Youth poll

What do your friends think about the fact that you play bridge?

"Some of them really appreciate it and think it's cool. There's a couple of jokes about it now and then but they still care. Some are interested in playing. I'm thinking about starting a club at my school next year."

Leo Susser, 16

San Francisco CA

Using their carryover of 308 matchpoints, Gerli and Fruscoloni stayed in control throughout the final with a 61.06% performance in the first session and a 54.75% score in the second.

This is the first North American title for the winners, although Gerli won the Spring 2021 North American Online Bridge Championship Premier Pairs. Fruscoloni won a silver medal in the 2019 Transnational Open Pairs.

Today's Sponsors

Sam Amer

Sam Amer passed away at the beginning of April. He is survived by his parents, Paul and Jill, and his two sisters, Libby and Sarah.

Sam grew up in Delaware and started playing bridge as a teenager. After graduating from the University of Delaware, he moved to the New York City area where he was a pro player for the last few years.

Everyone at the Honors Bridge Club has wonderful remembrances about Sam – which is exactly what you would expect if you knew him.

Sam was a former member of the USBF Junior program and represented the U.S. in the 2018 World Youth Championships where an amazing match in the USA2 finals famously came down to the last board.

Sam had numerous high finishes in NABC pair events in recent years, all without having a truly established partnership with anyone.

Said his close friend, Matthew Weingarten, "Sam, we love you. We will never forget you."

Sam will forever be an inspiration to Junior players in the United States Bridge Federation, American Contract Bridge League, collegiate games, and the World Bridge Federation.

Chester Johnson

Chester Johnson was the top player in the American Bridge Association at the time of his death in 2017 at age 76. A many-time ABA champion, he was also active in the ACBL's Chicago Unit 123.

Johnson was an ABA Grand Life Master with almost 55,000 masterpoints, as well as an ACBL Gold Life Master. He had the most masterpoints of anyone in the ABA since January 2007 and was a four-time winner of the William Friend race for winning the most ABA masterpoints in a calendar year.

2006 ACBL President Harriette Buckman, who knew Johnson for 50 years, won many mixed pairs events with him. "No bridge player ever played with a greater love for the game or sheer joy in all that it had to offer," Buckman said.

Thanks, District 13!

NABC Tournament Chair Suzi Subeck extends a special thanks to District 13 (the local district) for sponsoring the Saturday "chits" and the afternoon hospitality Monday through Thursday.

"I would like the district to know the funds we worked so hard to raise are going to good use and the attendees appreciate it!"

ACBL's Montie Hamblen adds, "These volunteers have gone above and beyond in every way possible. We truly appreciate all their efforts."

New Ruby Life Master

Becky Kelley of Atlanta GA became a Ruby Life Master on Monday in the George Jacobs Bracketed Round Robin Teams (bracket 7). Her team, partner Terri Coil of Salem SC, Carol Duffy of Chicago IL and Elizabeth Ambler of Atlanta GA tied for first place and won 10.84 points. She only needed 10.75.

New Diamond LM

Yiji Brennan of the Boston area crossed the 5000-masterpoint milestone to become a Diamond Life Master. Brennan's squad finished 13th in the Freeman Mixed BAM Teams.

Chart change

The Basic Plus convention chart is now in effect in Gold Rush events and brackets over 300 masterpoints.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Lee Blocher of Champaign IL and Zinnia Meyer of Chicago IL are attending their first NABC. They played together in the Wednesday Lawson Studio Gold Rush Pairs. The day before, Zinnia won the Zeke Jabbour Bracketed Round Robin Teams (bracket 13) with teammates Jake Williams of Chicago IL, Luke Williams of Issaquah WA and Olivia Schireson of Stanford CA.

Lee played in the Sheinwold Grand National Teams, Flight B with teammates Peter Ashbrook of Urbana IL, Lisa Bievenue of Savoy IL, Anthony Curtis of Champaign IL, and his dad, Kyle Blocher.

They made it to the semifinal. Lee's dad taught him to play about three years ago. "I love playing cards," said Lee. "I don't know why, I just do." Lee partners with his dad and Lisa, who said the two most popular questions people ask Lee are, "How old are you?" (12) and, "Are you two related?" (no). Lisa noticed that Lee starts to fade after about 18 boards and because Kyle doesn't want him to eat too much candy, she gives him blueberries to keep him going.

Both Zinnia and Lee will be playing in the Youth NABC this weekend.

Tips for New Players

By Frank Stewart

Which hand is better?

Hand evaluation is the process of estimating how many tricks your partnership can win. Counting high-card points may work well enough with a pair of balanced hands, but even that simple method may require judgment.

Take this quiz: "Which hand is better?" There are only two choices per question, so you have a 50–50 chance of being right.

1. As dealer, which hand do you prefer?

- (a) ♠A 7 4 3 ♥Q 6 ♦A 7 4 2 ♣K 5 2
(b) ♠A K 5 4 ♥7 6 ♦A Q 5 4 ♣8 5 2

2. You are the dealer:

- (a) ♠A K 10 9 4 ♥A J 10 9 5 ♦6 5 ♣5
(b) ♠A ♥A K ♦8 6 5 4 2 ♣J 7 6 4 2

3. Your partner opens 1♠:

- (a) ♠A 7 4 3 ♥A Q 6 ♦6 5 4 2 ♣4 3
(b) ♠A Q 5 4 ♥A 7 6 ♦6 5 4 2 ♣4 3

4. Partner You
1♦ 1♥
1♠ 1NT
2♣

- (a) ♠K 4 ♥10 5 4 2 ♦A 4 ♣Q 10 5 4 2
(b) ♠7 4 ♥K Q 5 2 ♦J 4 ♣K 7 5 4 2

5. Both sides vulnerable. Your partner opens 1♠, and RHO overcalls 2♥:

- (a) ♠7 5 ♥A 7 5 ♦Q 7 5 3 ♣A J 6 4
(b) ♠Q 4 ♥K J 5 ♦J 9 6 4 ♣A 10 5 4

6. RHO opens 1♠, you overcall 1NT and your partner raises to 2NT:

- (a) ♠Q 10 8 5 ♥A 9 3 ♦K 6 2 ♣A K 7
(b) ♠A K 2 ♥A 9 3 ♦K 6 3 ♣Q 10 8 5

7. You open 1♦, and your partner responds 1NT:

- (a) ♠A 4 3 ♥A Q 6 ♦A 9 7 4 2 ♣A 2
(b) ♠A 4 ♥A J 6 ♦A 9 7 4 2 ♣K Q 2

Answers

1. Hand (b) is better. Secondary honors are worth more when higher honors support them. The ♠K and ♦Q in (b) are more likely to win tricks.

2. Hand (a) offers better prospects. You prefer your high cards to reside in your long suits so that establishing the long cards will be easier. The 10s and 9s add "body." Also, prefer to have length in the major suits.

3. Hand (a) is better. With partner known to have five or more spades, the ♠Q in (b) may be a wasted honor; partner may be able to draw trumps without it. The ♥Q in (a) may provide a needed winner.

4. Hand (a) is better. With wasted heart honors opposite West's marked shortness, (b) is worth only a chance-giving raise to 3♣. With (a), slam is possible. Give partner::

♠A 9 5 2 ♥— ♦K J 5 3 2 ♣A K 9 3.

5. Hand (b) is better. Your heart honors, sitting behind the heart bidder, are worth as much as the A–Q, and your ♠Q is working. You might bid 3NT! If you play at notrump with (a), the defense may knock out your heart stopper immediately. To bid notrump would be "anti-positional." If partner's hearts happens to be Q–x, he should be declarer at notrump. Your best call is a negative double.

6. Hand (a), where your spade tricks are "secondary," is better to accept partner's invitation. If the opponents lead spades, you must spend only 2 high-card points to win two tricks, leaving you with 14 points to set up tricks elsewhere.

7. Hand (b) is better. Partner's 1NT response marks him with length in clubs. Your good club holding is the key. Bid 3NT.

Spingold R16: three upsets

Three high seeds in the Spingold Knockout Teams fell in the Round of 16. No. 3 Rosenthal lost to No. 14 Bremark, No. 7 Spector came up short against original No. 23 seed Hans in a tight match and No. 6 Street was defeated by No. 11 Kolesnik.

Today's quarterfinal matches will be on delayed Vugraph on LoveBridge. Go to vugraph.lovebridge.com and select the match you wish to watch. There are several viewing options, such as "match view," where you can see both tables at once, or just zoom in on one table if you prefer. The quarterfinal pairings are on page 20.

Mini-Spin SF pairings:

Harris vs. Marker, Sylvester vs. Macbride

Four squads remain in the Mini-Spingold 0–6000 KO Teams. Martin Harris and company (Miriam Harris-Botzum, Mark Kinzer and Bob Marheine) face David Marker's team (Eli Jolley, Rajath Shourie, Thomas Dressing, Mark Ginsburg and Kenneth Tatz). In the other bracket, Marc Sylvester's squad (David Yoon, Ryan Connors and Randi Adelman) square off against Bonnie Macbride's team (Bradley Komsthoef, Venky Venkataramani and Robert Gervis).

Schwartz, Hu meet in Micro-Spin final

The teams led by Jeffrey Schwartz and Ping Hu meet in today's final of the 0–2500 Mini-Spingold KO Teams. Playing with Schwartz are Susan Davison, Daniel Lev, Catherine Williams, Sharon Phillips and Michael Xu. Hu's lineup includes Henry Shi, Zhiqiang Hu and Li Miao.

In the semifinal, Schwartz beat the team led by Roger Thomas (James Weider, Gregory Gauthier and John Stremel), while Hu defeated Avery Silverstein's squad (Jack Boge, Nicole Hudak and Benjamin Levine).

Spingold Round of 16 played on computers

The ACBL Conventions and Competition Committee voted to test the use of the LoveBridge electronic environment at the Summer NABC. Chromebooks running the LoveBridge software were used in the Spingold KO Teams for yesterday's Round of 16 and will be used today in the quarterfinal round.

Mixed BAM

Van Den Bos of the Netherlands) qualified in 29th place for today's two-session final. The team scored 18.5 in both final sessions to win the event with a score of 38.39. It is the first NABC+ win for Larsson.

In second place was team Hill (Joyce Hill of St. Augustine FL, Kevin Dwyer of Jacksonville FL, Shan Huang of Jacksonville FL, Cecilia Dwyer Rimstedt of Jacksonville FL, Mikael Rimstedt of Sweden and Signe Buus Thomsen of Denmark), who qualified tied for fourth place. They dropped to eighth after an average first final session but had a strong last session to finish with a score of 37.94, narrowly edging out Tim Archdeacon's team, who had a score of 37.11.

Second in the Wernher Open Pairs: Vesa Fagerlund and Kauko Koistinen

The Comparison

For bridge players, the comparison of results in a team game verges on a sacred rite. It is a moment of reckoning. Success and luck are rewarded; failed choices are punished. Here's a collection images from team comparisons in the Spingold KO.

What do your friends think?

During lunch at the Youth NABC on Thursday, we asked players: What do your friends think about the fact that you play bridge? Here are their answers.

"They all gave me funny looks and I had to explain what bridge was."

*Frances Richardson, 13
Avery WI*

"They call me an old man because it's an old person's game, but it's light-hearted."

*Michael Johnston, 17
Flagler Beach FL*

"I've gotten a lot of friends to play, so they don't think it's weird."

*Olivia Rabinowitz, 17
Williamsburg VA*

"I haven't really told my friends about it. I think they'd accept it."

*Alex Xu, 12
Naperville IL*

"The think I'm a bridge sweat."

*Alex Fu, 14
Westfield NJ*

"These are my friends right here. They all play."

*Momo Sacko, 17
Orange NJ*

"They don't know. It never comes up."

*Matthew Rippin, 18
Dallas TX*

"It doesn't matter much to them."

*Agnes Shu, 9
Singapore*

"They think it's cool we get to travel and play in tournaments. I've had a couple be surprised but they'll say, 'That's cool.'"

*Tamyra Rumble, 18
Orange NJ*

"Most people don't know what bridge is. But when I tell them it's a card game, they think it's easy to pick up, like solitaire. It should be more widespread than it is."

*Brendan Wang, 17
Flagler Beach FL*

"They think it's so weird. I know nobody who plays, young or old. They think it's the nerdiest thing. But they get jealous I get to go to Chicago."

*Sofie Profit, 15
Boston MA*

"My sister and I haven't been playing that long, so no one has formed an opinion about it. They think it's cool we get to travel."

*Sabrina Da Silva-Carvalho, 17

IntoBridge demonstrates a new way to play bridge

IntoBridge, the new online platform for bridge players, is now available in Chicago at the vendors' area on the first floor, next to the Chicago Burger Company.

In addition to the regular play modes and their embedded audio-video connection, IntoBridge is showcasing their Ranked Games feature, a new way for playing bridge online. According to the platform's founder Stefan Skorchev, this mode allows players to have the freedom to play whenever they want, for as long or as little as they choose. With Ranked Games, players can avoid the commitment of a full bridge game and the worry of letting down their partner and friends.

So how does it work? In Ranked Games, you play one hand, partnering with a robot, and you are then matched against another player who has already played the same hand. Based on the score of that specific hand, you can win or lose rating points, similar to how the rating system works in chess. You can continue playing as many hands as you like, experiencing the thrill of competition.

One of the unique features of Ranked Games is the flexibility it offers. You can leave the game at any time and return whenever you please; the game will be waiting for you in the exact state you left it.

If you're interested in seeing a quick demonstration of IntoBridge's Ranked Games feature, make sure to visit their booth in the vendors' area. Don't miss out on their custom free giveaways as well!

More beer?

By David Caprera

Playing in the Truscott/USPC Senior Swiss with my wife Anne, I picked up:

♠10 ♥6 3 ♦9 7 5 4 ♣A Q 10 9 5 4.

Dealer, on my left, opened 1♦ and the auction proceeded:

West	Anne	East	Dave
1♦	Dbl	1♥	2♣
Pass	Pass	2♥	3♣
All Pass

The opening lead was the ♥Q and here is what I saw:

Dummy

♠J 7 5 2
♥A 8 5 3
♦A K Q
♣8 2

Dave (declarer)

♠10
♥6 3
♦9 7 5 4
♣A Q 10 9 5 4

I won the ♥A, RHO encouraging, played the ♣8 to the 3, 5 and jack. LHO returned a diamond. I played a second club from dummy and RHO played the ♣7. The hand is now an open book. Spades are 4-4, LHO is 4=1=5=3.

I played the ♣A and another club. LHO won the ♣K as RHO signaled for a spade. LHO played a spade to RHO's king, who cashed a heart and returned a spade which I ruffed.

Here is the end position:

♠ J 7
♥ 5 3
♦ A Q

♠ A Q
♦ J 10 2

(irrelevant)

♦ 9 7 5
♣ Q 10

I played a club and LHO was caught in a trump squeeze. If they pitched a spade, I could establish the ♠J. They actually pitched a diamond, so I cashed the diamonds, ruffed a spade and my last diamond was good.

So, what was the valuable lesson? Among Juniors, the ♦7 is referred to as the "beer card." If you make your contract and score the ♦7 at trick 13 (in a non-diamond contract), everyone at the table owes you a beer. But you better not beer your wife or you'll end up sleeping on the couch.

Makes sense

In the Spingold Round of 64, the Nickell vs. Goldstein match featured Shail Gupta of Chino CA extrapolating an interesting bridge lesson.

Dlr: South ♠ K 2

West	North	East	South
Shail	Nickell	Osborne	Katz
1♠	2♥	4♠	1♦
All Pass			5♥

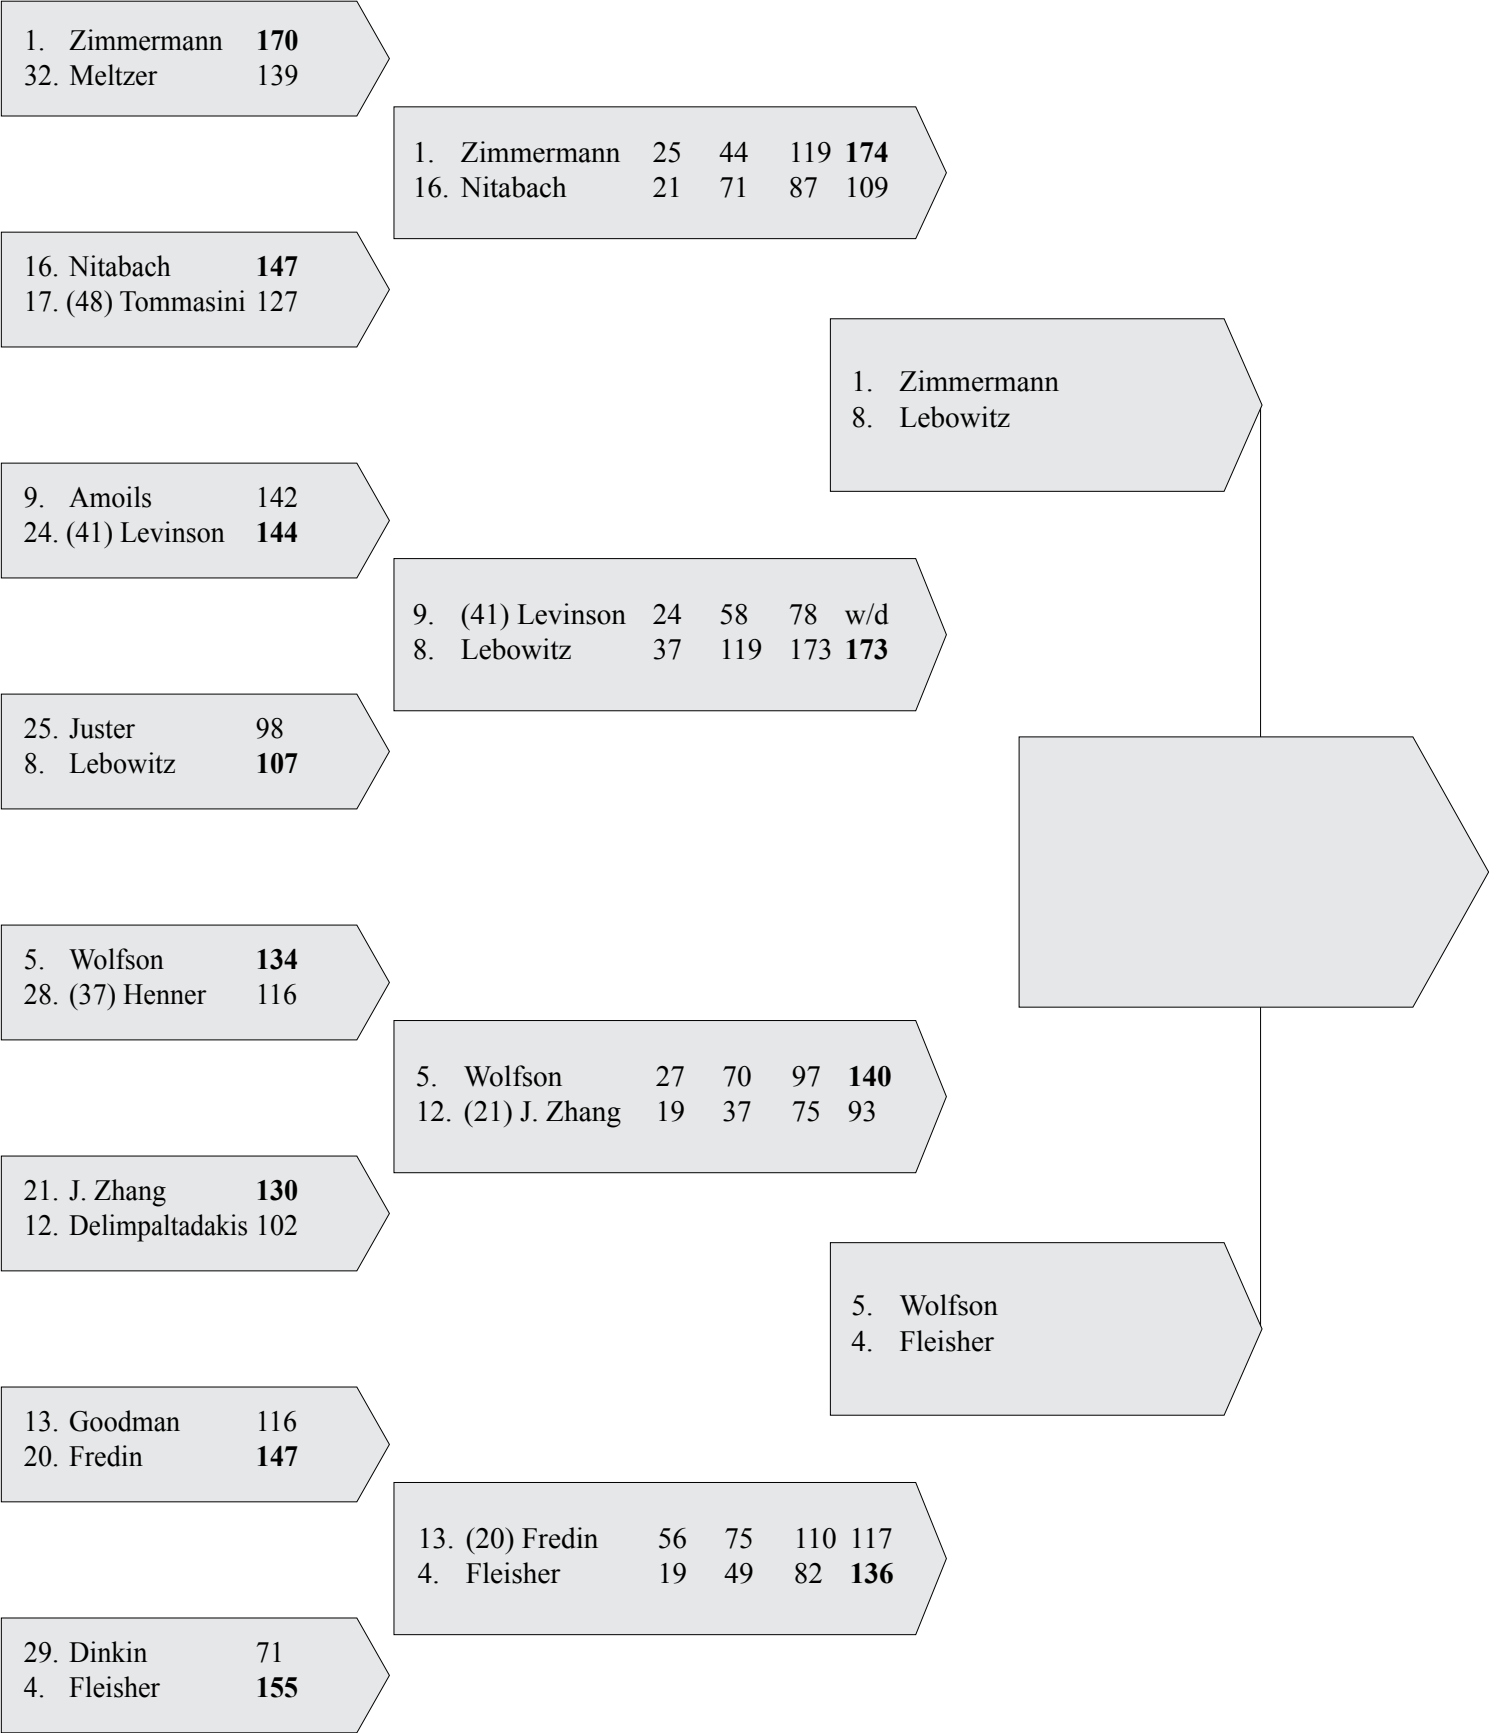

"I was taught that when your RHO opens your five-card suit, you're allowed to overcall a four-card suit," said Shail. "The idea is that the hand plays really well when there is a ruff/overruff situation." Here, Shail visualized his partner being short in diamonds with support for the other suits. Being down 33 IMPs at halftime, Shail reasoned that if they opened his six-card suit, he should be allowed to overcall his three-card suit.

"I cannot recommend this logic for three-card suits (it is a psyche), but if you choose to employ this tactic with a four-card suit, it's essential to have opening-hand strength. If you overcall a four-card suit, subsequently you should deduct 3 HCP from your hand (as the auction progresses)," advised Shail.

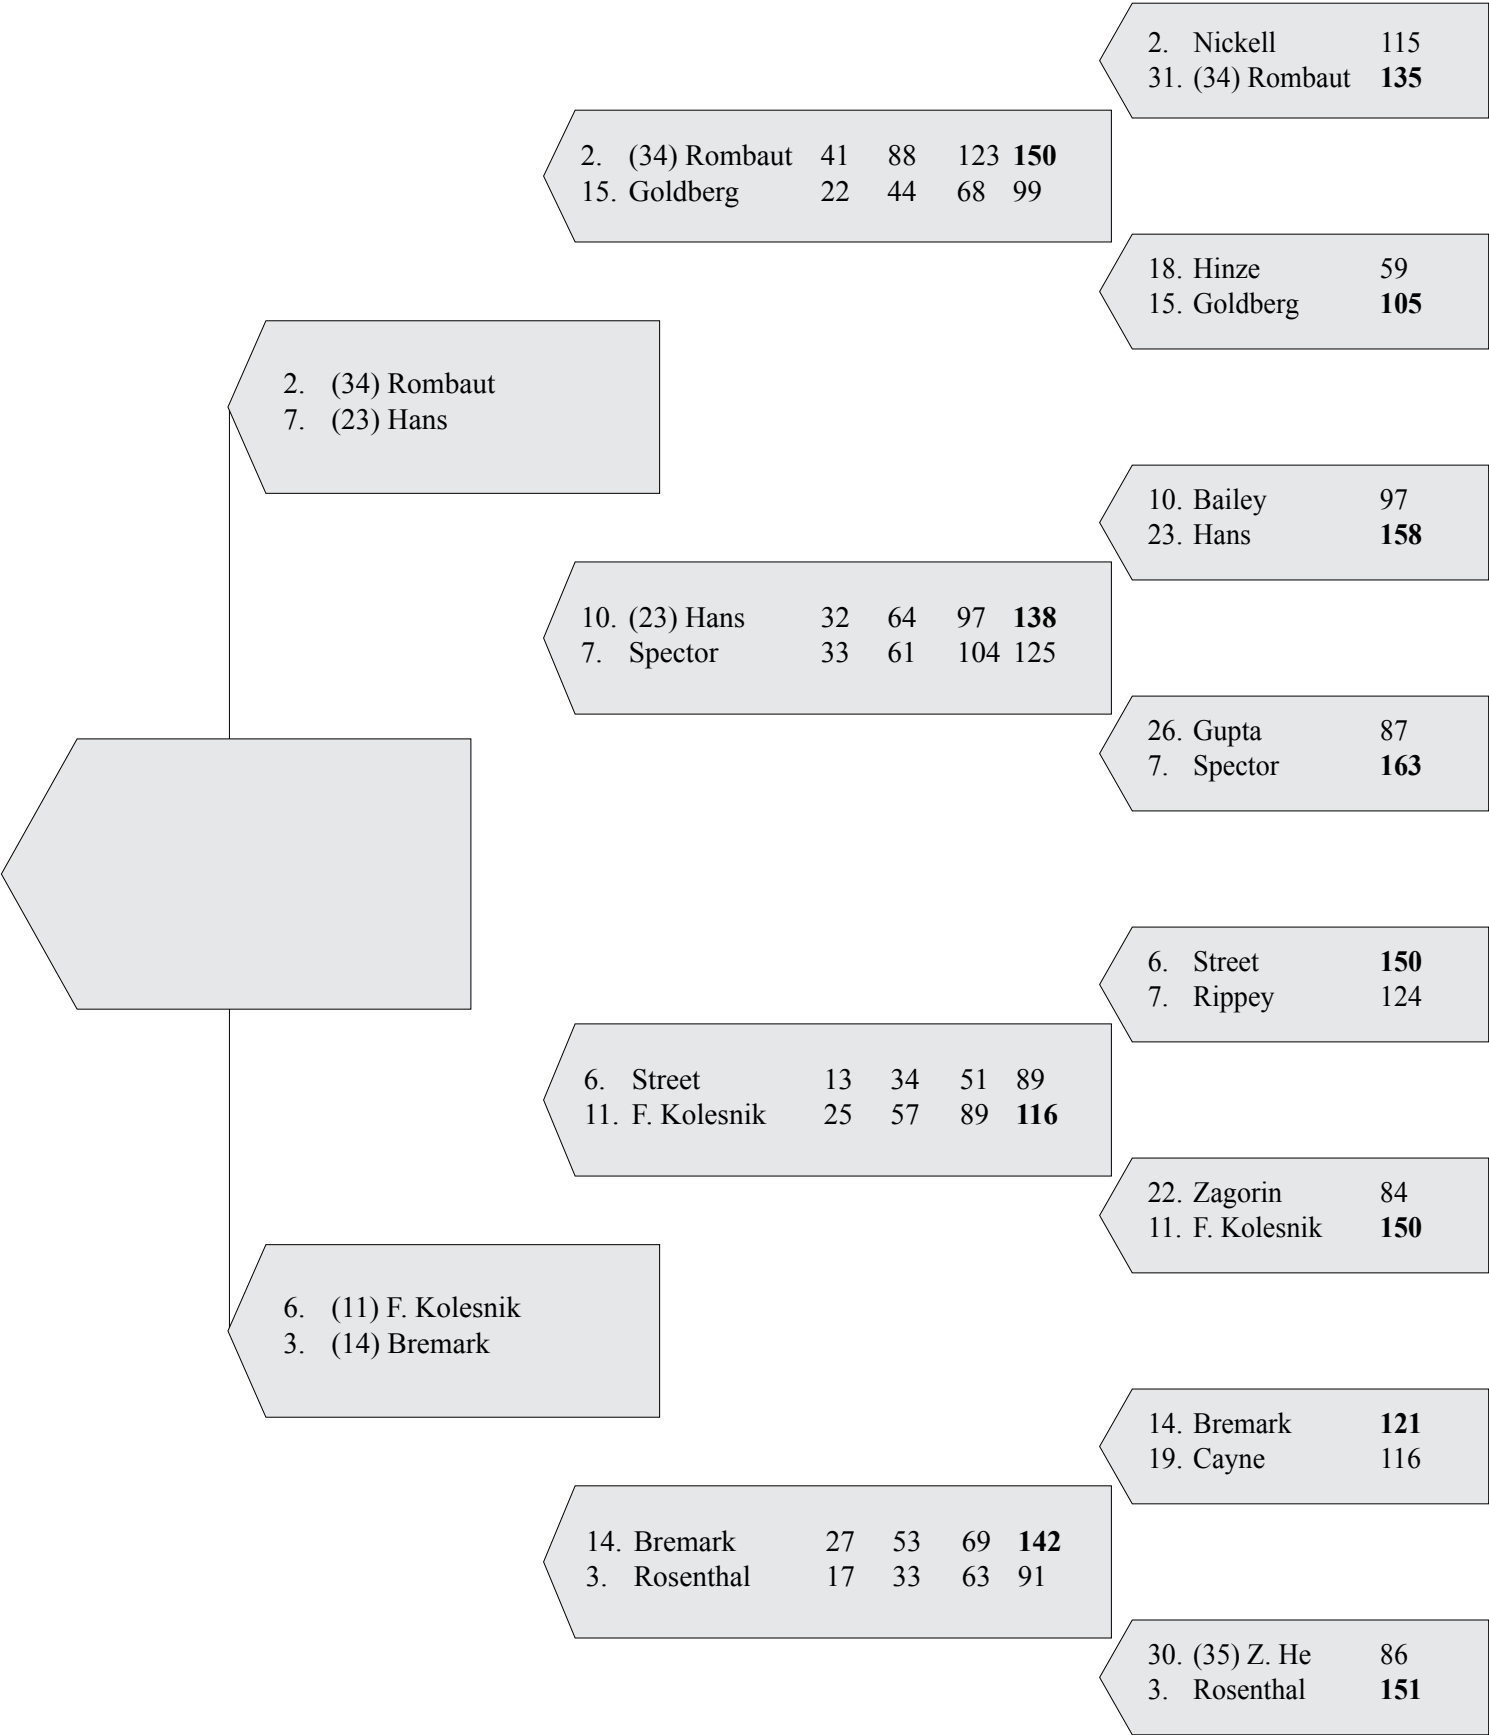

North-South at the other table failed to reach 4♥, so instead of losing 10 had they not pushed their opponents to the five level, they won 7 IMPs.

This board helped Goldstein cut the lead down to 13 after the third quarter, but they lost the match in the fourth quarter.

Greg Gauthier of Mountain View CA became a Bronze Life Master on Thursday when his team, partner John Stremel of San Jose CA and teammates Roger Thomas of West Linn OR and Jim Weider of Portland OR, made it to the semifinal of the 0-2500 Micro Spingold. "It's been great to have wonderful teammates," said Gauthier. It was his first time playing in the Spingold. The team, who got connected through the partnership desk, entered the main Spingold event and lost on Monday. They were happy to not have been the lowest-seeded team and said it was a great experience.

Entente Cordiale

By Mark Horton

With three matches on offer from the Spingold Round of 32, my attention was immediately drawn to the match between the legendary Nickell and the French squad Rombaut, the latter containing several players who are regular contributors to Bridgerama+. I suspect that most people know that the Statue of Liberty was a gift from the people of France, but there were unlikely to be many gifts on offer at the bridge table.

Systems guru Al Hollander was on hand to explain the auction – his laconic annotation for 6♠ was “man overboard.”

After the same lead to the ♦A, declarer played a spade to the ace, ruffed a diamond and ran the ♠J, the same 11 tricks meaning the loss of 13 IMPs.

Purchase options

All monetary transactions are cashless, including entries for NABC and regional games. All major debit/credit cards are accepted wherever entries are sold.

Advance entries for all events are now available through the ACBL's Entry Express system. This system can be accessed through a website.

To use Entry Express from your own device, go to members.acbl.org/tournaments or scan the QR code. This may be done until midnight the day before the event begins.

Entries may also be purchased at the event location in the hour before the start time.

When screen fees apply, they will be charged outside of Entry Express.

Entries for NABC events are no longer available on Bridge Winners.

Buying early is especially recommended for NABC+ pairs events. In an effort to speed up the start of these events, please buy entries at least 15 minutes before game time – especially if you expect to be a seeded pair.

More on Entry Express

When buying entries for multi-day events on Entry Express, you will see a separate charge for each day of the event. Only the first is a real charge for the first day of the event. The remaining are holds for potential qualification. You will not need to repurchase for subsequent days of the same event.

If you do not qualify for the next day of an event, your entry will be released in Entry Express, at which point the system will send notice to your bank to release the hold. It may take some time to clear the hold, but no charges would be applied.

Note that it is possible to pre-purchase entries for conflicting events with qualifying stages. If you fail to qualify for the first event, your entry to the second event is ready. But if you do qualify for the first event, it is necessary to go back into Entry Express and cancel your entry for the second event.

Entry Express accepts only one payment per event for the entire pair or team. You will be asked to pay for you, your partner and/or your team at the time of registration, and you will all receive confirmation emails once your purchase is complete.

For more information, see acbl.org/entry-express.

If you decide to accept invitation via a quantitative 4NT you can either show the number of “real” aces you have or suggest a possible trump suit.

Playing in diamonds, declarer could win the trump lead, draw trumps, cash the ♥A K, take three rounds of spades pitching a heart, ruff a heart and claim the rest for +940 and 10 IMPs.

On this deal, both North-Souths played in 3NT, East having bid hearts at some point.

In the Open Room, North took the ♥K immediately, unblocked the ♣K, crossed to dummy with a spade, cashed the ♣A and the ♠Q and exited with the ♥9. The 4-2 split in spades meant two down, -200.

In the replay, North ducked the ♥K, and when East continued with the queen (not easy to switch to a diamond), declarer won and played back the ♥7, East won and switched to the ♦6 (West had pitched the ♣2 and the ♦7). Declarer took West's queen, unblocked dummy's spades, came to hand with the ♣K, cashed the ♠K and the played the ♥10. West, down to the ♠J, ♦K 3 and ♣Q 6, pitched the ♦3 and was thrown in with a diamond, forced to give dummy the last two tricks after cashing the ♠J, +600 and 13 IMPs to Nickell.

It costs declarer nothing to duck the first round of diamonds. If West continues with the ♦K, declarer wins and cashes the ♥10, squeezing West in three suits. Discarding a club allows declarer to score five tricks in the suit, and a spade gives up the guard. That leaves a diamond, but then West has lost contact with partner, and declarer will get home whichever black suit he plays on.

A poor 6♦ (there were two top clubs to lose) cost Nickell 11 IMPs, but then came this deal:

This would make a good lead problem.

The aggressive options are to start with a heart or a club, hoping to find partner with the king in either suit and a trick elsewhere (in a way, hearts is slightly safer, as partner might have the jack). Garozzo was a great supporter of aggressive leads against slams – they are easier to find on paper. Here, only a heart pays a dividend.

When East went with the ♣2 (unlucky) declarer won performe in dummy, cashed the top diamonds and then played on spades, claiming 12 tricks – West could score the ♦Q at some point, but that was all, +920.

That's the auction recorded on BBO – perhaps it was South who rebid 3♥, North's 2♠ possibly being a transfer of some sort or a diamond raise?

Declarer won the spade lead with the queen and played on diamonds, unblocking the ♣A along the way and finishing with 11 tricks, +460 but a 10-IMP loss.

North led the ♥A, and when South followed with the 9, he continued with the ♥8 to the 10, the defenders taking the first five tricks, -100.

If I interpret a comment from the operator correctly, North played the ♥K at trick three before South had played, making the ♥K a major penalty card. Once the options had been explained to West, he told South to carry on. Were he to forbid a heart lead, anything other than a spade switch would allow declarer to make the contract as the ♥K would have to be discarded on the fifth round of clubs, but who wants to win that way?

(1) 16+ artificial, upgrades common

You may recall an earlier deal where the French team overcalled 1♠ on a four-card suit. Had North elected to pass the double of 2♠ and lead a trump, declarer would be hard-pressed to take more than five tricks.

East led the ♣Q and declarer won in dummy and played a spade, West taking the ace and returning the ♦7. Declarer won with dummy's ace, pitched a spade on the ♣K, ruffed a club, ruffed a spade, ruffed a club (overruffing West's ♦J) ruffed a spade and cashed the ♥A for +130.

The lead was up to 15 and Rombaut added 5 IMPs on the last board to seal a famous victory.

Roth Open Swiss starts today

The six-session Open Swiss Teams, named in honor of ACBL Hall of Famer Al Roth, begins with today's two-session qualifier. The nationally rated event was first held in 2005.

Al Roth (1914–2007) is generally considered the premier bidding theorist of his bridge generation, perhaps of all time. He and longtime partner Tobias Stone are credited with developing the negative double, the unusual notrump, 1NT forcing and weak two-bid.

An ACBL Grand Life Master with more than 12,000 masterpoints, Roth won 26 national titles, including the Spingold five times, the Vanderbilt three times and the Reisinger twice.

He represented North America in the Bermuda Bowl in 1955, 1958 and 1967. A WBF Life Master, he placed second in the World Team Olympiad in 1968.

During his first world championship appearance, Roth was declaring a 2♠ contract and felt he played the hand before – but as a defender. The director, Al Sobel, did not believe him because the hands had been dealt at the table. Sobel made Roth call out all the cards in each hand – including the spots – before he threw out the board.

No one ever discovered how this happened.

Roth retired from active bridge competition in the '70s but remained active as a staff member of Bridge Today and on panels of The Bridge World, Bridge Today and Australian Bridge.

He was the author of "The Roth-Stone System," "Al Roth on Bridge" and "Picture Bidding" and co-author of "Bridge Is a Partnership Game," "Modern Bridge Complete" and "Bridge for Beginners."

A longtime resident of New York, where he owned and managed the Mayfair Club, Roth retired to Boca Raton FL.

Red Ribbon Pairs begins today

Winners of the Red Ribbon Pairs last year: Jenny Kuhn and Phil Kuhn

The Red Ribbon Pairs, an ACBL event with national rating open to players with less than 2500 masterpoints, gets underway today. Before 2015, it was on the spring schedule.

Players earn qualification by placing first or second overall in regionally rated events of at least Flight B status. Neither member of a qualifying pair may hold more than 2500 masterpoints at the time of qualification.

The four-session event began in 1986 and winners are honored by the Percy X. Bean Trophy.

The trophy was designated by the ACBL Board of Directors in 1996 to honor Bean, ACBL president in 1972 and chairman of the Board in 1973.

Bean (1916–1992) represented District 19 on the Board from 1964 until 1988 and served as president of the ACBL Charity Foundation from 1974 until 1981. He was a member of the National Goodwill Committee and the National Board of Governors and general chairman of arrangements for the World Team Olympiad in Seattle in 1984.

Bean and his wife, Anne, were named ACBL Honorary Members for 1992, the first time that honor was bestowed on a husband-wife combination.

Bean was the editor of Mad, Mad World of Bridge, a publication that strongly championed players of less than expert class.
