Volunteers honored at Goodwill meeting

The ACBL Goodwill Committee was created in 1955 and renamed for its longest-tenured chair, Aileen Osofsky, after her death in 2010. She served as chair for 25 years and entered the ACBL Bridge Hall of Fame as the 2009 recipient of the Blackwood Award – for long service to the game without necessarily being a world-class player.

The Aileen Osofsky Goodwill Committee convenes on the first Monday of every NABC so that the members can strengthen their resolve to spread goodwill beyond the committee. The goal: making bridge fun for everyone at all times.

When Robert Hartman, ACBL's chief executive, was called upon by Goodwill Chair Sandy DeMartino to address the crowd, he said, "Of all the events I speak at, this is my favorite. You are friends of the game and great ambassadors. Thanks for all you do."

After welcoming everyone, DeMartino announced that Eddie Kantar was selected by the ACBL Board of Directors as the Honorary Member of the Year. "We couldn't believe he didn't already have the award," she said, "and we found that he does an incredible amount of work in his district."

Notice to Players Who Live Outside North America

Participation in the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs is limited to those ACBL members who have earned a Blue Ribbon qualification (or those members on the Lifetime Top 100 masterpoint list). Foreign players who have not earned a Blue Ribbon qualification but feel they are otherwise qualified must receive a waiver prior to the commencement of these contests. Previously granted waivers will not be honored for the Blue Ribbon Pairs.

For waiver information, please arrive early and see the Director-in-Charge at the selling site.

Restaurant specials

The following restaurants are offering additional deals to the ones listed in the Providence Schedule & Restaurant Guide with the presentation of a convention card.

Shula's 347 Grill, located in the Hilton, is offering 10% off all salads and sandwiches from noon to 3 p.m. Also, players can enjoy a glass of any varietal of Rhode Island's Jamestown Vineyard wine for just $4.

The Dorrance (60 Dorrance St., Downtown) offers bridge players a special three-course dinner menu for $35. The offer is good for diners who arrive between 5 and 6 p.m. (The restaurant opens promptly at 5 p.m.) The Dorrance promises quick service, allowing players to finish dinner in less than 90 minutes.

Check cashing and Bridge Bucks

Players will be able to cash checks and purchase Bridge Bucks daily through Saturday, Dec. 6, between 12 p.m. and 1 p.m. outside Ball Room A on the fifth floor of the convention center. You may use a credit card to purchase Bridge Bucks.

Parking Information

Discounted parking is available at the RI Convention Center Garage. The discounted daily rate for parking from 7 a.m. to midnight is just $8. Players must obtain a parking discount voucher (worth $4) at the Registration Desk in the lobby or the NABC Shirt Sales Desk outside Exhibition Hall C. This voucher must be used when exiting the garage and will reduce the parking fee from the normal event rate of $12 to the discounted rate of $8. The overnight rate at the Convention Center Garage is $18 per 24-hour period. Discount vouchers cannot be used for overnight parking.

Use of the Bidding Box — Alerts and Announcements

When using bidding boxes, the ACBL requires that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an Announcement, use the Announcement word (such as "transfer") and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

A player who Alerts or Announces a bid must make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or Announcement has been made.

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. The convention card must include the first and last name of each member of the partnership, and the cards must be identical.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard

American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6-board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

FEE: $15 covers both sessions. Sign up at the door.

DATE: Tuesday and Wednesday, December 2 and 3

TIME: 9:00 am to noon, both days

LOCATION: See Daily Bulletin Schedule for location.

This is a continuing education course for club directors presented by Dan Plato, Tournament Operations Specialist and former club owner/manager. Topics include advanced rulings, additional skills in ACBLscore, improved ruling delivery and many other issues faced daily at the club level. Participants must attend both sessions (Tuesday and Wednesday).

Poor signaling, Part 3

In the following situation, you are East.

2NT (1)

Pass 3NT All Pass

(1) 20-21

West

West, your partner, leads the ♠6. You put up the king and South wins with the ♠A. Declarer's next move is to play the ♦10. Partner follows with a low card and it's your turn to play. Now what?

Do you win the ace and fire back a spade? Play low? The answer can be found in the card partner played at trick two. In this situation, it is vital for partner to give a count signal so you know what to do.

You know you have to play a low diamond at least once. Declarer's opening guaranteed at least two cards in every suit, so you cannot consider winning the ace on the first round of the suit. Declarer would then have four diamond tricks.

Okay, so perhaps you should play your A on the second round. Well, that would be no good if declarer started with three diamonds. He would still have one left and would end up with four tricks in the suit.

If declarer started with only two diamonds, however, you must play your ace at trick two because a second diamond trick might be all South needs to make his game (he has indicated a strong hand, after all).

You may be thinking, "Wow! That's confusing. How will I ever know what to do?" You will know because partner will give you a signal telling you how many diamonds he has and therefore how many South has.

If partner's diamond holding is 7-6, he will play the 7 – high-low to indicate an even number of cards. If it's 7-6-3, he will play the 3 (low-high from an odd number) and you will know declarer started with just two diamonds. You can limit him to one trick in the suit by playing low at trick two and the ace at trick three. If partner has a singleton diamond, declarer has four of them, so you can't keep declarer from setting up the suit and getting to it.

Tomorrow: More on count signals.

The I/N Scene

Players are traveling long distances to play in the Intermediate/Newcomer games at the Providence NABC. In Monday afternoon's 299er game, Irma Lopez and Norma Fajardo (left) came from Montreal QC. Sandra Mulcahy and Doris Beaton (right) traveled a bit farther. Mulcahy is from Brisbane, Australia, and Beaton is from Oklahoma City OK.

Oops

Yesterday's shot of brothers Daniel Neiman and David Neiman said the duo was playing in the Saturday 299er game. In actuality, they are both Life Masters who were playing in the Daylight Open Pairs ... which is played in the same room as the 299er game.

Thinking bridge By Eddie Kantar

♦ J 10 6 Dlr: South Vul: E-W ♥ K Q ♦ 8 5 3 ♣ A Q 9 6 5 ★ 7 3 ★ K 9 8 ♥976432 ♥ J 10 5 ♦ A K J ♦ Q 10 9 7 ♣ 8 3 ♣ 7 4 2 A A Q 5 4 2 ♥ A 8 ♦842 ♣ K J 10 West North East South 1♠ Pass 2♣ Pass 3♣ Pass Pass 3♠ 4♠ All Pass

Opening lead: \bullet A – ace from A-K-x-(x) at trick one vs. suit contracts.

Bidding commentary: Those who play 2/1 forcing to game might jump to 4♠ with the North hand after the raise to 3♠. This follows the concept of going slower to show a better hand and leaving room for slam exploration.

Those who do not play 2/1 would use the diagrammed bidding, where $3 \spadesuit$ (delayed support at the three level) is forcing.

Defensive commentary: When signaling encouragement using standard carding, encourage with the highest spot card you can afford, in this case the 10. Signaling with the 9 would deny the 10. It may not matter on this deal, but it does matter in many, many cases. Be careful when signaling encouragement with "equal" spot cards.

Further defensive commentary: After East's encouraging signal with the 10, West continues with the ◆K and ◆J. East overtakes the jack with the queen. Can you see why? Read on.

In order for South to have an opening bid, he must have all of the missing honor cards, ♠A Q, the ♥A, the ♠K and probably the ♣J as well. If so, how are you going to beat this contract?

Go back to old faithful: When there are no further tricks coming from the side suits (hearts and clubs), think ruff-sluff! If you lead your fourth diamond and partner inserts the ♠7, driving out dummy's ♠10, your ♠K 9 8 will produce a defensive trick for down one. All you have to do is cover the ♠J if it is led.

The 2013 winners of the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs were Steve Weinstein and Agustin Madala.

Edgar Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs

The Edgar Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs ranks with the von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs (and now the new Platinum Pairs in the spring) as one of the most prestigious — and toughest — pair events on the ACBL calendar. Like the LM Pairs and Platinum Pairs, the Blue Ribbon Pairs is played over three days and includes two qualifying, two semifinal and two final sessions.

Entry is restricted to winners and runners-up in regional championships — plus high finishers in North American championships, members of current Grand National district championship teams, members of current official teams representing ACBL and the top 100 lifetime masterpoint holders.

The Blue Ribbon Pairs was renamed the Edgar Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs in 1999 to honor one of bridge's all-time great players, writers, administrators and the authority on the laws of the Kaplan (1925-1997) won his first North American championship in 1953 — the Vanderbilt – and his last in 1997 — the Open Swiss Teams at the Spring NABC in Dallas.

Kaplan was recognized as the world's foremost authority on the laws of duplicate and rubber bridge. He became co-chairman of the ACBL Laws Commission in 1978 and was co-chairman of the WBF Laws Commission at the time of his death.

He was named ACBL Honorary Member in 1993. In 1995 he was inducted into the ACBL Bridge Hall of Fame and the WBF Hall of Fame.

The event is contested for the Cavendish Trophy, awarded for the National Open Pair Championship and donated by the Cavendish Club of New York in 1928. Since 1963, the trophy has been awarded to winners of the Blue Ribbon Pairs.

ACBL President
Phyllis Harlan did the honors for the Volunteer of the Year
– Mike Carmen of the St. Louis area.
Among his many contributions to the game was his chairmanship of the 2013 Spring NABC
in his home town.

Harlan said the list of suggested winners was long and

Goodwill Chair Sandy De Martino

impressive, but Carmen was a standout. Although Carmen was not present, Harlan sent him a message: "Thank you for all the goodwill you spread." To the assembled Goodwill Committee members, she added, "You are the best ACBL has to offer."

Richard DeMartino represents District 25, the host district for the NABC. He was called upon to name the top volunteer for his district. He also noted that the list of candidates was large and impressive, but he decided on NABC Co-Chair Joe Brouillard for the honor.

Said Brouillard, "I volunteer because I enjoy the game and I wanted to contribute to make it better." Brouillard had the crowd laughing when he noted that in the two years he spent preparing for the Fall NABC, "I had two good trainers – Captain Morgan and Jack Daniels."

DeMartino said credit and thanks are due to the NABC committee members for the effort that goes into putting on such a big tournament.

One of Sandy DeMartino's final duties was announcing the Goodwill Member of the Year, presented each year to the member who has exhibited unselfish dedication to the causes of good conduct, worthy participation and ethical behavior.

The 2014 winner is James Flesher of Salt Lake City UT. DeMartino quoted from the nomination form for Flesher: "For more than 35 years, he has given his time and talents to Utah bridge. He is welcoming, courteous and ethical. He demonstrates by example the intangibles of bridge: active ethics, courtesy and enthusiasm."

The Volunteer of the Year and Goodwill Member of the Year awards will be presented to the winner at the 2015 Spring NABC in New Orleans.

DeMartino closed the meeting with a familiar entreaty: "Please proudly wear your Goodwill pin, support goodwill in your districts and units and remind others we can be competitive and still be friendly, caring and ethical. Remember – enjoy!"

Overtime thriller

Going into the final 16 deals of the Baze Senior Knockout Teams quarterfinal, the Vinita Gupta squad was down 19 against the Gaylor Kasle team. Gupta, defending champions, won the fourth set 41-22 to force an eight-board playoff.

Gupta prevailed, but a deal near the end could have swung the match in Kasle's favor.

The first swing of overtime went to Gupta.

(1) Precision: strong, artificial and forcing Had Larry Kozlove led a low heart, Bart Bramley would have made his contract. On winning the heart lead, there would have been no diamond ruff for Kasle. Bramley could win any switch, pull trumps and concede a diamond. Kozlove, however, started with the ♥K, not expecting the defenders to take more than one heart and wanting to have a look at dummy. Kasle followed with the ♥J, suit preference for diamonds. The ♦A and a diamond ruff followed for one down.

Eric Rodwell's weak jump shift put it to John Schermer, who opted for an aggressive position with his 5-5 shape. Jeff Meckstroth's 5♥ added to the pressure, and Neil Chambers also bid aggressively, leaping to 6*S. Rodwell's double was Lightner, requesting an unusual lead (not his suit, not a trump). Meckstroth led the ♦A and continued with a low diamond, reverse suit preference. Rodwell ruffed and exited with a low heart to Meckstroth's 9. Plus 300 was good for a 6-IMP swing to Gupta, now ahead 151-145.

Kasle took the lead back on the second board.

A look at all four hands would have guided Rodwell to the killing lead of a low spade to his partner's king, followed by a club for Rodwell to ruff. He would still have the ♥K coming. Instead, Rodwell made the normal lead of the ♠A. He continued the suit, ruffed by Chambers, who played a diamond to the ace and a diamond from dummy. He went up with the king when Meckstroth showed out, but managed 11 tricks by playing a couple of rounds of clubs then throwing Rodwell in with his trump trick. Rodwell had to lead away from his ♥K or give declarer a ruff-sluff, letting declarer discard his losing heart. That was 600 for North-South and 7 IMPs to Kasle, now leading 152-151.

Gupta went back into the lead on the third board.

A spade went to Rodwell's ace and he continued with the ♣10, ruffed by declarer, who was starting to get low on trumps. When Chambers played a low spade from hand, Rodwell ruffed with the ♥9 and played a third round of clubs to the 9 and king. Down to just three trumps, Chambers played the good ♠10 from hand, discarding a club. Meckstroth ruffed and tapped declarer one more time. The final result was three down for minus 500 and 10 IMPs to Gupta, now leading 161-152.

Gupta picked up an overtrick IMP on board 4 to move ahead by 10 IMPs, then added two more on this one:

The 2-IMP gain pushed the Gupta margin to 12 IMPs. A pair of IMPs went Kasle's way when Kasle and Kozlove made 150 in 3♦ while Meckstroth scrambled to take eight tricks in 2♣ on a 6-0 fit. This was the penultimate board:

Meckstroth and Rodwell are an aggressive pair, so they are familiar with "live by the sword etc." The defense was deadly accurate. Chambers led the ♠8 and Schermer won with the king, cashed the ace and gave his partner a spade ruff. A heart to the ace was followed by a fourth round of spades, Meckstroth and Chambers discarding diamonds. The defense already had four tricks in with three trump tricks to come. Three down meant plus 800 and a potential big swing to Kasle.

It didn't work out.

As you can see, a diamond lead would have resulted in plus 200 for East-West – good for a 14-IMP swing to Kasle – but on the uninformative auction, Kozlove had no reason to reject the normal lead of the ♣J. That gave Bramley the chance he needed.

He won the ♣A, cashed the ♥A, happy to see both opponents follow (meaning a maximum of two trump losers) then cashed his top two spades and ruffed a spade to get to dummy. Bramley discarded one diamond on the ♣K and another on the ♣Q. He then ruffed dummy's last club to hand and played his last spade, ruffing when East discarded.

Bramley lost two hearts and a diamond but had his game in hand for plus 620. It was a 5-IMP loss, but when the final board of the overtime ended up as a push, Gupta was through to the semifinal round with a 154-149 victory.

Slow Play

Slow play, as opposed to careful or thoughtful play, is discourteous to your opponents -- and to all other competitors as well. Players and pairs who take more than their allotted time are subject to penalty.

In general, pairs who are rarely late will be warned while pairs who are habitually tardy and/or pay no attention to time limits will be penalized.

Super Senior

and Craig Robinson, the current Board member representing District 4 (Central New York, Eastern Pennsylvania, Delaware, Southern New Jersey) and former ACBL president (2011), won the foursession contest by a comfortable margin.

The runners-up in the contest were Leonard Melander and Bert Newman.

Taylor and Robinson were in second place after Sunday's qualifying round, but their modest session scores of 56.08% and 61.54% were enough to see them into the winners circle.

With the victory, the duo denied Ed Lazarus a fifth consecutive win in the contest. Lazarus had won the event from its debut in 2010 to 2013.

Open BAM

was Michael Kamil's team. Kamil of Santa Clara CA played with Stan Tulin of Boca Raton FL, Gary Cohler of Miami FL, Billy Cohen of Sherman Oaks CA, and Israelis Dror Padon and Alon Birman.

Gromov, who had a carryover of 3.04 from the qualifying round, scored 17 wins in the first final session and 18 in the second.

Women's BAM

teammates were Janice Seamon-Molson and Tobi Sokolow.

Second place went to the Phyllis Fireman squad, leaders after the first two session on Sunday. Fireman played with Shannon Cappelletti, Benedicte Cronier, Sylvie Willard, Marion Michielsen and Meike Wortel.

The winners rallied from sixth place to move into second, trailing the Fireman team by 2.25 boards. Fireman had 16 out of 26 in the second final session, but Deas raced past them with 20 wins.

Winning the trick cheaply

Richard Oshlag reported the following deal played by his partner, Mark Dahl, in the Mitchell Open BAM Teams. It's not often that declarer wins a trump trick with the 5, both opponents following, especially at trick two.

The auction at both tables was 1♥ by South, 1♠ by North, 2♥ by South, all pass.

Dahl, South, received a low diamond lead. Dummy's 9 was covered by East's 10. Declarer ducked. East then shifted to the ♥3. Dahl played the ♥2, and when East followed with the ♥4, dummy's ♥5 won the trick.

After cashing the ◆A and the ace of trumps, Dahl decided to play West for the ♣Q, taking the finesse instead of playing for the drop. The most the defense could collect was three trump tricks, a diamond and a spade, so North-South scored plus 110.

In the replay, 2♥ failed by two tricks, so Oshlag's team won the board.

Halfway through the match with the Dan Morse team, Gupta was on the wrong side of a 91-60 score. Gupta won the third set 50-27 to get to within 8 IMPs, then won the fourth quarter 61-28 to advance, 171-146.

Lynch's win was even more impressive. Down 35 at the halfway point against the Victor Markowicz team, Lynch closed the gap to 4 IMPs then and blitzed their opponents 62-1 in the fourth quarter to win 128-71.

Monitoring

At this and future North American Championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. Please summon a director if a problem occurs at the table.

This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

FGX is a proud supporter of the 2014 Fall North American Bridge Championship

The hugely successful Learn Bridge in a Day? program started by Melissa Bernhardt (left) and Patty Tucker has been such a hit that the pair has begun leading classes to train instructors. Bernhardt and Tucker are the owners of Whirlwind Bridge, the company that created LBIAD. They led a training class yesterday for some two dozen new instructors (above). They will offer more classes at each of the NABCs in 2015.

Carmichael is Grand LM

Tom Carmichael of Kennesaw GA became a Grand Life Master in September when he topped the 10,000-masterpoint milestone.

Carmichael won the Lebhar IMP Pairs in 1997. He was second in the 2005 Spingold Knockout Teams and the 2010 Wernher Open Pairs.

In world events, Carmichael scored a silver medal in the 1999 World Junior Team Championships, and he has been the npc of several U.S. Junior teams since 2010.

Carmichael currently serves as the chair of ACBL's Competition and Conventions Committee.

Don't play too well By Alfred Sheinwold

"My son wants to become the world's best bridge player," a lady told me at dinner recently. "Should I encourage him?"

"It doesn't matter," I told her. "If he's bitten by the bug, he'll spend all of his time on bridge no matter what. But warn him not to play too well."

I told my dinner companions about cousin Cuthbert. He was making a name for himself at Cambridge almost 50 years ago when he was bitten by the bridge bug. He left the university and haunted the London bridge clubs, where he wrote monographs on Restricted Choice, Grosvenor Coups and Encrypted Signals.

To save the family name, his father, Brigadier Sheinwold, sent him to New Guinea. Cuthbert didn't care; he was writing a definitive study of the play of the hand when the missing trumps break 6-2 or worse.

I kept in touch with him and got the last letter he sent from his home among the headhunters. By that time he had gone to pot. Literally.

"I played the accompanying hand last night against the chieftains of the local tribes,"Cuthbert wrote. "I ruffed the first heart with the ♠J and saw that I could make the slam if I found the ♠Q or if the club finesse worked. The odds were slightly better than three to one in my favor."

Then, he wrote, he saw that the slam was unbeatable if the trumps broke 2-2. He took the ♠A, led a spade to the 10 and ruffed dummy's other heart. The trumps had broken favorably, and he was about to make the slam. Little did he know what a terrible risk he was running.

He led a diamond to the king and returned a diamond. East followed and Cuthbert finessed.

The finesse assured the slam. If West had the •Q he would be endplayed. A club return would give Cuthbert a free finesse; a heart return would let him ruff in his hand and discard a club from dummy. In any case, he would discard a club from dummy on the fifth diamond.

When West discarded on Cuthbert's $J, the burly cannibal chieftain in the East seat said, "You are cheating. You have looked in my hand. No honest bridge player finesses for the queen with nine cards in the combined hands."

"Did the cannibal chieftain really say that?" a dinner companion asked.

"Yes," I told him. "Very few cannibals know that it is sometimes correct to finesse for the queen with only four cards of the suit missing."

West, also a cannibal chief, agreed with his partner. North disagreed but was overruled, and Cuthbert was summarily sentenced to the cooking pot. Since his captors were not barbarians, they allowed him to write a farewell letter while the water was heating.

"Do you still have the letter?" another dinner companion asked.

"No," I replied regretfully. "The paper turned yellow and crumbled. But it taught me a lesson I have never forgotten: It is dangerous to play too well. To this day I sometimes play a hand or write a column with something short of perfection — in memory of my poor cousin."

This column originally appeared in the May 1988 issue of the Bridge Bulletin.

Josephine Pesce

Josephine's life was enhanced by the game of bridge. She played three to four times a week, well in to her nineties. Bridge was an important part of her life.

She enjoyed entertaining her bridge friends and would routinely invite them to dine as guests of her son, Bob, at the finest restaurants in Providence!

She always had a smile on her face and had a kind word for everyone. A vibrant, special and elegant lady who is deeply missed by all.

Frank Mastrola

Frank achieved the rank of Platinum Life Master, winning more than 10,000 masterpoints. He travelled extensively to bridge tournaments all over the world with his beloved wife, Sue. He regaled players with bridge stories well into the night at these events.

He had a great sense of humor and loved the game of bridge.

Memorials

Sue Mastrola

Sue passed away nine months after Frank. Even though they did not play in most tournaments together, Sue thoroughly enjoyed attending them with Frank over the years.

During the last year of his life, Sue became his favorite bridge partner and they played together locally.

Brad Oxnard

Brad Oxnard ran the Bridge Club of Rhode Island starting in the Forties. He always encouraged a rubber bridge game after the duplicate games had finished to keep the excitement going.

Brad was a very low-key person who was highly respected by everyone.

Avis B. McCulloch

Avis will always be remembered for her amazing style and grace. She enjoyed many interests in her lifetime, duplicate bridge being one of them.

Avis adored her family and friends and loved to entertain them. It was no surprise that when she started playing bridge that entertainment would soon follow. She hosted many fabulous après bridge parties which were enjoyed by all who attended.

She was passionate about the game from both a knowledge and playing perspective. Her vibrancy and presence is sorely missed by all.

Barbara Kirtley

Barbara Mitchell Kirtley, 91, passed away on March 9. An avid bridge player, she became a Life Master in 1974 and a Gold Life Master in 2001. In her later years, she was known to say that the only time she was truly happy was when she was playing bridge. She was my mother, my friend, and my bridge partner.

She is missed by my four siblings as a mom and a friend, but I am truly thankful that we had the opportunity to create that special bond of being bridge partners.
