

Las Vegas

Dining Guide

Las Vegas has become one of the culinary capitals of the world with options ranging from casino buffets to five-star dining – and everything in between. It's easy to find food options during your stay at the Summer NABC.

This guide is arranged in two sections. First, dining options in the Las Vegas Hotel are listed. Next, a few restaurants around town are listed with an emphasis on those closest to the LVH.

Remember, if you want to get around town, the Las Vegas Monorail is fast and easy. In fact, there's a stop right in front of the LVH. With frequent service, you're never more than 15 minutes away from the tournament site.

In the Las Vegas Hotel

All restaurants may be contacted through the hotel's main phone line at 702-732-5755.

Benihana

Indulge in a feast for the senses at the world-famous Benihana in Las Vegas, the first name in exhibition-style, Japanese cuisine. Benihana boasts hibachi tables, where a full-range of unique and traditional dishes are prepared to order nightly by masterful chefs. Enjoy appetizers such as fresh sushi, sashimi, and tekka-maki and exceptional entrées such as hibachi chicken, teriyaki steak and filet mignon.

Burger Bistro

Spicing up traditional American fare, Burger Bistro raises the classic burger joint to new heights with an array of meat options, delicious sides and a variety of appetizers.

The menu features six different burger types to choose from including Angus beef, California lamb, yellow tail tuna, turkey breast, lump & black fin crab and kosher vegetarian. Customers can choose from mouth-watering burger toppings ranging from special bistro sauce to foie gras terrine with sweet apples. French fries are made from giant Idaho potatoes, cut fresh and fried to order, served skinny or thick, with the customer's choice of natural, truffle or Parmesan garlic.

The menu also includes tasty salad options, fried sweet hot house pickles, fajita nachos and jalapeno poppers. A fine selection of wines and 30 types of beers are also available.

The Buffet

Our buffet not only incorporates all your favorites into the mix, but we also feature flavors from around the world. From Chinese cuisine to seafood specialties, the LVH Buffet has something for everyone.

Lunch offers a variety of dishes, including carved London broil roast and roasted breast of turkey, steak, chicken, seafood and pasta entrees. Dinner specialties comprise prime rib, carved turkey, steaks, Chinese wok, entrées, complimentary draft beer and California wines nightly and so much more. Experience the best choice among Las Vegas buffets off the Strip.

888 Noodle Bar (in Benihana Village)

888 Noodle Bar features pan-Asian noodles, congee and rice dishes, as well as other Asian specialties prepared by our expert chefs, all before your eyes in an open exhibition kitchen.

Signature dishes are made with roast duck, braised Mandarin beef, curry chicken and fresh sea bass stir-fried to perfection. Authentic Asian noodles are comprised of such popular varieties as Singapore, udon, Szechuan and chow mein.
