Greek player is Online Individual champ

Nikolaos Delimpaltadakis of Athens, Greece, posted the best four-session average in the ACBL Online Individual that ended yesterday. His winning score in the field of more than 2500 players was 67.10%.

In second with 67.06% was Mike Grodsky of St. Simons Island GA, while third place went to Oren Kriegel of Chicago IL with 66.97%.

The best score in the final session was posted by Samuel Jeong of Mountain View CA.

Full results are available at ACBL Live.

Nickell, Fleisher sidelined in Spingold

The No.1 and No. 2 seeds captained, respectively, by Nick Nickell and Marty Fleisher were defeated in yesterday's round of 16 in the Spingold KO Teams.

Nickell was shown the exit by Mittelman npc, 141-131. Mittelman built up a cushy 47-IMP lead at the halfway point of the match, only to see Nickell come roaring back in the third set to go ahead by a single IMP. Mittleman stayed in control in the last quarter, however, to advance to the quarterfinal.

Fleisher stated with a small lead against Stan Tulin (No. 18), but gave up ground in the second quarter to trail by 18 at the half. Tulin was completely in charge in the second half, holding Fleisher to just 6 IMPs in the third set, and the match quickly became lopsided. Tulin won 126-77.

No. 3 Lavazza cruised against Rayner to advance 153-104. Piedra (originally No. 62) grabbed the No. 4 position by handling Phyllis Fireman's team (original No. 36) 146-66.

No. 5 Diamond crushed Barbara Sonsini and company (No. 12) 148-46, but No. 6 Rosenthal eked out a 1-IMP win versus Levine (No. 22), 84-83.

No. 7 Cayne fell to Schwartz (No. 23) 173-110, while No. 9 Gupta had no trouble with No. 8 Pszczola to advance 149-70.

From the editor: Gremlins and grimaces

Yesterday's Daily Bulletin never made it to the printer. Software gremlins destroyed its files, and backup protocols – part of most graphic design software these days – failed spectacularly. Despite many attempts at resuscitating Issue 7, the Daily Bulletin staff was reluctantly forced to abandon any hope of producing the Thursday issue at 5:30 a.m. Thursday morning when we could no longer meet our deadline with the local printer.

The biggest regret of the editors is that we let the members down, so today we hope to make it up to you by presenting this special double issue. It contains the results and stories from the doomed Thursday issue as well as news and results from yesterday.

English foursome takes Mixed BAM crown

Winners of the Freeman Mixed BAM Teams: Alexander Hydes, Sarah Bell, Marusa Basa and Thomas Paske.

The squad captained by Marusa Basa of London posted a tally of 35.19 in the final of the Freeman Mixed Board-a-Match Teams to win the four-session contest by just over half a board. In second with 34.68 was the team led by May Sakr of Bryn Mawr PA.

Basa played with Thomas Paske of Hereford, England, Sara Bell of London, and Alexander Hydes, a Brit who lives in Zagreb, Croatia.

The Basa team scored 16.5 in the first final and 15 in the second. Their carryover was 3.69.

It was the first North American title for the quartet. Paske, Bell and Hydes said they had each previously played for their country "on England's 'B' teams."

Playing for the runners-up on Sakr's team was Ivan Tsonchev and Vladimir Marashev of Bulgaria, Justyna Zmuda of Poland, Rose Meltzer of Chapel Hill NC and Nik Demirev of Arlington Heights IL.

Wooldridge, Hurd win Wernher

Joel Wooldridge and John Hurd won the Wernher Open Pairs on Thursday, finishing 2.74 matchpoints ahead of the leaders after the qualifying sessions, Piotr Nawrocki and Piotr Wiankowski of Poland.

Wooldridge and Hurd were sitting in third place going into Thursday's final after scoring 66.45% and 55.83% on Wednesday. They took the lead in the first final session with a 63.99% and held on through the second final session, scoring 51.67%.

"It was interesting," Wooldridge said.

"We didn't play too good," Hurd interjected.

"We didn't play our best," Wooldridge corrected, "but we hung in there. Even though things didn't go perfectly, we didn't let that faze us and kept our focus on the next problem."

Nawrocki and Wiankowski started Thursday with a big lead after scoring 70.55% and 59.95% in Wednesday's qualifying sessions, giving them a carryover about three and a half boards above

Back in the groove

In the '90s, Frederic Pollack was a star of the Canadian youth program. A Life Master at 16, he became King of Bridge in 1992. He was a member of the Canadian Junior teams that finished fourth in the 1995 and 1997 World Youth Team Championship. Additionally, he was on the winning squads in the 1994 and 1995 Grand National Teams, Flight B. But as graduate school beckoned, Pollack turned his attention to his studies in mathematics and quit serious bridge. Now 42, Pollack has returned to top-level bridge with a vengeance, and his success in the past year makes it clear that his talent for the game has not diminished in the interim.

To be clear, Pollack never actually gave up bridge completely. He played in the occasional club game with students, but his forays into high-level bridge stopped. Two years ago, however, Pollack got the urge to return to the field of battle and began a partnership with expert Kamel Fergani of Montreal. They became regular partners for all NABC events, and the partnership quickly bore fruit as the duo captured first place in the 2016 Wernher Open Pairs at the Summer NABC in Washington DC. The pair also notched a win in the 2016 Canadian National Teams Championship, as well as second-place finishes in the 2015 and 2017 CNTCs. His 2016

Got a hand you just have to share or a nice story? We'd love to see it.

The Daily Bulletin has its own email address: NABCDailyBulletin@acbl.org. You'll also find it on the front page under the "Daily Bulletin" between the date and the editors' names.

This email address won't be checked with any regularity when the NABC is not in session, so please continue to use our office email addresses for non-tournament-related correspondence.

Help speed up the entry line: Pay with CDN currency

Players can help speed up the line for buying entry fees by paying in Canadian currency. Players who present U.S. currency at the selling desk slow down the process by forcing the directors to first exchange currency and then make change.

There are many nearby places where currency may be exchanged. Help make the pre-game experience better by having your entry fees ready in the proper amount and in Canadian currency.

Entries must be purchased by 10 a.m. the day of the event EXCEPT for events that require pre-registration, in which case the ACBL deadline, or the earlier of the two, applies.

A nice feature: You can buy entries in advance and be charged for the total number of sessions played after the event is over.

In the hot seat?

By Barry Rigal

You are on lead as North after West opens 1NT and is raised to 3NT.

♠ Q 10 7 6 4
♥ 7 5 4
♦ 10 8 2

♠ A 9 3 2
♥ 10 9 3
♦ Q J 7
♣ A K 10

You start with the ♠6 – fourth best and apparently also the fourth-best choice because it goes ♠6, 2, 5, jack. Declarer plays a club to the king and plays the ♦Q: king, ace, 2. A club to the 10, a heart to the ace, club to the ace as you pitch a spade (the 7 for deception). Now the ♥10 is covered by the jack and queen, followed by a fourth club. You pitch your heart and partner follows. You now see declarer cash the ♥A. This is the ending:

♦ 10 8

♠ A 9 3
♦ J 7

What do you discard? A spade is giving up. Unguard diamonds and hope partner has the ♦9.

The full deal:

Dlr: South ♠ Q 10 7 6 4
Vul: N-S ♥ 7 5 4
 ♦ 10 8 2

♠ K J 8 ♠ A 9 3 2
♥ A Q 8 ♥ 10 9 3

♣ Q J 5 2 ♣ A K 10

♥ K J 6 2
♦ K 9 6 3
♣ 9 7 4 3

As you can see, declarer played a little joke at trick one by winning the ♠J instead of the 8. It couldn't hurt, could it?

Tips to improve your game – Part 7

By Brent Manley

Compete!

Old-timers occasionally lament that in days past a strong 1NT opener often silenced the opponents for the duration of the auction. Today, not so much.

Even those who are new to duplicate have learned that it pays to get in there and fight. If you sit by while the opponents exchange information unimpeded, they will land in the best spot more often than not. That's not good for you.

Don't be intimidated by the strong 1NT (15–17). If your hand has good shape and good suits, the opponents' high-card points will be neutralized.

If you're wondering what "good shape" means, here's an example:

♠K Q 10 9 6 ♥A 9 8 5 4 ♦5 ♣J 3

This is an excellent hand for entering the auction after a 1NT opener. Both suits have good intermediates (10s and 9s), and if you find a fit with partner, your side could easily make game, doubled in many cases. Further, the play will be easier because you know which opponent has all or nearly all of the outstanding HCP.

How will you know when to enter the auction? I often recommend a formula devised by Mel Colchamiro, an expert player and author. It's called the rule of 8. Here's how it works. If you are considering bidding to show a two-suited hand, you start by counting the number of losers in your hand. Missing aces, kings and queens are defined as losers. Examples: ♥A K J 5 4 = one loser (missing queen), ♠A J 9 8 6 = two losers (missing king and queen). 9 8 = two losers (you can't have more losers than cards). A singleton = one loser. Void = no losers.

OUT OF HAND

By BILL BUTLER

".....and never forget psychology !!.....your opponents will always be at least as nervous of you as you are of them!! "

So add up your losers and subtract that number from the number of cards in your two long suits. If the answer is zero or one, pass. If the number is two or higher, get in there. So why is this called the rule of 8? Because besides using two as the minimum benchmark for bidding, you must also have at least 6 HCP.

With this rule in mind, you must decide on the convention to use when the opponents open 1NT.

Many players like Marty Bergen's DONT (Disturb Opponents' NT) because of its simplicity. Double shows a hand with a suit of at least six cards. A bid of 2♣ shows clubs and another suit (at least 5-4 in the suits); 2♦ shows diamonds and a major; 2♥ shows hearts and spades; 2♠ is natural.

It is not a good idea to show a single-suiter when your long suit has only five cards. If the hand is balanced, you will probably have too many losers. If you have a second suit of four or more cards, you should bid to show a two-suiter. If the strength of your balanced hand tempts you to bid, consider that partner is likely to be broke in such a case and you will have to play every card away from your strength. It is better to pass and hope to beat 1NT.

There are other systems for competing against 1NT openers, but detailed discussion of those is beyond the scope of this article. It is important for you and partner to discuss how to proceed when you bid over 1NT.

You should also discuss whether the system is on if the opening 1NT is in the "weak" category. Decide what makes a 1NT opener weak. As you gain more experience in tournaments, you will encounter opponents playing 10–12 1NTs, 12–14, 13–15, to name three. Decide which you consider weak and adopt a system such as Cappelletti, in which a double of 1NT shows "cards," i.e., 14 or more HCP. In that system, 2♣ shows a one-suiter, 2♦ the majors. A bid of either major shows that suit and a minor. Tomorrow: Competing in other settings.

length. The lead of a high spot card in partner's unsupported suit shows shortness.

Defensive commentary: As East, with ♦A Q J 10 6, normal third-hand play at notrump is the 10 to drive out the king, leaving partner with at least one diamond.

As West, do not cover the ♠Q if it is led. Your length plus the lack of intermediate spot cards dictate playing low.

Play commentary: As South, you have no "time" to drive out the ♥A. The opponents will take four diamonds and a heart. Take the spade finesse instead – and beware: This spade layout is tricky. Start with the 9, playing the 6 from dummy. After the 9 holds, continue with the queen, and finally low to the jack. If you start with the queen and West plays low, you will wind up in dummy the next time you lead the suit with no entry back to your hand to repeat the finesse. Play the same with J-9-x facing A-Q-10-x. Start with the 9, not the jack.

Note that on this deal it does not work to play the ♠Q and, when West plays low, unblock the jack or 10. When you lead the 9 next, West will cover with the king and eventually score the ♠8 or ♠7. You will be limited to three spade tricks and will be down one.

Marley Cedrone, 12, of Boston, played in the 299er game on Wednesday, with Indrami de Silva, from Toronto. Marley is hoping to play in the Youth NABC on Saturday.

It's hard but rewarding work for I/N

Jenny Huntsman and Connie Bartlett

Nearly a decade ago Jenny Huntsman and Connie Bartlett of Moncton NB traveled to Boston to play in the Fall NABC. The two had played social bridge together for 30 years but, says Huntsman, “we realized there was more to the game than we were getting out of it.” When a couple of friends suggested Boston, they made their way to the tournament.

“We had no idea what we were getting into,” says Huntsman, a retired emergency physician. Bartlett is retired from being a pediatric physical therapist.

On arriving in Boston, Huntsman and Bartlett were not prepared for the array of pairs games and they found themselves in the open pairs, for which they were not ready.

“After two days of getting beaten up,” says Huntsman, “we were wandering around and saw the I/N signs.” That was their introduction to Judy Cotterman, who is nearing 20 years, along with Priscilla Smith, in running I/N games at NABCs.

“It was a very pleasant experience – an excellent opportunity learning,” says Bartlett.

Back home in Moncton after playing in the regional in Halifax, the two realized that their part of the world – Atlantic Canada, as they describe it – was lacking in games for newer players.

On a train trip to San Diego, they spent most of their time talking about improving the Moncton Duplicate Bridge Club and the local sectional tournaments. “We needed teaching and more directors and support for new players,” says Huntsman.

TD Judy Cotterman talks to a table of players in the 299er Pairs at the Convention Centre.

On their return to Moncton, the two offered to make all the changes they had discussed on their trip. They moved the club and the sectional to a new location, recruited more directors and started planning a 299er tournament, which debuted in 2014 and is held every April. It's a two-day event with a question-and-answer panel during the scheduled lunch break. This year, they are proud to note, the tournament had 83 tables.

Ironically, Huntsman and Bartlett never got to play in the tournament because they had too many masterpoints by the time the inaugural tournament came around. They are both Bronze Life Masters now.

They note that there is “a lot of teaching in the schools” in Moncton and more at the club, which they say is doing well. The club has four games a week – a handicapped game on Monday afternoon, an open game on Wednesday, supervised play on Thursday and an open game with teaching on Friday. “We have lots of teaching and plenty of directors,” says Huntsman.

They have become friends with star teacher Barbara Seagram, who has conducted two seminars in Moncton. They also credit TD Karl Hicks with providing important support. “He has been so supportive of the 299er concept and Zero Tolerance,” says Huntsman.

Looking back, they identify the turning point in their bridge lives as the discovery of the I/N game in Boston. “If we hadn't found that room, we wouldn't be talking about this today,” says Huntsman says.

Cotterman, who inspired Huntsman and Bartlett to work for new players, is plying her trade, along with Priscilla Smith, at this tournament. The two took different routes to the jobs they now hold, but they have gained the respect and admiration of countless people who have enjoyed playing in their games.

“We are the most thanked directors at this tournament,” Cotterman says. “Our players are always saying, ‘Thanks, we had a good time.’”

Two players from the 299er game run by Cotterman and Smith had nothing but good words for the two. They are wonderful,” said Kathleen Parkins. “Judy is so special. “Parkins’ partner, Theresa Raines, added, “They know everything.”

Cotterman has lived in Kokomo IN all her life and is married to another TD, David, known as the one person at an NABC who can fix anything that breaks. The two have been married for 54 years. Judy learned bridge in high school and was introduced to duplicate on a trip to Florida in the late 1970s. “I played with my mother for five days,” says Cotterman, “and on the fifth day I got one-tenth of a point.”

On returning to Kokomo, Judy and David played in a newcomer game once a week. “David liked working better than playing,” says Judy. David took a course on directing at an NABC in Chicago. When in 1991 he signed up for another TD class at the Fall NABC in Indianapolis, Judy went along with the intention of sitting in the back of the room and

Pollack

CNTC win was a ticket to the world championships in Wroclaw, Poland, where the Canadian team made it to the quarterfinal round, defeating the powerful Italian squad along the way.

Pollack describes Fergani as “a card-playing genius, one of the top technical players in Canada.”

Pollack also began playing with a full-time student, Sandra Gebhardt of The Villages FL. Pollack and Gebhardt have been extremely successful on the regional tournament trail. Indeed, they recently won three consecutive events at the Palmetto Regional. Pollack believes that Gebhardt is so talented that a national win is in her future.

With a full-time partner for top-level events and a full-time student in place, Pollack made a plan for 2017, namely, to win 1500 masterpoints in live play during the year.

As a statistician and instructor at College Ahunistic in his hometown of Montreal for the past seven years, Pollack took a sabbatical leave in January to pursue full-time bridge play. To date, he has amassed more than 1000 masterpoints this year. Much of that has come from frequent visits to clubs in Montreal where he sometimes plays twice per day, but his goal is to win “big” events.

“Once you play at the world level, it's hard to go back to the club and remain interested, but I am! I play with many different partners at clubs in Montreal, even though my top goal is major events,” he said.

In Toronto, he and Fergani were leading the von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs after the semifinal round, but dropped to 41st place after a poor second final session, but he is undeterred by the result.

“That's why I play bridge: to play against the best.”

I/N Recruiters

Priscilla Smith, center, with two players in the 299er Pairs at the Summer NABC.

listening. When she got there, two I/N specialists – TDs Betty Bratcher and Edith McMullin – told her she couldn’t kibitz but “we’ll get you through the course.” Says Judy, “I passed. Don’t ask me how.”

Back home, she started a game at a senior center that she runs to this day.

She started working as a TD for the ACBL in 1994 and became full time four years later. She has been I/N coordinator for close to 20 years.

“I have a good time,” says Cotterman. “I’ve made so many friends. You never know which players you touch. A lot of players stop by to say hi and let you know how they are doing. Some will say something like ‘I met you at a tournament in Wisconsin and you’re the reason I kept playing.’ It’s the people I’ll miss the most when I stop doing this.”

Smith, originally from Michigan, studied science and math at the University of Michigan, taught secondary school for a while then went to work for a company that printed and distributed lottery tickets. Smith moved to Atlanta when the company did. She left the company in 1980 and took up bridge at the urging of a friend, who took her to a bridge club in Atlanta. “We played 24 boards,” says Smith. “My mind was fried, but we were hooked.”

In the fall of 1985, Smith was recruited to run an I/N game and was trained by Bratcher and McMullin. It’s been Smith and Cotterman since 2006, when former I/N coordinator Alice Kinningham retired.

Smith is proud of the fact that she can communicate well with the new players. “When they ask a question, they don’t always use the right works, but we know what they’re asking. It’s a knack. The new players need more tender handling.” Smith enjoys most of her interactions with the newbies. “When you get through with a ruling, they say thank you. That doesn’t happen in the Flight A game.”

Another I/N specialist at this tournament is Flo Belford, Intermediate/Newcomer chair for the NABC. It’s the third time she has undertaken that responsibility at an NABC in Toronto. During the Aileen Osofsky Goodwill Committee meeting, the gathering was treated to a video of one of Belford’s youth tournaments that immediately precede the annual Toronto Regional. Belford was honored at the Goodwill meeting for her work with new players.

Bridge was a natural for Belford, who says she loved games as a child. After marrying in 1968, she took bridge lessons at a community center and played her first duplicate game in 1978.

Belford started the tournament for school children 15 years ago and has had as many as 600 participate. When the students attend the regional, they have their own game. They are bused to the tournament from a variety of cities.

The year she had 600 students playing at the regional, it was a two-day job.

The first time she had a group big enough for their own section at the regional was in 2000. The children filled a 13-table section, playing eight to 10 or 10 to 12 boards depending on their ages. Unit 166 pays for the trophies and helps pay for the buses.

Jane Segal 1931–2017

By Marc Labovitz

It is with great sadness that I report the passing of Jane Segal following a long and difficult illness. Jane’s accomplishments as a bridge player are well documented, but her contributions to our game are immense. Jane was the quintessential ambassador for bridge. She served as unit 141 president, District 4 president, member of the Aileen Osofsky

Goodwill Committee and supervised hospitality for all the sectional and regional tournaments in our area.

I will remember her for the decades of running the largest and strongest club game in the Philadelphia area; for hosting dinner and bridge every Saturday night at her home; for the once-a-month invitational game at her home featuring the area’s finest players; for helping bridge players who were down on their luck.

Perhaps Jane’s greatest contribution was as a teacher. For more than five decades she funneled countless hundreds of new bridge players into club and tournament bridge, a function vital to our very existence. She was the most sought-after and respected teacher in Philadelphia and its suburbs.

Until just a few weeks ago, she could still be seen at our club, still winning games with far less experienced players even though she could no longer use a bidding box or turn the cards. Jane was a generous and wonderful friend who I will miss greatly, as will the entire bridge community.

THE LONGEST DAY
alzheimer's association

THANK YOU, PARTNER!

You raised more than $800,000 for Alzheimer's research and care.

The total is still rising as donations and table fees are counted, but you've already broken the record for the annual amount bridge players have raised for The Longest Day.

Use of the bidding box — Alerts and Announcements

When using bidding boxes, the ACBL requires that players tap the Alert strip and say “Alert” at the same time.

When making an Announcement, use the Announcement word (such as “transfer”) and tap the Alert strip at the same time. A player who Alerts or Announces a bid must make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or Announcement has been made.

Electronic device policy

The electronic device policy at NABCs allows players to bring electronic devices such as cell phones into the playing area provided that such devices are turned off. Further, any such equipment must not be visible during the session.

A violation of the policy will result in an automatic disciplinary penalty of one full board (or 12 IMPs at that form of scoring) for the first offense. A second offense will result in disqualification from the event.

day,” says Belford. “The kids love it and the teachers love it because the kids interact face to face instead of on the computer.”

Belford has been an elementary school teacher, but she taught bridge before anything else.

She started teaching bridge in schools in 1992. She has also taught teachers and students at schools where she has worked – students learned during lunch, teachers after school. Sometimes the lunch-time tournaments continued even when classes resumed.

Belford still does substitute teaching and teaches bridge two days a week. She has inspired one of her 12 grandchildren, a boy, to follow in her footsteps as a bridge teacher.

“I do want to figure a way to get the kids engaged outside of the classroom,” she says. “I have some kids who are really interested and quite good.”

Entry Fees

All entry fees are paid in Canadian dollars.

Players must be ACBL members whose service fees or dues are current in order to compete in any of the following nationally ranked events: Grand National Teams (Championship Flight), von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs, Spingold Knockout Teams, Wagar Women’s Pairs, Truscott/USPC Senior Swiss Teams, Wernher Open Pairs, Freeman Mixed Board-A-Match Teams and the Roth Open Swiss Teams. The entry fees for these contests are $31 per player per session. For team events, this means $124 per team per session for four-person teams, $155 per team per session for five-person teams, and $186 per team per session for six-person teams

Note: Only ACBL members are eligible to play in NABC+ events. $2 per person per session benefits the International Fund.

Players must also be current ACBL members to play in the Grand National Teams (Flights A, B and C), the 0-6000 and 0-2500 Mini-Spingold Knockouts, the 0-10,000 NABC Pairs, the 0-10,000 Mixed Swiss Teams, the Bruce LM-6000 Pairs, the Young 0-2500 Pairs and the Bean Red Ribbon Pairs. The entry fee is $21 per player per session. For the team events, this means $84 per team per session for teams of four, $105 per team per session for teams of five, and $126 per team per session for teams of six. (The GNT Flights A, B and C have no fee the first two days of the contest.)

Regional championships are $20 per player per session for ACBL members, and $25 for non-members. For multi-session team events of three sessions or more, the entry fee is $80, $100 or $120 for teams of four, five or six, respectively. For team events of one or two sessions, the entry fee is $80.

All other events are $18 per player per session for ACBL members, $23 for nonmembers.

Suit matters

By Barry Rigal

I was given the following as a bidding problem. With none vulnerable, you hold:

♠J 8 6 4 ♥A 8 2 ♦K J 10 4 ♣A 4

In fourth seat, you open 1♦ and partner responds 1♥, followed by a pass. Do you bid 1♠ or 1NT? I didn’t feel strongly, but my choice would be 1NT or pass rather than 1♠; horses for courses. You bid 1♠, which is passed around to RHO, who bids 1NT. You pass and partner balances with 2♦. It’s taken a long time to get to the two level:

West	North	East	South
Pass	Pass	Pass	1♦
Pass	1♥	Pass	1♠
Pass	Pass	1NT	Pass
Pass	2♦	Pass	?

You know a lot about partner’s hand. He doesn’t have four spades or four diamonds, and her surely doesn’t have a club stopper. He rates to be 3=5=3=2 or 3=4=3=3, so it is clear to bid 2♥ now. If you plan the 4-3 you will be taking ruffs in the short hand – and hearts scores more than diamonds.

Partner had exactly what you’d expect – a 3=5=3=2 pattern with 7 HCP. 2♥ is cold; 2♦ has no play. The full deal:

Dlr: West ♠ 9 3 2
Vul: None ♥ Q 10 9 7 5
 ♦ A 3 2
 ♣ J 6

♠ K 10 5 ♠ A Q 7
♥ K 6 4 ♥ J 3
♦ 6 5 ♦ Q 9 8 7
♣ K 10 8 7 5 ♣ Q 9 3 2

♠ J 8 6 4
♥ A 8 2
♦ K J 10 4
♣ A 4

Your opponents can make 3♣, but no one bid the suit!

Appealing a ruling

Players in NABC+ events who want to appeal a director’s ruling initiate the process by speaking with the director who delivered the original ruling. The table director will fill out paperwork regarding the appeal, and the appellants will explain what they believe to be wrong with the initial ruling. From there, the case may be handled by a variety of means. When the appeals reviewer receives the case, the circumstances of that particular case will determine whether the case can be resolved by the original staff (in the case of misapplication of Law or regulation, for instance), a panel of directors, or even a committee-type hearing which could include bridge experts.

Monitoring

At this and future North American Championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and available for later inspection and review by officials.

By general monitoring of the session and participants’ behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. Please summon a director if a problem occurs at the table.

This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

In search of the elusive overtrick(s)

By Barry Rigal

Our final round of the second day of the von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs qualifier had a few points of technique.

All Pass

(1) Minor suit and a four-card major.

After a revealing auction, East led the ♣3. Declarer played the ♠A, West following with a discouraging 10. Declarer follows with the ♠9. Clearly if West wins the ♦A to play spades, he holds declarer to 10 tricks. How does he know to do that?

Declarer's decision to win the ♠A almost marks him with the ♣K Q 9. East can help by pitching a club on an early diamond (perhaps a discouraging heart then a club gets the job done).

Note that if declarer wins the ♣Q at trick one, then plays a diamond it is far harder for the defense.

West should duck the first diamond, but how is he to know that partner doesn't have the ♠A, having led from five clubs to the king? In that case, West must return a club, not a spade.

Again, it is up to East to discard helpfully. Suit preference in hearts would do that trick, or perhaps he can let go of a spade after discouraging in hearts.

Koltnow promoted to National TD

Matt Koltnow of Bothell WA has been promoted to the rank of National Tournament Director, making him one of about a dozen active tournament directors who share the top designation.

Koltnow, 44, passed the Club Director test in 1989, and he has been an ACBL tournament director for 16 years.

“My first experience with directing came from my father who ran a small club game. The game was held on a weeknight and began at 8 p.m., so it frequently finished late. My dad didn’t score the game at the club. He just picked up the travelers, took them home, and scored them a few days later. The players found out who won the following week! But I got to watch him matchpoint the game at home. For a kid who was interested in math, it was great.”

Koltnow credits many mentor-directors who helped him learn his craft. “I worked a lot of small, two-TD tournaments with a more experienced director, and this allowed me to get more of their undivided attention as I was learning. I got to learn so many different skills early in my career that it helped me later on. I was lucky to work with Gary Zeiger, Margo Putnam, Roger Putnam, Matt Smith, Paul Cullen, Brian Russell, John Gram and John Ashton.”

Fellow National TD Matt Smith said, “It was obvious from day one that Matt was someone that would be the future of directing, and he has not disappointed. He’s a great talent as a director.”

When asked why he loves directing, Koltnow said, “I love it because what I find interesting and satisfying is to bring organizational loose ends together to make bridge happen. Most people like to play bridge, but not organize it. It’s really enjoyable that what I like to do is what makes what other people like to do possible.”

Judgment at Bridge 2

“I kid you not, each chapter is a jewel...”
-Eddie Kantar

Judgment at Bridge 2 is available at the Baron Barclay Desk.

Winners of the Red Ribbon Pairs in 2016: Jim Orleans and Paul Hattis.

Red Ribbon Pairs begins today

The Red Ribbon Pairs, an ACBL event with national rating open to players with less than 2500 masterpoints, gets underway today. Before 2015, it was on the spring schedule.

Players earn qualification by placing first or second overall in regionally rated events of at least Flight B status. Neither member of a qualifying pair may hold more than 2500 masterpoints at the time of qualification.

The four-session event began in 1986 and winners are honored by the Percy X. Bean Trophy. The trophy was designated by the ACBL Board of Directors in 1996 to honor Bean, ACBL president in 1972 and chairman of the Board in 1973.

Bean (1916–1992) represented District 19 on the Board from 1964 until 1988 and served as president of the ACBL Charity Foundation from 1974 until 1981. He was a member of the National Goodwill Committee and the National Board of Governors and general chairman of arrangements for the World Team Olympiad in Seattle in 1984.

Bean and his wife, Anne, were named ACBL Honorary Members for 1992, the first time that honor was bestowed on a husband-wife combination.

Bean was the editor of Mad, Mad World of Bridge, a publication that strongly championed players of less than expert class.

Canada's 52 All-time Greatest Bridge Players: Part 4

By Andy Stark

We continue our countdown of the Top 52 All-time Greatest Canadian Bridge Player with Nos. 11-20.

20. Sam Gold

Sam Gold, aka Mr. Bridge of Canada, died in 1982, but was mentor to all of the Montreal greats such as Kokish, Mittelman, Silver, et al. By extension, he had an influence on L'Ecuyer and Demuy without those two ever having met Mr. Bridge. Sam was an excellent player, an innovative tournament director (inventing many new duplicate movements), and a bridge administrator as he built up the Montreal Bridge League. Sam represented Canada in the 1964 World Team Olympiad where he played with Ralph Cohen and teamed with Murray–Kehela. The team eventually lost in the semifinals. In 1948, Sam achieved Life Master status, only the second Canadian to do so, thus becoming ACBL Life Master No. 132. Sam is one of the few people on this list who has a trophy named after him: the Sam Gold Canadian Senior Team Championship Trophy. To this day, players speak reverently about Sam Gold.

19. Robert Lebi

Robert is like vintage wine in that he gets better with age. He has won three Canadian National Team Championships (CNTCs), two Canadian Senior Team Championships (CSTCs) and four NABCs, including the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs with Mark Molson in 1989. In addition, Robert has two NABC seconds, including the Reisinger with a team that was five-sixths Canadian. 2006 and 2008 were especially good years as Robert won a CNTC and an NABC in each of those years. Fun fact: Robert cannot play cards without chewing gum. Well, he can, but not as well. Spinach is to Popeye as aspartame is to Robert.

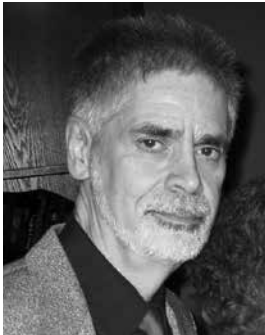

18. Neil Chambers

Neil is originally from Vancouver BC, but he now lives in the USA. Before leaving Canada, Neil had some early success playing with Allan Graves as they reached the semifinals of the 1975 Olympiad Trials. Neil has won six NABCs including the Vanderbilt in 1992. He also has three NABC second-place finishes including the Spingold in 1986. At the world level, Neil has three gold medals and three silvers. His big win came in Istanbul in 2004 in the Senior Teams while playing with regular partner John Schermer.

17. Nick Gartaganis

If you happen to be walking around the Metro Convention Centre and you see a man wearing a cute red backpack with a Canadian flag, no, it's not some lost Euro-bound student in the middle of his gap year, it's Nick! Formerly of Montreal, now living in Calgary, Nick won his first CNTC in 1982 and his most recent CNTC in 2016, and in between, he won three others. Nick is always a threat. Always. Possibly the most underrated achievement in the history of Canadian bridge was Team Canada winning the 2002 IOC in Salt Lake City. Nick was part of the Cinderella dragon-slaying squad that defeated Italy in the semis and Poland in the finals. If that event had been a Bermuda Bowl, the six players on the team, (Silver–Gitelman, Balcombe–Campbell, and Jones–Gartaganis), would have streets named after them from Richmond to Rimouski. In other WBF events, Nick has two fifth-place finishes – the 2013 Bermuda Bowl in Bali and the 2016 World Bridge Games in Poland. Nick won a gold medal at the 2002 Commonwealth Nations Bridge Championships and a silver medal at the 2012 World Transnational Mixed Swiss Teams. This year, Nick and his wife Judy were inducted into the CBF Hall of Fame.

16. Boris Baran

Boris Baran, aka “Bo,” aka “BoBo,” aka “The Only Man in the History of the CNTCs Who Showed Up to Play Bridge Wearing a Speedo.” OK, maybe he only did that once. Not sure if it counts as intimidation tactics because, fortunately, screens were in use. Boris has won seven CNTCs, five NABCs, four of which were the Keohane North American Swiss Teams, and two NABC seconds. On the international scene, Boris won a silver medal as part of the great Canadian run in the 1995 Bermuda Bowl when Canada made it to the final but lost to Team Nickell. But Boris did go on to win WBF gold in the Senior Swiss Teams in his hometown of Montreal in 2002. He also has a bronze for coming in third at the 1990 Rosenblum in Geneva. In 2012, Boris was inducted into the CBF Hall of Fame along with long-time partner Mark Molson. Bo knows bridge.

15. John Carruthers

Here's an overheard conversation between Sami Kehela and Bob Hamman at a previous NABC in Toronto: Hamman: “Long time no see! How are you?” Kehela: “I’m doing well, but I’m not playing all that much.” Hamman: “So who’s the best Canadian team nowadays?” Kehela: “Oh ... John Carruthers and some other guys.” John, aka JC, is frequently in the winner’s circle. He has four CNTC victories, three NABCs, plus a second place finish in the 1988 von Zedwitz LM Pairs, five CSTCs, with two seconds, one COPC (1990) and a WBF silver medal for finishing second in last year’s World Senior Pairs with partner Joey Silver. JC has won two prestigious international events, both held in Netherlands: the Forbo Teams in 2000 and the International Invitational in 2001. Another feather in his cap was when he won the first Richmond Trophy race for most masterpoints in 1974 – with a whopping 524. (These days, for Shan Huang, that’s two regionals and a sectional.) JC is a CBF Hall of Famer, editor, coach, non-playing captain, mentor ... he does it all, and he does it well.

14. Joey Silver

It's only fitting that Joey and JC, “Men with Hats,” are next to each other on this list. They have now played as partners for almost 20 years. A CBF Hall of Famer, Joey will tell you what he thinks is their biggest highlight, but it might be winning a silver medal in the 2016 Senior Pairs. Joey has a superb record dating back to the '70s. One of Sam Gold's protégés, Joey burst on the scene in 1974 by winning the Vanderbilt with Eric Kokish and the Crossley brothers, David and Bob. Continuing the run in '74, Joey had two NABC seconds that year: in the Reisinger and the Mixed Board-a-Match. Joey has won five CNTCs, five CSTCs, four NABCs, two NABC seconds, two WBF silver medals, the aforementioned Senior Pairs and the 1995 Bermuda Bowl. In addition, he is the 1985 Cavendish Invitational Pairs champ and the winner of the 2002 IOC Grand Prix. Although bridge did not become an Olympic sport, for all intents and purposes, Joey can say he has an Olympic gold medal.

13. Bruce Elliott

From the CBF website's Hall of Fame section: “Bruce Elliott was born in 1922 ... Bruce won the Chicago Trophy (now the Reisinger) in 1948 playing with Agnes Gordon, the first of his four major North American titles. He won the Chicago Trophy again in 1951 playing with Percy Sheardown. With Sheardown, Kehela and Murray, Elliot won the 1964 Spingold Master Knockout teams and the foursome successfully defended the title in 1965, becoming the only foursome to date to achieve such a feat. Elliott represented Canada twice in the World Team Olympiad, winning a bronze medal in Deauville, France in 1968.” Last year, as editor of the Kibitzer magazine, I received a letter from a man who expressed his gratitude to Bruce for playing with him up in Muskoka. Bruce was not only still playing, but still winning.

12. Peter Nagy

Peter won not one but two WBF silver medals in the Open Pairs! He first won in 1978 in New Orleans with Eric Kokish, then again in 1990 in Geneva with Ralph Katz. Peter was part of one of the greatest Canadian teams ever assembled: Nagy–Kokish, Mittelman–Graves and Murray–Kehela; they won the bronze medal in the 1982 Biarritz Rosenblum. Before moving to the USA (to be with the love of his life Donna Hay), Peter won two CNTCs. He also won four NABCs, including the 1993 Vanderbilt, and he came second eight times. Peter is in the CBF Hall of Fame and just last week was inducted into the ACBL Hall of Fame as the latest recipient of the von Zedwitz Award. Peter died too young, just 60 years of age in 2003; otherwise he would surely have added to his major victories.

11. Agnes Gordon

Winner of the 2009 von Zedwitz Trophy, Agnes won 10 NABCs including the Wagar KO Teams in 1967, the year that she died. She won the Reisinger in 1948. Let that sink in. Perhaps most famously, she won the Mixed Pairs in 1963 with Eric Murray, posting a 78% game in the final session. Murray, a frequent partner, once wrote, “Agnes never came close to touching a wrong card or making a questionable bid. Everyone who played with Agnes marveled at her perfection. There was no better female bridge player in North America (including Helen Sobel) and very few male players her equal.” Agnes also has eight second-place finishes at NABCs.

2017 Youth NABC

Editor: Brent Manley

Record attendance expected for 10th Youth NABC

For the second time, Toronto is hosting the tournament that has become Mecca for bridge players 19 and younger. It's 10th Youth NABC, and it's just about certain to have record attendance.

Last summer in Washington DC, the number of young players jumped from 199 pre-registered to 233 total, a record.

Stephanie Threlkeld, ACBL's education and communications manager, said pre-registration for the Toronto tournament was at 235 earlier this week and that there were several walk-ins for the opening day on Thursday.

"I'm really excited," said Threlkeld, who is working with Shaneka Cunningham, ACBL's education program coordinator, to manage the tournament with the help of a legion of volunteers.

The two have support from Toronto players Michael Yang and Carol Bongard, who serve as Youth NABC volunteer coordinators.

The two work together on the Unit 166 board of directors, Bongard as president. She says she likes working with youth programs so much because of her "grandma instinct." She adds, "I love the kids."

Michael Yang

Carol Bongard

Bongard also credits Flo Belford for helping build youth participation in bridge. Belford organizes an annual youth section at the Toronto Regional. In the 15 years she has been doing it, she has had as many as 600 school children participate over two days at the regional.

Yang is another dynamo when it comes to promoting youth bridge. He started a youth bridge club in 2012 with players as young as 6 and up to 9. He took a group of them to the 2012 Youth NABC in Chicago and has attended every Youth NABC since then.

Yang's philosophy is that "the younger they start, the more attractive bridge is to them." He says that as his youth bridge club has grown he has received more and more requests from parents for bridge classes for their children. He has helped set up youth bridge clubs in Waterloo, about 70 miles east of Toronto, and in Ottawa. He's working on figuring out how to help a group in Vancouver BC establish their own youth bridge club.

He believes that teaching bridge to young people has helped his game, too, and there's evidence that it has. Yang was on the team that finished second in the Grand National Teams Flight C this week representing District 2.

The tournament is fortunate to have three major sponsors: Baron Barclay Bridge Supply, which offers a $2000 scholarship to the winners of the Youth Open Pairs (each player receives $1000). Baron Barclay has also donated convention card holders and playing cards. John McAllister, the brains behind the documentary film "Double Dummy," is sponsoring the National Youth Swiss Teams. Each of the four members of the winning team receive $1000 scholarships.

Magician to entertain at Youth NABC

Norman Beck, a bridge player who specializes in sleight of hand and other illusions – including one dynamite card trick – will perform for the participants in the 10th Youth NABC during the lunch break today at the Convention Center.

Beck’s business card also notes that he is a raconteur and writer. Beck learned magic while in the Cub Scouts in Tulsa OK and has worked as a magician for more than a decade. His favorite trick is memorizing all 52 cards in a deck in less than a minute and then naming them as they lie face down in four piles.

Beck has also worked as a consultant to the ACBL in investigations of cheating at cards.

Roth Open Swiss starts today

The six-session Open Swiss Teams, named in honor of ACBL Hall of Famer Al Roth, begins with today’s two-session qualifier. The nationally rated event was first held in 2005.

Al Roth (1914–2007) is generally considered the premier bidding theorist of his bridge generation, perhaps of all time. He and longtime partner Tobias Stone are credited with developing the negative double, the unusual notrump, 1NT forcing and weak two-bid.

An ACBL Grand Life Master with more than 12,000 masterpoints, Roth won 26 national titles, including the Spingold five times, the Vanderbilt three times and the Reisinger twice.

He represented North America in the Bermuda Bowl in 1955, 1958 and 1967. A WBF Life Master, he placed second in the World Team Olympiad in 1968.

During his first world championship appearance, Roth was declaring a 2♣ contract and felt he played the hand before – but as a defender. The director, Al Sobel, did not believe him because the hands had been dealt at the table. Sobel made Roth call out all the cards in each hand – including the spots – before he threw out the board. No one ever discovered how this happened.

Roth retired from active bridge competition in the Seventies but remained active as a staff member of Bridge Today and on panels of The Bridge World, Bridge Today and Australian Bridge.

He was the author of “The Roth-Stone System,” “Al Roth on Bridge” and “Picture Bidding” and co-author of “Bridge Is a Partnership Game,” “Modern Bridge Complete” and “Bridge for Beginners.”

A longtime resident of New York, where he owned and managed the Mayfair Club, Roth retired to Boca Raton FL.

The Past Comes Alive

Dutch players Frank van Wezel and Hans van de Konijnenberg collect books, magazines and Daily Bulletins about bridge. They especially enjoy reading Daily Bulletins from the pre-Internet era: these periodicals are a treasure trove of wonderful photographs, marvelous sketches, splendid deals and tremendous stories and anecdotes.

Van Wezel and van de Konijnenberg decided that this material should be at the disposal of all bridge players. At the same time, they want to save the history of bridge from oblivion. Therefore they launched a free website: www.bridgedailybulletins.nl

On this site you may find thousands of bulletins, both from the digital era and before. WBF, EBL and ACBL championship bulletins are posted, as well as many from miscellaneous tournaments around the world.

If you have bulletins that they are missing, please contact them. Contact details can be found on the website.

Be scent-sitive!

Some people have an extreme sensitivity to fragrances (colognes or perfumes). Many ACBL clubs, units and districts have adopted policies that prohibit players from wearing fragrances. The ACBL has not issued an official policy on the matter, preferring instead to appeal to the goodwill of its members to refrain from using fragrances.

Because duplicate bridge requires players to be in close proximity to each other, individuals who suffer from fragrance-related reactions cannot avoid those who are wearing them. Among the commonly reported symptoms are intense headaches (indeed, fragrances can frequently be a trigger for migraine sufferers) or breathing-related problems. For these individuals, the issue is much more serious than simply disliking a particular smell — it’s a real health problem.

Please, if you’re going to play in a club or a tournament, don’t wear cologne, perfume or scented lotions.

NABC Results by Email/Text

Want to be notified when results and the Daily Bulletins from the NABC are posted online? Want to see your results in the events you played in? ACBL Live does just that.

With the ACBL Live notification system, you will receive emails and/or text messages after each session with links that go directly to the information you're looking for. The email/text message will contain your score for the session and a link to your results. (These results will also be available on your MyResults page at MyACBL.) Players will also receive a notification to indicate when the Daily Bulletin for that day is available.

This service is automatic for members unless they have specifically opted out. To receive text messages, go to MyACBL at acbl.org and select Update My Information to enter your email address and/or cell phone number.

Also at MyACBL, visit the Privacy Settings tab to make sure you've selected the Subscribe setting for General Email Communication and Cell Phone Text Communication to receive these notifications.

ACBL revises disciplinary regs

The ACBL’s revised Code of Disciplinary Regulations (CDR), the disciplinary process affecting anyone participating in ACBL-sanctioned events charged with conduct or ethical violations, was approved at this tournament by the ACBL Board of Directors. The document has been simplified and significantly revised to streamline the disciplinary process at the unit, district and national level. Highlights of the revised guidelines include:

- The CDR is the definitive document regarding disciplinary matters and, if there is a conflict between the CDR and the Codification, the CDR takes precedence. Apply the CDR in effect at the time of the alleged incident regarding the violation charged and the appropriate discipline to be imposed; for procedural issues, apply the CDR in effect at the time of the hearing.
- There is no motion practice except in very limited circumstances, merely a pre-hearing conference with the parties, if necessary, and a hearing.
- Discovery is limited to reports and statements received or prepared for the investigation of the charges or referred to in the charges.
- Appeals require a factual basis and are limited to the issues raised in the notice of appeal.
- Charges are brought by a charging party after review of the complaint. Complainants and hearing committees are no longer parties to any appeal.
- Negotiated resolution of charges prior to the hearing are permitted.
- All disciplines imposed are a matter of public record published on the ACBL website except for reprimands and expungements.

The time to bring forward complaints to a charging party, involving a single incident, has been lengthened from 30 days to 180 days following an incident. A recorder has 60 days to file a recorder complaint following receipt of a player memo but that player memo must be submitted to the recorder within 120 days of the incident.
- The procedures for reporting and pursuing incidents of sexual harassment of ACBL, unit or district tournament employees have been clarified.
- The advisor, if any, to the Ethical Oversight Committee and the ACBL Disciplinary Committee will be chosen jointly by the respective committee and the ACBL management and that advisor will not be a current or former ACBL employee.

The changes are effective Aug. 1, 2017. The updated CDR may be found on the ACBL website after that date. Flow charts and sample forms and templates are being prepared and will be available for use by disciplinary committees shortly. In the meantime, committees should feel free to email Sabrina Goley at sabrina.goley@acbl.org for guidance.

The CDR revision was a six-month project undertaken by a working group comprising District 8 Director Georgia Heth, In-House Counsel Linda Dunn, and Compliance Coordinator Sabrina Goley. The working group solicited comments from every district and unit disciplinary chairperson and recorder, the national disciplinary committees, as well as select members of the ACBL and considered every comment submitted.

Second in the Freeman Mixed BAM: Ivan Tsonchev, May Sakr, Nik Demirev, Rose Meltzer, Justyna Zmuda and Vladimir Marashev.

Sunny San Diego plays host to the 2017 Fall North American Bridge Championships, and, as venues go, this one is hard to beat.

First, the stunning Manchester Grand Hyatt San Diego is the site of the tournament, and rooms are available at the bargain rate of $149 plus tax.

Next, there are a plethora of outstanding eateries nearby. Some are just steps from the hotel on the San Diego Bay, while others may be found in the Gaslamp Quarter, which is a half mile away and is loaded with all varieties of ethnic food.

The weather in San Diego in November is typically beautiful, with perfect temperatures and Mediterranean-type breezes off the bay. The scenic beauty of the spot is unparalleled.

Want convenience? San Diego International Airport is 10 minutes from the Hyatt.

With games available for all levels of players you don't want to miss the San Diego NABC, Nov. 23-Dec. 3.

All events will be played at the Manchester Grand Hyatt San Diego at 1 Market Place.

Reservations for the San Diego NABC are now open!

You may book online at acbl.org or call ONPEAK 855-992-3353 or email acbl@onpeak.com to reserve a room.

Arranged by Larry Cohen and Alice Travel

LARRY COHEN is ranked one of the Top 10 Living Most Influential Bridge Personalities and, in 2011, he was named ACBL Honorary Member of the Year. He has been dedicated to the game since earning his Life Master rating at 17. Larry finds teaching and writing just as important as competing: he is author of numerous articles, best-selling bridge books and CDs (To Bid or Not to Bid, Following the LAW, and more) and lectures worldwide.

GET ONBOARD FOR THE MAIDEN VOYAGE of the “new” Crystal Serenity...returning from her longest-ever makeover. She will feature more innovative dining options with expanded specialty venues, spacious new suites and penthouses, and more state-of-the-art technologies including free unlimited Wi-Fi and rooms equipped with ultra-thin 42”interactive TVs. Guest capacity will drop from 1070 to 980, increasing the ships’ already generous service and space ratios to be among the loftiest in luxury travel. Culinary inspiration comes in the form of the Waterside (open seating), Churrascaria (an open seating Brazilian steakhouse), Chinese-inspired al fresco dining at Silk, and the fresh and friendly new Marketplace. Still onboard: Umi Uma (the new name of Chef Nobu’s Japanese-Peruvian venue), and the well-loved Italian specialty restaurant Prego.

Slow Play

Slow play, especially habitual slow play, is a violation of law and subject to penalty. When a pair has fallen behind, it is incumbent on them to make up the time lost as quickly as possible whether at fault or not. All players are expected to make a concerted effort to catch up when they have fallen behind, regardless of the reason for their lateness.

In the absence of compelling evidence to the contrary, the director should presume that a pair finishing a round late by more than two or three minutes on more than one occasion during a session is responsible for the lateness. There is a strong expectation that the director will penalize such a pair. The size of a penalty will tend to increase for subsequent instances of slow play and for chronic or egregious slow play.

While warnings typically will be given before a penalty is assessed, failure to do so in no way limits the director’s authority to issue a penalty.

Players are expected to be aware, in a general sense, of time used and remaining in a segment in which they are playing regardless of whether a clock is in use or a time announcement has been made. An excuse of “no announcement” or “no clock immediately visible” will not be considered persuasive.

In consultation with the DIC of the tournament, the TD may require that a particular pair not play in a specified segment, not play against a specified pair or not play together as a pair. The foregoing is expected to be applied only due to egregious circumstances or to unduly repetitious offenders.

An appeal of an action taken by a TD with regard to time may be taken to the Director in Charge of the tournament, and no further. For NABC+ KO events, the TD is charged with the responsibility to ensure that each KO match segment finishes within the allotted time. While a time monitor may be employed, the lack of a monitor in no way limits the TD’s authority to apply one or more of the remedies listed below.

The TD may choose to ignore an occasional minor late finish. The TD may remove one or more boards from a segment. The TD may award no score (when neither team is more at fault), an assigned score (when a result already exists at one table which the TD wishes to preserve) or an artificial score in IMPs. Every effort should be made to remove boards before they can be played at either table, but not having done so does not preclude removing one or more later.

Unless otherwise noted: Three-flight open events are stratified as A/X (5000+/0–5000), B/C (1500–3000/0–1500) and Gold Rush (300–750/0–300). Two-flight open events are stratified as A/B/C (3000+/1500–3000/0–1500) and Gold Rush (500–750/200–500/0–200) or as A/X/Y (5000+/4000–5000/0–4000) and B/C/D (1500–3000/750–1500/0–750) if there is no Gold Rush. One-flight open events are stratified as A (3000+), B (750–3000) and C (0–750). Stratification is based on averaging the masterpoints of a pair or team. Eligibility for limited events will be based on the point holding of the highest player, so no player with more than 3000 may play in B/C events nor the Bracketed B Teams, no player with more than 750 may play in Gold Rush events, and no player with more than 300 may play in 299er events. BOLD, UPPER CASE = NABC+ events. UPPER CASE = NABC events. *Members whose dues payment is current and Life Masters whose service fee payment is current.

International Fund

In NABC+ events, $2 CDN (per person, per session) of each entry fee will be allocated to the ACBL International Fund. These funds are used to underwrite part of the expenses of ACBL players who participate in international competition.

Danny Schamehorn

Danny Schamehorn is a Platinum Life Master from Orillia ON and a past president of Unit 246. He is widely acknowledged as one of Ontario’s best bridge players. Danny is grateful for all the encouragement and support he has received and would like to thank the Orillia, Barrie, Midland and Bracebridge Bridge clubs who are honoring him today.

After a freak accident in September 2015 resulting in severe neurological damage, Danny spent three months recuperating in ICU and six months in rehabilitation. With great courage, perseverance and strength of character, Danny has patiently worked through his extensive therapy with the caring support of his devoted wife, Liz, and a wide circle of family and friends. Not unexpectedly, getting back to bridge was a top priority for him, and he has met that goal triumphantly. He now plays twice a week without fail and wins or places in virtually every game!

Danny returned to the Orillia DBC a little over a year ago, and today marks his first tournament since his accident. Welcome back, Danny!

Brian Johnston 1944–2017

By Allan Smith

The Toronto bridge community has lost one of its true characters, and I have lost one of my best friends. Cancer claimed Brian Johnston less than two months after his diagnosis. He will be missed in the lives of the people who knew him, but Brian could not be missed at the bridge table or in any crowd! As unique as many bridge players are, Brian was exceptional and in a class of his own. One never forgot playing against the gruff guy in a Hawaiian shirt with all the hair!

I had the pleasure of travelling to many bridge tournaments in the company of Brian. We enjoyed our bridge games but they never got in the way of our attending a sporting event, a pub (or several), enjoying fine food and wine, a game of golf and exceptional conversation. My last bridge game with Brian was at the Midland Sectional in September 2016. We were well ahead of the field in the two-session event, but opted to withdraw following the first session and enjoy a wonderful meal with wine, family and friends on the shore of Georgian Bay.

Brian is survived by his wife, Araminta Wordsworth, and their children, Robin and Caitlin; his first wife, Stephanie Burke and their children, Devan and Derek Johnston. His wife summed Brian up nicely, describing him with the following passage in his obituary. “Indomitable spirit, consummate bridge player, wine lover, American muscle car nut and crock collector; he was also a lawyer who battled to reverse the fee-obsessed stereotype of his profession.”

Today, I will have many thoughts of Brian playing in the game named in his memory with Tournament Chair Ina Demme. I will be the guy in the Hawaiian shirt heading out for a wonderful meal and good bottle of wine after the game. Miss you, Brian, wish we could have one more conversation.
