of 40. Two strong final sessions – 61.74% and 59.94% – brought their score up to 604, almost six matchpoints ahead of second place finishers, District 22’s Marc Franklin of Newport Beach CA and Harvey Jaffe of Huntington Beach CA. Franklin and Jaffe led the event most of the way but had an under-average second final session.
Connors and Bingham are no strangers to North American Events: Connors won NAP Flight C in 2004 and Connors and Bingham have been third and fourth in B. Their team also won the online version of last summer’s Grand National Teams in Flight B.
In third place were District 19’s father-son duo Gianni Hsieh and Frank Hsieh of Sammamish WA.

qualified in second place on scores of 57.69% and 65.85% and then took the lead in the first final session with a 65.98%, finishing up with 56.23%. They previously won the Collegiate Championship for UC Santa Barbara in 2020 when it was student-organized and held online. Rowberg was barely under the eligibility limit for Flight C this year. “We knew we could win it,” he said.
