Report of the ACBL Ethical Oversight Committee

In the matter of disciplinary charges against Lotan Fisher, Player No. 1906658, and Ron Schwartz, Player No. 1906623, the Ethical Oversight Committee unanimously finds:

- 1. Overwhelming evidence establishes that charged parties Lotan Fisher and Ron Schwartz engaged in collusive cheating and gave false information about prior disciplinary convictions when applying for ACBL membership.
- Pursuant to the ACBL Code of Disciplinary Regulations Appendix B, Part B, E15, Lotan Fisher and Ron Schwartz are EXPELLED, with loss of all membership rights and privileges in the

A Message from ACBL President Ken Monzingo

For the second time this week, members of ACBL's Ethical Oversight Committee, this time led by chair Jon Brissman, worked tirelessly in a three-day hearing to reach a decision regarding the charges of collusive cheating by Lotan Fisher and Ron Schwartz. The above result again confirms that our members will never tolerate such behavior. These diligent committee members gave many hours of their personal time, and ACBL management spent months compiling volumes of evidence, once again sending the message that our organization is serious in this matter. This is a refreshing new era of responsibility

Close calls and upsets in Spingold Round of 32

Pending an appeal that will be decided this morning, the No. 3 seed led by Jimmy Cayne was eliminated by a single IMP in the round of 32 by the No. 30 seed captained by Massimiliano Di Franco. Final score: 128-127. Also out of the event is No. 10 Andrew Rosenthal who was defeated by Jeffrey Wolfson 161-121. Richard Schwartz (No. 13) also got the boot when they lost to Ron Pachtmann's No. 23 team (aka Wolff npc) 108-81.

Several top seeds survived scares yesterday. No. 2 Marty Fleisher was down 14 IMPs to Barry Rigal's team after three sets, but Fleisher came back in the last quarter to win 130-108, and No. 4 Lavazza trailed Bernard Payen's team (the original 36 seed) by 10 IMPs in the third quarter before taking control in the last set to win 144-112.

Micro in semis

The 0-1500 Micro-Spingold has reached the semifinal stage. In one quarterfinal match, Curt Kristensen's team won a six-board playoff against the team captained by David Yoon, who came back from down 39 after three quarters to tie. The Kristensen team will face Michael Wavada's Connecticut-based team. The California team captained by Winston Chang will face Spencer Sun's squad.

The 0-5000 Mini-Spingold is in the quarterfinal round today.

League counsel headed for retirement

In the 14 years since he signed on as legal counsel to the ACBL, Peter Rank has seen his share of interesting legal cases. When he leaves the post on July 31, it will be with mixed feelings.

"Overall," he says, "I have enjoyed it tremendously, but there have been days, weeks and months where I would have preferred to be general counsel to the Ford Motor Company. It would have been easier. The depth of the legal issues for ACBL has been overwhelming."

When he started as the ACBL's top lawyer, Rank was well prepared for the job. He grew up in Northern California, did undergraduate studies at Stanford University and earned a degree in law at Boalt Hall, aka the University of California at Berkeley Law School.

He worked as deputy district attorney for Contra Costa County and later joined the administration of President Ronald Reagan, writing a "workfare" program that was later adopted by President Bill Clinton.

As California's director of health, he acted aggressively to inform the public about AIDS, at one point closing every bath house in San Francisco.

After leaving the Reagan administration in 1972, Rank went into private practice. When he retired in 2008 from the firm he founded – K&R Law Group – the company employed 55 attorneys.

Rank, a three-time North American champion, joined the ACBL in 1958, and within six months was playing with the legendary Barry Crane, considered

Largest Youth NABC begins today

The largest ever Youth NABC begins today in the Thurgood Marshall Ballroom on the mezzanine level. More than 180 players under 19 pre-registered for the tournament, more than the 165 who participated last year and significantly more than the number who pre-registered last year.

Among them are almost 40 students from Beijing and a smaller group from Bermuda. There are also contingents from youth bridge programs in Silicon Valley, Atlanta, Reno and Toronto. A school in an underprivileged area of Orange NJ provides assistance to students traveling for the tournament. The Washington DC area also has a school bridge program sending local students.

This is the ninth Youth NABC and the second time it has been held in Washington. After the Forty squads will play in today's two-session final.

Pollack, Fergani lead Wernher

Montreal-area players Frederic Pollack and Kamel Fergani are leading the Wernher Open Pairs after the qualifying sessions by a little more than half a board. They scored 65.45% in the first session and 60.77% in the second session. In second are Edward Spear of Sarasota FL and Jonathan Green of Jacksonville NC. Today, 176 pairs will play in the final sessions.

and accounting: ACBL will actively pursue and prosecute cheaters.

Again, on behalf of myself, the Board of Directors, ACBL management and the 168,000 other members of the League, we owe gratitude and respect to the courageous committee members Jon Brissman, Cheri Bjerkan, Dennis Clerkin, Lesley Davis, Bruce Ferguson, Bob Glasson, Hendrik Sharples and Eddie Wold. And special thanks to EOC Chairman Bart Bramley along with League Counsel Peter Rank and co-counsel Jeff Overby for their dedication in making sure such behavior will never be accepted in any part of our game. I also wish to thank the volunteer services of Bob Hamman, Jeff Meckstroth and Meyer Kotkin. I am so proud of them all.

It's a great new beginning, and I am confident that management and the Board of Directors, with the help of these extraordinary volunteer members of the EOC, will continue to ensure the game of bridge is conducted on a level playing field, and that those who would connive to play otherwise will face the maximum penalties available.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

For this tournament, the anecdotes vou're used to seeing at the beginning of the column are replaced by a Quick Tip at the end. Enjoy.

Directors and irregularities By Brent Manley

New players have a lot to get used to. Among the challenges are director calls and the outcomes when irregularities occur. For those who don't know, the Laws of Duplicate Bridge defines irregularity as "a deviation from correct procedure inclusive of, but not limited to, those which involve an infraction by a player."

insufficient bids, exposed cards, penalty cards and revokes. In case you are wondering about "call," that term includes all bids, passes, doubles and redoubles. All bids are calls, but not all calls are

Some players mistakenly consider a call for a director to be an accusation. Of course, that feeling can be influenced by the tone of the call. A screamed "Director!" is substantially different from a calm "Director, please."

When it comes to irregularities, there is one thing for new players to remember: Call the director. Do not make your own rulings, and do not allow a self-appointed "expert" at your table to do so. Chances are the "expert" is not as well-versed on the laws as he thinks he is.

The key point is that when one of your opponents makes a mistake, you probably have options you don't know about.

For example: You are declarer and your righthand opponent makes the opening lead. The lead, of course, was supposed to have been made by your LHO. If the lead out of turn was made face down, it can be withdrawn without affecting the play.

In the case of a face-up opening lead out of turn, politely summon the director, who will provide you with all your options, including putting your hand down as the dummy. Note that if partner had already starting putting his cards down and you could have seen them, the lead is deemed to have been accepted, partner will put down the rest of his hand and you no longer have options such as requiring or prohibiting the lead of that suit.

With some irregularities, there are too many factors for most players, especially new ones, to consider. For example: you open 1NT, the next player bids 2♦ and partner, not noticing his RHO's bid, tries 2♣. When the director comes, he will ask if 2♣ was artificial, i.e., Stayman. If you and partner have another way of bidding Stayman over interference, perhaps 3 ♦ in this case, partner can make that bid and there is no further problem. If not, no matter what partner does, you will have to pass for the rest of the auction. Partner is prohibited, by the way, from doubling in this situation.

If partner's LHO is equally oblivious and LHO makes any call (pass, bid or double), he is deemed to have accepted the insufficient bid.

These examples merely scratch the surface of the various outcomes of the irregularities you will see as you progress as a bridge player. If you always call the director when an infraction occurs, you will learn why that is the wisest course.

Quick Tip

Many players look upon the laws as punishment for transgressions. This opening statement in the introduction to the laws aims to dispel that notion: "The laws are designed to define correct procedure and to provide an adequate remedy when there is a departure from correct procedure. They are primarily designed not as punishment for irregularities but rather for the rectification of situations where non-offenders may otherwise be damaged. Players should be ready to accept gracefully any rectification or adjusted score awarded by the Director."

I recommend, as part of your education as a bridge player, that you buy copy of the Laws of Duplicate Bridge. You won't absorb all of the information, but reading and re-reading the book will help you understand your rights and options as a non-offender.

Accident coming up! You open 2♣, partner responds 2♦, waiting. After you rebid 2♠, partner raises to 3♠. Your agreements are that a raise in this sequence shows a stronger hand than the one partner has. Among other things, it should have at least one ace or a king and a queen or shortness, something that looks like it will produce a trick – not queens, jacks, 9s and 3s! In any case, you bid 4NT and sign off in 5♠ after partner shows zero key a low diamond. Plan the play.

West leads the ♣J to East's ace and East returns

Did you take the diamond finesse hoping it would work (50%) and if it didn't, hope the ♠K would drop singleton (26%)? Or did you unblock the &K at trick one so you could win the A and lead a club to the 9, discarding your losing $\bullet Q$ on the $\clubsuit Q$, and then take the spade finesse for an overtrick?

The ♣10 is marked in the West hand. If East had the $A 10 \times (x)$, East would not have played the ace at trick one. Why? Because East knows that you are missing two key cards, so his partner must have an entry. In other words, East knows he is not going to lose the ♣A and has a good chance of taking two club tricks if he plays low at trick one. For those two reasons, when East does play the ♣A at trick one, he doesn't have the ♣10. Therefore dumping the ♣K at trick one, winning the ♦A and finessing the ♣9 at trick three stands out like a sore thumb.

When the opponents stop at five of a major after a Blackwood sequence, assume two keycards are missing and defend accordingly. The full deal:

You open a strong 1NT and reach 3NT. West leads the ♥2. This goes to the jack and queen. You cross to the ♦K to play a spade to the 3, jack and West's queen. Back comes the ♣9 (zero or two higher). What is your plan?

At the table, declarer decided to rise with the king and clear spades – not a success. This was the full deal:

	♠ 10 6 4 2 ♥ 10 9 7
	♦ K 10 8
	♣ A K 4
♠ Q 9		★ K 8 7 3

	♦ A 9 5 4
	♣ J 6 3

When spades went pear-shaped, East could cash out the suit and shift to a heart. Declarer was toast.

At the other table, West was afraid to shift to clubs at trick four (rightly so, in a sense). So West played back the $9, and declarer, Doug Simson, could work out from the tempo that West was not comfortable doing so.

Simson ducked the ◆9 to leave West on play. Had West exited with the ◆Q, declarer would have ducked again, then cashed all his winners and would have eventually endplayed West by putting him in with the ♥K to lead clubs into the split tenace.

In fact, West switched to a club, which Simson ran to his hand and set up diamonds for his ninth winner

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. The convention card must include the first and last name of each member of the partnership, and the cards must be identical.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6-board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

The power of low cards

On the way to a second place finish in the Truscott Senior Swiss, Mark Itabashi and Doug Doub played a board that provides a good illustration of the difference in play between IMPs and matchpoints. This was from the second final session.

After arriving in 4♠, on the lead of the ♣A and another club to your king, how do you play?

At pairs you would usually play the ♠K first, since you can pick up the suit for no losers when there is a stiff honor in the West hand. However, at IMPs, the idea is to avoid losing three trump tricks, so you should start with a low spade toward the ace, intending to just cover East's card to guard against a 5–0 break.

When East shows out, declarer played the ♠10, West winning and exiting a heart. Itabashi now cashed the ♠KQ and the ♥K, ruffed a heart and played the ♠A. It didn't matter what West did, as the power of declarer's ♠6 led to losing only one more trick. Plus 620 was a 13 IMP gain, as declarer went down two at the other table.

Another deal forced the pair to find two tricks in a true Yarborough.

Ulf Nilsson, playing with Drew Cannell, passed on this deal, the last in the Leong team's win over the Rose Meltzer squad.

Cannell's 44 was a serious slam try, and Nilsson drove to slam.

He won the club lead, ruffed a club, drew trumps in one round, ruffed a club and led a second trump up. West discarded a spade, East a diamond. Now came a club ruff, the ◆J toward dummy, West playing high low to suggest an odd number. When Nilsson ruffed a club and found they were 4-4, he could sensibly reconstruct the West hand to be 5-1-3-4. Now the percentage play in spades is to lead to the queen and back to the 10. But if East had only two spades, Nilsson could ignore the percentages and play the ◆A and another spade. He could put up the queen, not caring if it won or lost. The full deal:

inaugural event held at an Atlanta sectional in 2008, the Youth NABC was held in conjunction with the NABC for the first time here in 2009.

College scholarships are awarded to the winners of the main events on Friday and Saturday. Baron Barclay awards $2000 for the National Youth Open Pairs on Friday, and Bridge Base Online provides $4000 for the National Youth Open Swiss Teams on Saturday. Master Point Press also awards a $1000 scholarship to the winner of the Sportsmanship Award.

The schedule also includes Cardrook Pairs events for less experienced players. Dozens of volunteers will be on hand to help keep their games moving along.

by many to be the top matchpoint player of all time. At the time he started playing with Crane, Rank had 18 masterpoints. In 1965, he won the Barry Crane Top 500 masterpoint race – known as the McKinney at that time – with a record 1186 masterpoints that year.

Rank was still overseeing his law firm when he joined the ACBL staff. One of his first projects was rewriting the ACBL Code of Disciplinary Regulations. "Making that system fair," he said, "is my greatest achievement at the ACBL."

One of Rank's first cases involved a player in Indiana who was disciplined by the ACBL. The player sued the ACBL, lost the case, then appealed to the U.S. District Court in Indianapolis. In rejecting the appeal, Rank notes, the court ruled that "ACBL rules on discipline are as fair as any sports organization in the U.S." Based on those comments, the U.S. Supreme Court declined to hear the case when it was appealed to the nation's highest court.

Rank has special feelings for the bridge players who do so much work for the game of bridge without thought of remuneration or credit. "There is no greater volunteer organization in the U.S.," he says.

In retirement, Rank doesn't plan to play much bridge, preferring to return to the show-dog business where he was a major factor for many years, with 300 champions and more than 100 best-in-shows in the highly competitive show-dog world. His Manchester terrier named Jessie was known throughout the show-dog world. His latest potential champion is Kris, a dog of the same breed.

When he isn't showing Kris or playing golf, Rank will work on doing "one last show" for an NABC, the fall tournament next year in San Diego. Rank has recruited lots of talent, including an experienced director, and plans include the presentation of 39 songs in a one-hour show. The show is called "There is Nothing Like a Game." Says Rank, "It's the best show I've ever written."

Avery received the lead of a low club which ran to East's king and her ace. Declarer then cashed the trump ace, leaving the $10 in dummy, and next advanced the ♥10. East won the ace and cashed the ◆A. Avery ruffed the low diamond continuation, ruffed a club in dummy and pitched her remaining low club on the ♥K. A diamond ruff allowed her to draw trumps and claim. Making five for a good matchpoint score.

Use of the bidding box— Alerts and Announcements

When using bidding boxes, the ACBL requires that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an Announcement, use the Announcement word (such as "transfer") and tap the Alert strip at the same time. A player who Alerts or Announces a bid must make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or Announcement has been made.

Playing in an NABC+ pairs game? Buy your entry early!

In an effort to speed up the start of all NABC+ pairs events – which require additional time for proper seeding – the ACBL asks participants to please buy their entries at least 15 minutes before game time. This is especially true if you expect to be a seeded pair.

Master Point Press Sportsmanship Award 5:30 p.m.

China is well represented at this year's Youth NABC. These six players and their coach stopped for a quick photo at the Marriott on Wednesday. Play takes place in the Thurgood Marshall Ballroom on the mezzanine level.

Conor Patel of Longwood FL attended his first Youth NABC in Chicago and made such an impression that he was selected by the other players for the Sportsmanship Award.

This family, the Balofs, traveled from Walla Walla WA to Chicago last year for the 2015 Youth NABC. They are Barry Balof and his wife, Claire Valente, with daughter Mary Elizabeth and son Daniel.

Washington welcomes the 9th Youth NABC

Welcome to the Youth NABC! This is our second time in Washington DC, and it's a monumental time to be in the nation's capital. In addition to this wonderful event, you can explore historic places you have only read about.

Bridge is truly a game of all ages, and our Youth NABC is great celebration of that.

We're glad to have you here. Our competition this year is generously sponsored by Bridge Base Online, Masterpoint Press and Baron Barclay.

The first Youth NABC, the brainchild of Patty Tucker, took place in 2008 in Norcross GA (Atlanta area) alongside Atlanta's Uncle Sam SuperSectional. The Youth NABC has been played at the summer NABC every year since.

Players come from all over North America to play with friends they have made through the years, including players from as far away as China. There is a large contingent of Chinese players at this year's tournament.

It is encouraging to note how many school officials and parents have been so supportive of the Youth NABC participants in their pursuit of friendship and fun at this tournament. Some of the players have been to every Youth NABC. In interview after interview, the youngsters talk about reuniting with friends they made playing bridge. The energy in the playing areas is amazing.

It bodes well for the future of our game.

Good luck to all!

North–South are cold for 7♠ but few reached it. Many played in 6♠, and many others in 4♠, while some defended 7♦ doubled for 800, a better score than those who only reached 4♠ for 710.

Among the best scores for East–West was minus 450. How is this possible when North–South are vulnerable?

Jake Olsen of Portland OR opened 3♦ and North passed. JD Kurtzman of Cincinnati OH saw his 6 high-card points and singleton spade as a red flag that the opponents had a big spade fit and and most of the points. He psyched 3♠. That kept South out of the auction, and Olsen bid 3NT. Because running to diamonds was possible, neither opponent doubled.

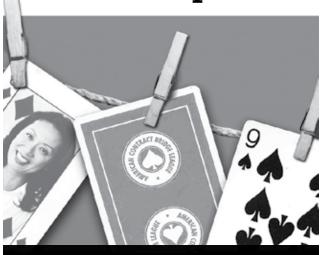

North led the ♣7 to South's ace, and a club was returned to North's king. North cashed his three other winners and led a spade to South's hand, which was good, leaving Olsen with zero tricks. Minus 450 was worth 49 out of 51 matchpoints.

It was the first NABC title for the squad except for Ran, who was a member of the winning squad in the Wagar KO in 2014.

Weingold played with Jan Assini, Shannon Cappelletti, Kathleen Sulgrove, Tatiana Ponomareva and Victoria Gromova.

Weingold led for the first half of the match, outscoring their opponents 59-26 in the first quarter, and 81-52 at halftime. China Yellow came roaring back in the third set to erase Weingold's lead. The score after three quarters was China Yellow 101, Weingold 98. Weingold won the last set 29-27, leaving them 1 IMP short.

Runners-up in the Wagar KO Teams: Victoria Gromova, captain Joanne Weingold, Kathleen Sulgrove, Jan Assini, Tatiana Ponomareva and Shannon Cappelletti.

The Facts: West's explanation of East's 3♣ bid was misinformation. The director was called at the end of the hand, which was the first legal time to do so, as E–W were on defense. South told the director that he would not have bid 4♥ if he had known 3♣ was natural.

Director's Ruling: Seven players with similar masterpoint holdings to South were polled. Five players said they would pass with either set of information; the other two said they would bid 3♥ with either set of information. There was not evidence that South's call would be different without the misinformation; therefore, the score was not adjusted per Laws 21B3.

N–S requested a review of the ruling as they felt the poll results were invalid – South says he is a stronger player than his masterpoints might suggest. He cited results in NABC+ events to make his case.

The Review: The reviewer conducted a new poll of NABC champions. Seven players were polled. Five players said that they would never bid 4♥ or that it could never be right. One suggested that 4♥ might be right, but if it were, he would do it with either set of information. One said he could see choosing from among Pass, 3♥ and 4♥; moreover, he felt he would be inclined to be less aggressive on the information in the correct explanation.

The Decision: The review panel considered the new poll results and how to apply them. They felt that there while there was evidence to support South's argument, it was from a minority of one. The majority not only considered the action chosen at the table to be poor, they felt the misinformation did not affect their own decision. Therefore, the panel felt there was not sufficient reason to change the table result.

Result: 3NT by West, down 3, minus 150. The opening lead was the ♠7.

The Facts: After seven tricks (opening lead won by dummy's ace, losing heart finesse, ◆A and four more spade tricks), South was on lead in the following position:

West claimed stating that "if the hearts break, I have the rest." North noted that hearts are 3–0,

Be Scent-sitive!

Some people have an extreme sensitivity to fragrances (colognes or perfumes). Many ACBL clubs, units and districts have adopted policies that prohibit players from wearing fragrances. The ACBL has not issued an official policy on the matter, preferring instead to appeal to the goodwill of its members to refrain from using fragrances.

Because duplicate bridge requires players to be in close proximity to each other, individuals who suffer from fragrance-related reactions cannot avoid those who are wearing them. Among the commonly reported symptoms are intense headaches (indeed, fragrances can frequently be a trigger for migraine sufferers) or breathing-related problems. For these individuals, the issue is much more serious than simply disliking a particular smell — it's a real health problem.

The ACBL asks everyone to give this issue the consideration it deserves. Please, if you're going to play in a club or a tournament, don't wear cologne, perfume or scented lotions.

accepting West's claim of five tricks. North pointed out that six tricks would always have been available on a squeeze. West called the director.

Director's Ruling: By Law 70D1, the director ruled that he could not accept from West any successful line of play not embraced in the original claim/clarification statement (the squeeze) if there is an alternative normal line of play that would be less successful. West's line of play was deemed to include cashing winning tricks, ending with a losing heart at trick 13. The claim was resolved as five tricks to declarer and one trick to the defense for down three, E–W minus 150.

The Review: E—W requested a review of this ruling. They felt there was no way West would play the hand which would not result in taking all six tricks, as it would be more than careless or inferior to play clubs before playing other suits (breaking up the squeeze).

The Decision: The Reviewer spoke with an expert player to gauge the likelihood that declarer would misplay the remaining position (by playing clubs or not noticing a heart discard by North on the play of diamonds, for instance) was nil. Law 68B1 defines a claim of some tricks as a concession of the remainder. Declarer's statement was a claim of five or six tricks, dependent on the heart distribution. In this case, it was a claim of five and a concession of one. Law 71 says that a concession must stand, except that the director shall cancel a concession if a player has conceded a trick that could not be lost by any normal play of the remaining cards. The panel was convinced that this was the case and canceled the concession of one trick, changing the result to 3NT by West down two, E-W minus 100.

THE 53rd EUROPEAN TEAM CHAMPIONSHIPS

Budapest, Hungary, June 16-25, 2016

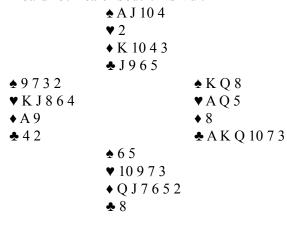

The beautiful and historic city of Budapest hosted this year's European Team Championships. The 37 Open, 23 Women's and 24 Senior teams played a complete round robin of 16-board matches within their own series to determine six places in next year's World Championships in Lyon. As host, France qualifies automatically in all three series.

Mark Horton led an international team of scribes in reporting on and documenting this year's Championships.

Round 9, Serbia vs. England By Mark Horton

Serbia outscored England 39–20, primarily because of two slam swings. The first of them came about as the result of an unfortunate opening lead (and sufficient funds have changed hands for the guilty party's name to be withheld.) The second was a cracker:

North led the ◆4. Declarer won with the ace and took the ♥AQ, revealing the 4-1 break. He cashed the ♣A and then drew trumps. Backing his judgment, he played a club to the 10 and could claim when South discarded. South's overcall had given the game away.

This was excellent bidding by everybody. West wisely didn't reveal his heart holding when he refrained from doubling the transfer and North–South smartly right-sided the slam. Still there was a lot of work to do for Yaniff Zack.

When West led the ♠10, declarer rightly believed that the ♥A was offside. Zack played three top spades from dummy – West pitching a heart and a diamond – followed by a diamond to the king and the ♠10, covered by West and North. Declarer cashed three rounds of clubs and a fourth round of spades. At this point, Jourdain was already feeling the heat: he pitched the ♥J. When North advanced the final spade, West had to give in: he bared his ♥A and Zack pitched a diamond from the dummy. With the ♥K 10 now equals, Zack played a high heart and claimed 12 tricks.

The Bulgarians reached a good contract, making 11 tricks for a score of plus 450. The proceedings in the other room were much more interesting, however:

1. Forcing, asks for further description.

Slam is not particularly good, but as long as the defense does not lead the ulletK, declarer has some chances. Brogeland won the actual trump lead with dummy's ace and immediately led a club to the jack. West won with the king and now, with clubs breaking, he had to attack diamonds to remove the side entry to the clubs.

Brogeland, however, won the diamond switch with the ace, unblocked the A, ruffed a spade in dummy and cashed dummy's Q for a diamond discard. He now could ruff a diamond to hand, ruff his last spade and ruff another diamond to get back to his hand. When the outstanding trumps fell under his king and queen, declarer was left with just the AK. Well played indeed, perfectly exploiting the chances given to him.

At the table, East twice ruffed in when diamonds were led from dummy, but this did not matter, as the cards lie, as you can see.

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. The convention card must include the first and last name of each member of the partnership, and the cards must be identical.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6-board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

Your membership card

now goes where you go

Access your card instantly using your mobile device or print directly through the MyACBL portal at acbl.org

To the Boss Lady (Holly Almasian), my right-hand cohort-in-crime, so to speak, and "warden" during the first half of any year. All "Tax Men" need "wardens," after all!

Tribute to Mothers A/B/C Open and Gold Rush Pairs Sponsored anonymously

$12/team/match

In honor and memory of all Mothers who were the driving force behind their children's interest in bridge. We know we have ours to thank.
