff. Almost every other expense was subject to a 15 percent service charge "for our convenience," to quote Cunard. And to print off three boarding passes for the return flights from Heathrow cost $18.

We also went nearly five days without Internet service. I had to type last Saturday's New York Times column into my cellphone, which luckily had service for a short while on Friday when we were near an offshore oil platform.

Yes, the staff was wonderful, but it was impossible not to feel "never again" with Cunard.

My lessons concentrated on trying to get partners to work better together. So we focused on defense in particular. We also had one lesson on competitive bidding, for which I included a quiz to be attempted beforehand. I did not collect in their answers, but this one caused problems:

♠K Q 10 7 5 ♥ K Q 10 6 5 ♦3 ♣9 4

West	North	East	South
	Partner		You
		1♦	2♦ (1)
Pass	2♥	3♣	?

(1) Michaels cuebid showing:at least 5-5 in the majors

Well, what would you do?

I'll come back to that in a moment.

This bidding lesson is unusual in that the six practice deals are much less clear-cut than normal. I allowed them to bid and play, only discussing afterward how the action and card play should have unfolded.

This was one of the deals. How should the bidding have proceeded? Who can make what?

Dlr: East
Vul: N-S

	♠ A 10 8 3 ♥ A Q J 9 3 ♦ — ♣ J 10 3 2

	♠ K 4 ♥ 7 ♦ K 10 8 6 5 3 2 ♣ A 8 4

Every East opened 1♥, of course. Then some Souths correctly overcalled 2♦, but more jumped to 3♦. I mentioned that the hand is far too strong for a weak jump overcall, needing so little from partner to make 3NT or, with values outside hearts, 5♦.

West passed without difficulty.

Then we came to North. Who, despite the diamond void, could bring herself or himself to pass with 12 high-card points, especially when vulnerable? Almost no one. However, 2♦ was effectively the last making contract for North-South. Yes, they could have brought home 2♥, which could not have been reached, or 2NT. But if North does advance with 2NT, I feel strongly that South should raise to 3NT. It needs as little as a heart stopper and ace-third of diamonds to make 3NT almost laydown. Even ace-doubleton of diamonds might be enough.

This deal arose during a European women's team championship in the 1950s. At the first table, North tried 2NT and South mysteriously retreated to 3♦, ending down one.

At the other table, North, Fritzi Gordon from Great Britain, passed! That should have ended the auction, but East could not resist the temptation to rebid 2♥. Fritzi happily doubled, and the contract went down four when declarer dropped a trick in the play.

Now back to the initial bidding problem:

♠K Q 10 7 5 ♥ K Q 10 6 5 ♦3 ♣9 4

West	North	East	South
Partner		You
		1♦	2♦ (1)
Pass	2♥	3♣	?

(1) Michaels cuebid showing:at least 5-5 in the majors

I told them that they had three choices: pass (English accent), pass (American accent) and no bid.

I went on to explain that they should always ask themselves what partner knows about their hand. Here, the Michaels cuebid described it perfectly. The hand had no extras in terms of point-count or distribution. If North-South could have made game in a major, North would have bid it on the last round.

Marilyn Blair's next Sectional at Sea is on a smaller ship, the MV Explorer. It sails from Nassau, up the Amazon River and back to Fort Lauderdale, the dates being December 23 to January 12. Details are at acbl.org.

TOURNAMENT APPEALS

In order to keep the bridge public informed of appeal results in a timely fashion, the NABC Daily Bulletin staff publishes write-ups. Every effort is made to ensure that these reports are accurate and complete. Before they are published in the NABC Appeals Casebook, however, revisions may be made.

(1) Alerted and explained as spades or minors.
(2) Alerted and explained as lebensohl.

Contract: 3♠ doubled by West.

Table result: Making three, plus 530 E-W.

Director ruling: 3♠ doubled by West, Making three, plus 530 E-W.

Committee ruling: 3♠ doubled by West, Making three, plus 530 E-W.

Facts: West played 3♠ doubled for plus 530 (the opening lead was not included on the appeal form). The director was called after the dummy was faced. The 2♥ overcall was Alerted, but an explanation was not immediately requested. 2NT was Alerted and explained as lebensohl. After West's 3♠ bid, North asked West what the meaning of 2♥ was. North was told that 2♥ showed either spades or both minors. Both East-West convention cards showed 2♥ as promising both majors. East-West stated that during the dinner break they had decided to switch to "Suction" over the opponents' 1NT. East indicated that she decided to treat her hand as a spade one-suiter.

The Ruling: The director decided that the table result of 3♠ doubled, making three, should stand. The direct ruled that although misinformation existed, there was no connection between the misinformation and the damage pursuant to Law 40B.4.and Law 21C.3.

The Appeal: North-South appealed the director's ruling, and North-South attended the hearing. Due to an apparent director error, the appeal could not be filed until well after the end of the session. As a result, East-West could not be found and so were not notified of the appeal.

Appealing Side: South claimed that she expected her partner to have hearts behind West because East's bid had not shown hearts. She argued that she would have retreated to 4♦ with her weak hand, if she had received the correct information.

The Decision: Even though one committee member testified that he had seen another example of a player treating 5-4 in the majors as a single-suited overcall, the committee found that the explanation of the 2♥ bid was misinformation. The committee, nevertheless, decided that the poor North-South result was due to speculative/gambling bidding on their part, not the misinformation. In fact, moving one of East's hearts to another suit would not have altered the outcome. South's bidding on a weak hand and North's gambling double led directly to the poor result. Accordingly the committee allowed the table result to stand.

The committee found that the appeal lacked substantial merit and assessed an Appeal Without Merit Warning to North-South.

The Committee: Mark Bartusek (Chairman), Chris Moll, Jacob Morgan, Ed Lazarus, and John Lusky.

Bid Box Alerts and Announcements

When using bid boxes, the ACBL requires that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an Announcement, use the Announcement word (such as "transfer") and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

A player who Alerts or Announces a bid must make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or Announcement has been made.

The Insider

The Insider received his first serious complaint yesterday. Zia requested that his photo NEVER appear on the same page as the Insider. A reasonable request that the Bulletin Boys Plus One promise to honor. It was also pointed out that the Insider should learn to read a bracket sheet. It is unlikely Marty and Ike will face each other in the semis after facing one another in the quarterfinals. Oh well, the Insider needs to learn to read, period.

Toronto has been a great NABC. Seattle promises to be another great one. The Insider will be busy today and tomorrow so won't be preparing anything for the Sunday Daily Bulletin – much to Zia's relief. Thanks to all the players, staff, hotel people, citizens of Toronto, all other Canadians and especially the bartender at the Duke of Devon – it has been a great experience. See you all in Seattle.

The 2010 winners of the Roth Open Swiss Teams: Steve Weinstein, Lew Stansby, Chip Martel, Bobby Levin, Martin Fleisher and Mike Kamil.

Roth Open Swiss starts today

The four-session Open Swiss Teams, which is now named in honor ACBL Hall of Famer Al Roth, begins with today's two-session qualifier. The nationally rated event was first held in 2005.

Alvin Roth

Al Roth (1914-2007) is generally considered the premier bidding theorist of his bridge generation, perhaps of all time. He and longtime partner Tobias Stone are credited with developing the negative double, the unusual notrump, 1NT forcing and the weak two-bid.

Roth, an ACBL Grand Life Master with more than 12,000 masterpoints, won 26 national titles, including the Spingold five times, the Vanderbilt three times and the Reisinger twice.

He represented North America in the Bermuda Bowl in 1955, 1958 and 1967. A WBF Life Master, he placed second in the World Team Olympiad in 1968.

During his first world championship appearance, Roth was declaring a 2♠ contract and felt he played the hand before --- but as a defender. The director, Al Sobel, did not believe him because the hands had been dealt at the table. Sobel made Roth call out all the cards in each hand --- including the spots --- before he threw out the board. No one ever discovered how this happened.

Roth retired from active bridge competition in the Seventies but remained active as a staff member of Bridge Today and on panels of The Bridge World, Bridge Today and Australian Bridge.

He was the author of The Roth-Stone System, Al Roth on Bridge and Picture Bidding and co-author of Bridge Is a Partnership Game, Modern Bridge Complete and Bridge for Beginners.

Roth retired to Boca Raton FL, but was a longtime resident of New York , where he owned and managed the Mayfair Club.

This was the first NABC victory for Bianco, who became a Grand Life Master with the win. It was Allegaert's second win in an NABC+ event, while the other members of the team have multiple North American titles. Lall has won the Mixed Board-a-Match Teams twice previously, and his record of national-level wins with teammates Kaplan and Hamman is also impressive (two wins with Kaplan, three with Hamman).

In third with 32.79 was the team of Sally Wheeler and Buddy Hanby of The Woodlands TX, Cindy Bernstein of Memphis TN and Dave Smith of Walls MS.

Second in the Freeman Mixed BAM Teams: (front) Ana Sarniak and Lisa Berkowitz; (bacl) David Berkowitz, Marcin Lesniewski, Ewa Harasimowicz and Josef Blass.

Declarer quiz

Adrian Dovell of Gainseville FL reported the following interesting declarer play problem on this deal from the second qualifying round of the Freeman Mixed Board-a-Match Teams:

Dlr: North
Vul: E-W

	♠ 10 5 ♥ A J 9 5 3 ♦ J 9 3 ♣ 7 6 2
♠ A Q J 8 6 4 ♥ K 8 7 ♦ 5 ♣ A Q 5		♠ 9 7 ♥ 10 ♦ 8 7 6 4 2 ♣ K J 10 9 8
	♠ K 3 2 ♥ Q 6 4 2 ♦ A K Q 10 ♣ 4 3

Dovell played a cozy 3♠ and made 10 tricks for plus 170. At the other table, West got to 4♠ after South opened a weak 1NT. North led a club and declarer went down one on the following line. The opening lead was won in dummy and declarer took the spade finesse. This held the trick, but the contract was doomed because declarer has too many heart losers. Even if declarer risks returning to the dummy by overtaking the ♣Q to repeat the trump finesse, declarer won't be able to enjoy the clubs because the suit is blocked.

Deep Finesse indicates that 4♠ makes, however, even on a club lead. How should you play as declarer? The answer is tough to see, even double dummy. For starters, you have to be careful where you win the trick and with what card. Next, you have to manage trumps carefully, i.e., not exposing too many heart losers in your hand.

Dovell spotted the right approach. Declarer must win the club lead with the ace (specifically) and play the ♠Q at trick two. If South takes the king, the most the defense can take is a diamond and a heart because declarer will draw the remaining trumps and run the clubs as soon as he gains the lead.

But why, you may ask, is winning the ♣A at trick one so important? What's wrong with (say) winning the ♣Q at trick one and then playing the ♠Q? The answer, as Deep Finesse wickedly points out, is that South will duck the ♠Q. Now you're in the same position as Dovell's counterpart because you need to get back to the dummy with a low club to finesse the ♠K, and a second time to run the suit, but you can't: The clubs will be blocked.

After winning the ♣A at trick one and playing the ♠Q (or ♠J), South can't duck effectively. If South refuses the trick, declarer overtakes the ♣Q, takes the spade hook, draws the remaining trump and runs the clubs. No blockage, no problemo.

So how did Dovell manage 10 tricks? He got a friendlier lead of a diamond to South's queen and a diamond return. Dovell ruffed and played . . . the ♠Q! To be fair, a low heart at trick three also works against this defense, but Dovell saw the dangers lurking in the play early on.

The Wagar Women's Knockout Teams Final

By Phillip Alder

The bare fact is that Joyce Hampton, Jenny Wolpert, Sabine Auken, Daniela von Arnim, Benedicte Cronier and Sylvie Willard defeated Valerie Westheimer, Hjordis "Disa" Eythorsdottir, Mildred Breed and Shawn Quinn by 24 IMPs--165 to 131.

The main themes of the match were slam bidding and how high to preempt.

In the first quarter, Auken and von Arnim gained 23 IMPs by bidding two excellent slams on back-to-back boards that were missed by Breed and Quinn. This helped Hampton to a 7 IMP first-quarter lead.

In the second session, Breed and Quinn reached a reasonable 6♥ to gain 13 IMPs. And Westheimer led at the half by 20.

On board 45, Auken and von Arnim had a bidding misunderstanding to reach a no-play slam and lose 13 IMPs. This was the last board of the set:

Dlr: West
Vul: E-W

	♠ J 10 2 ♥ 6 4 ♦ Q 10 5 2 ♣ 10 7 4 2
♠ Q ♥ K Q 9 8 2 ♦ 8 7 ♣ A Q 9 5 3		♠ A 4 ♥ A 10 7 5 3 ♦ A J 3 ♣ K J 6
	♠ K 9 8 7 6 5 3 ♥ J ♦ K 9 6 4 ♣ 8

West	North	East	South
Westheimer	Auken	Disa	von Arnim

Pass	Pass	5♥	All Pass

(1) Game-forcing raise

West	North	East	South
Willard	Breed	Cronier	Quinn
1♥	Pass	2NT (1)	3♠
4♣	Pass	4NT (2)	Pass
5♠ (3)	Pass	7♥	Pass
Pass	7♠	Pass	Pass
Dbl	All Pass

(1) Game-forcing raise
(2) Roman key card Blackwood
(3) Two key cards and the ♥Q

Well bid by the French pair. At the other table, you may decide whether Westheimer should have bid 5♣ over 4♠ or Disa should have done more than bid 5♥. (I think both!)

Hampton looked slated to gain 17 IMPs until Breed decided to trust her opponents and sacrifice in 7♠. This went down four, minus 800, losing one trick in each suit. (East rushed up with her ace when the ♠J was led from the dummy.) That cut the loss to 3 IMPs and left Hampton with only a 3 IMP lead with 16 boards to go.

The match was tied two deals later. Then Hampton gained 6 IMPs when von Arnim guessed the play better than Quinn in a diamond partscore.

Next, East-West had these hands (dealer West, both vul.):

	♠ K J 6 ♥ K 10 5 4 ♦ K J 8 5 ♣ 5 3
♠ K Q 9 4 3 2 ♥ J 9 ♦ — ♣ A K Q 10 8		♠ J 8 6 5 ♥ K Q 10 3 ♦ A Q ♣ 9 5 2
	♠ A 7 ♥ 8 7 6 5 4 2 ♦ 8 5 4 2 ♣ 3
	♠ A Q 9 8 5 ♥ A Q 7 3 ♦ 6 ♣ A Q J

Would you want to be in a slam?

It is obviously better to have East than West at the helm in 6♥, but neither pair managed that.

Quinn was in 6♥ on the ♦A lead, von Arnim in 5♥ on a club lead. Who do you prefer?

You should pick neither because the distribution was most unfriendly, South having the ♣K and North holding ♥J-8-6-2. Quinn took nine tricks and von Arnim ten to give Hampton 5 IMPs.

Then came:

Dlr: North
Vul: N-S

	♠ K Q 9 4 3 2 ♥ J 9 ♦ — ♣ A K Q 10 8
♠ 10 ♥ A ♦ K J 10 9 7 6 3 ♣ J 7 6 4		♠ J 8 6 5 ♥ K Q 10 3 ♦ A Q ♣ 9 5 2

4♦	4♠	All Pass

West	North	East	South
von Arnim	Disa	Auken	Westheimer
	1♠	Pass	1NT
3♦	4♣	4♦	Pass
Pass	4♠	Pass	Pass
5♦	Pass	Pass	Dbl
Pass	Pass	Pass

At the first table, Breed fancied her chances against 4♠, not knowing that declarer had such a two-suited hand. However, 4♠ was unbeatable. Declarer ruffed in her hand, played a spade to dummy's ace, returned a club to her ace, ruffed the ♣8 in the dummy, ruffed a diamond with her ♠9, cashed the ♠K, ♣K and ♠Q, then claimed, conceding one spade and two hearts.

In the other room, when von Arnim bid only 3♦, Disa was able to rebid 4♣. Auken nudged with 4♦, and von Arnim judged well to save in 5♦, which Westheimer doubled.

North cashed her three top clubs, South discarding first the ♥8 (reverse attitude), then the ♥4. This persuaded North to lead a fourth club, hoping for a trump promotion if South had ten-fourth or jack-third of diamonds. However, now declarer could ruff with dummy's queen, play a heart to her ace, lead a diamond to dummy's ace and discard her spade loser on the ♥K to escape for down one.

South should have either discarded the ♥7 at trick three (suit preference for spades) or — more fun — ruffed her partner's ♣Q and cashed the ♠A.

Plus 620 and minus 100 gave the Hampton team 11 imps on the board and a lead of 22, from which Westheimer did not recover.

Final-round rally propels winners to victory and scholarship checks

With one round to go in the Baron Barclay National Youth Open Pairs, Burke Snowden and Ben Kristensen trailed by 2.09 matchpoints on a 12 top. All afternoon in the second session, they had been in a seesaw battle with Murphy Green and Arjun Dhir for first place.

Green and Dhir had cause for optimism after their final two boards, on which they scored 73.8%. Unfortunately for them, Snowden and Kristensen did much better, claiming 23.61 of 24 matchpoints, enough to boost the 13-year-olds into first place by 3.8 matchpoints.

Green could only lament that the event had gone on one round too long. He and his partner are from Alpharetta GA.

Snowden, 13, lives in Fort Collins CO. Kristensen is a resident of Duluth MN.

They were teammates on the National Youth Swiss Teams at the Youth NABC in Washington DC two years ago and formed a partnership shortly thereafter. On Thursday, the two won the regional Gold Rush Pairs in their tuneup for the main Youth NABC event, and earlier in the week Snowden and another partner made it to the final of the Wernher Open Pairs.

Along with the masterpoints and glory they earned for winning, Snowden and Kristensen each receive a $1000 scholarship provided by Baron Barclay Bridge Supply, the largest business of its kind in the world.

They will join Hakan Berk and David Soukup today to play in the Aileen Osofsky Swiss Teams.

Snowden and Kristensen play 2/1 game force "with lots of gadgets."

Said Kristensen, "We just try to play consistently and not make mistakes." He added that he really likes bridge "because it takes math and logical reasoning, stuff that I'm good at."

Snowden added that he enjoys bridge because "you pick up a new hand every time, and there's always something new."

Burke Snowden and Ben Kristensen came in first in the Baron Barclay National Youth Open Pairs.

Runners-up in the Baron Barclay National Youth Open Pairs: Murphy Green and Arjun Dhir.

District 9 backs youth talk with serious action

These days, there is a lot of talk about recruiting more young people to the game of bridge – and in many locations there is lots of action, too.

That is especially true in Disrict 9 (Florida).

Carla Burke

Carla Burke, the district's education chair, is in Toronto for the Youth NABC and was proud to report that the district subsidized the appearance of 26 young players from the state.

Besides a $500 stipend per player, the district is also picking up the entry fees for all the players.

Burke, who lives in Pensacola, said every member of each of the five units in the district pays an extra $1 per year to fund the youth program, which has helped to send players to the Youth NABC each year since 2009.

"I can't tell you how fabulous our district board is," Burke said. "They could not be more youth oriented. They really love our kids and they want them to learn and grow."

In Sarasota, she said, local volunteers "have been the leaders in getting bridge in the schools." In Burke's home town, three schools offer bridge. "Everyone is really excited about it," she said.

Two of the young players at the Youth NABC in Toronto belong to Alice Harper of Orlando. She is a serious supporter of the youth-recruitment effort.

Alice Harper

Harper believes her children – 15-year-old Brandon and 12-year-old Amanda – have done better in school since they took up bridge. "They have to keep track of so many things," she noted. "There's a lot to the game, and it helps them with math and science."

Two of her nephews, Ryan and Jason Miller, are also playing in the Youth NABC.

Jason, she said, met a Chinese player online and played with him at the Youth NABCs in Washington DC and New Orleans.

Burke said she has been gratified to note that many of the young players who benefited from the Youth NABC are still helping promote it even after becoming too old to play.

The best, she said, have been Adam Kaplan, Jesse Stern, Jourdain Patchett, Kevin Dwyer, Josh Sablan and Drew Cavalier. "They have all been willing to help as volunteers and in the youth programs," she said.

Burke said the key to the success of the program is the support of the district board. "When you have the district behind you like we do," she said, "it makes it fun."

Bridge Classes Just for Parents

Saturday, July 30

10 a.m. to noon. Conference Rooms D and E on the Mezzanine Level at the Sheraton Centre Hotel.

Bridge for Parents – Start to Play I

This class is designed for new players or players who haven't played in many years and want to learn something about the "new" bridge. Learn the basic concepts of the game, ranks of the suits and basic hand evaluation. You will learn how an auction proceeds, what a "trump" contract is, as well as notrump. You will also learn what to bid and how high to bid. The instructor is Wanda Pearce of Ontario.

Bridge for Parents – Advance Your Game I

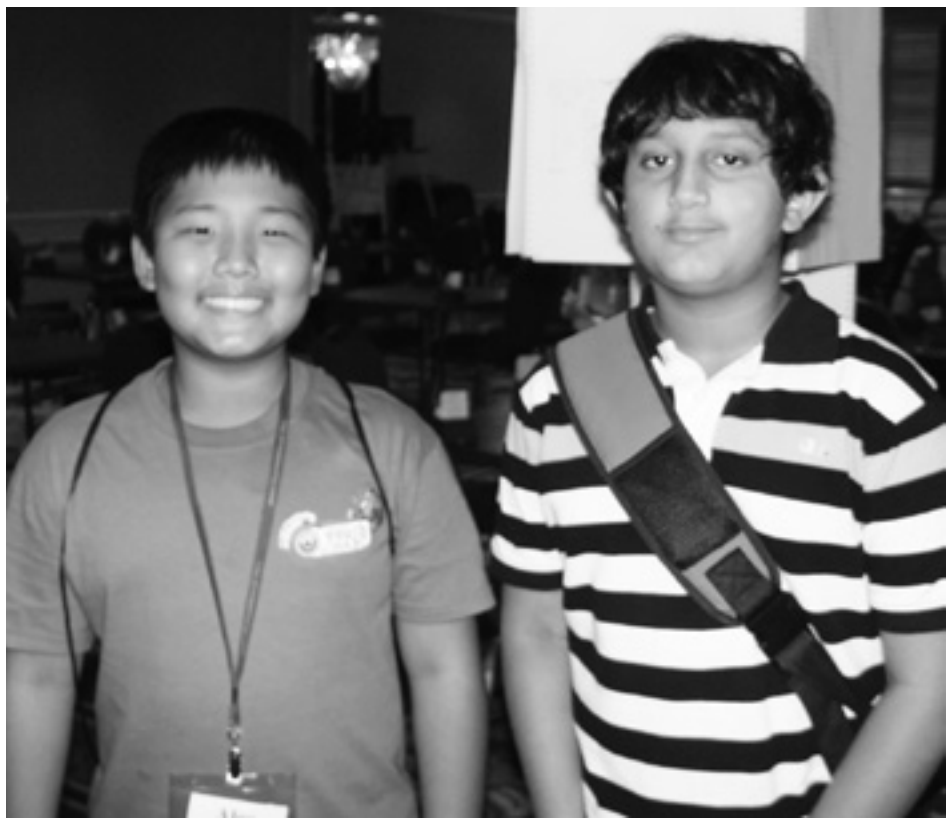
These lessons are for parents who know the basics of the game and want to improve their skills. The focus will be on planning the play, the play of the hand in notrump and in suit contracts, and hand evaluation after each bid. Drawing trumps and when to delay drawing trumps will be covered as well.

The instructor is Viktoria Renaud, also of Ontario.

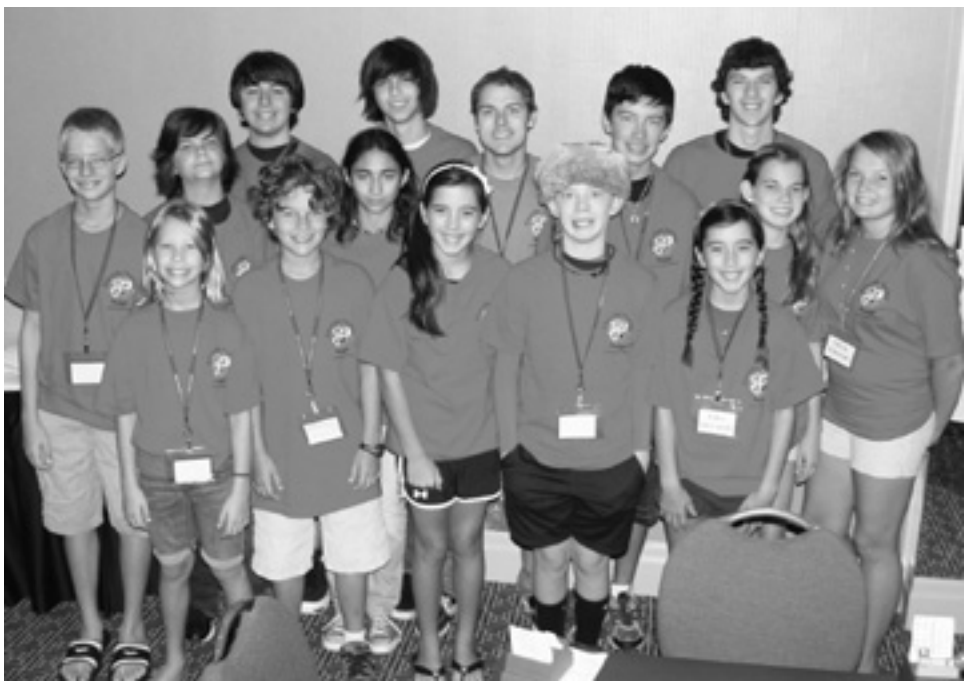
Emily Zhang and Gianni Hsieh were first East-West in the Morning Card Rook Pairs.

Veronica and Nicholas Zalewski were first East-West in the Afternoon Card Rook Pairs.

Jessica Green and MacKenzie Curry were first North-South in both Card Rook Pairs games on Friday.



Alec Zhan and Anuj Das were first East-West in the Baron Barclay Open Pairs Consolation.



Some of the 26 young players from Florida (District 9).

These young players came all the way from Moncton NB to play in the Youth NABC.

Youth NABC notes

There have been changes in the schedule for the World Youth Teams Championships in 2012. More details can be found on the front page of this issue of the Daily Bulletin.

In yesterday's Youth NABC Daily Bulletin captions with the photograph of Emily Zhang and Anson Ton and with the photo of Emily Kim and Nayoung Ko incorrectly stated their finish in their respective events. Both pairs were first in their sections.

Eric Rodriguez and Sutton Hewitt were first North-South in the Baron Barclay Open Pairs Consolation.

Young volunteer eager to assist

In Canada, high school students are required to log at least 40 hours as volunteers in the community. Without the service, they cannot graduate.

Riley Sims is recording some of his hours by volunteering at the Youth NABC in Toronto.

The 14-year-old is a student at Sir William Mulock High School in New Market ON.

His grandparents, Pat and Gary Morris, just became Life Masters. His sister Sarah, 12, is also a player. Riley also knows how to play, but he hasn't tried a tournament yet.

At the Youth NABC, he has helped set up, has checked table cards to make sure they are in order, and has sorted cards into suits to facilitate duplication.

"He has done an excellent job," said Joan Renzoni, another volunteer at the tournament. "He is a very charming young gentleman."

Riley said he plans to put in more than 40 volunteer hours before graduating from high school. At the tournament, he said, "I'm having fun just helping."
