Chambers–Hamman win Silodor Pairs

Silodor Open Pairs champions Neil Chambers and Bob Hamman

Overcoming a poor qualifying carryover, Neil Chambers of Schenectady NY and Bob Hamman of Dallas TX posted a 64.37% game in the first final session of the Silodor Open Pairs and followed up with a 62.75% score in the second set to win the four-session event by over one board.

This is the seventh NABC title for Chambers. For Hall of Famer Hamman, it's his 55th NABC title.

Turkish champs win Women's Pairs

Dilek Yavas of Bursa, Turkiye, and Irem Ozbay of Weehawken NJ – both world champions – are the winners of the Smith Women's Pairs. After topping the list of qualifiers, the duo scored 58.62% in the first final session to stay there with a slim lead: 10.60 matchpoints on a 25 top. Their final session score was 65.62%, making their combined score 900.59, a little over two boards ahead. It's the first

St. Louis duo wins 0–2500 Pairs

Winners of the 0–2500 Pairs: Rick Londeree and Sandy Bigg

Rick Londeree and Sandy Bigg of the St. Louis area won the 0–2500 Pairs on Friday by less than one matchpoint. It was their first time playing in the event. Bigg won the Grand National Teams as a Flight C player in 2008.

They scored 57.69% and 56.57% on Thursday to qualify in fourth place, then 53.16% and 57.25% on Friday.

"I felt like there were a lot of really strong pairs," Bigg said. "I was

Hal Greer By Alan Greer

Let's play one more!

Hal Greer had a natural gift at cards, which he fine-tuned by beating his little brother (me), over and over again. As kids, he would finesse me in different card games, but never told me how he was doing it! Hal lived a blessed life. He and his wife, Martha, had three children and a quiver full of grandchildren. He had a prosperous career as a stockbroker for UBS. He was an avid golfer, an Ole Miss fan, a lover of board games and all card games. He could occasionally be seen at Vanderbilt Bridge Club. Brentwood TN lost a good friend on Feb. 10, 2019, when he passed.

A friend of Hal's always says that when you finished a game of any kind with Hal, he would say, "Let's play one more!"

He was a great big brother.

IntoBridge offers prizes in Memphis!

- ◆ IntoBridge is back at the NABC and hosting a lottery with fantastic prizes up for grabs!
- ◆ IntoBridge.com is a relatively new online platform where you can play bridge anytime, anywhere, against both human players and robots. Their exclusive robot, Lia, can play 10 different systems that you can choose from.

To enter the lottery, simply participate in one of their daily games – the Daily Celebrity Challenge. This quick, 10-minute game features a bridge celebrity playing 5 hands with 3 robots. For the following 24 hours, anyone can replay those hands and compare their bids and plays, move by move, to the celebrity's performance. Plus, each celebrity records a video of their game, giving you access to their insightful, over-the-shoulder analysis once you've completed the challenge.

It's free to create an account on IntoBridge, and getting started takes just a minute!

To join the lottery, play a Daily Celebrity Challenge game and visit IntoBridge's booth in the vendors' area to register your entry. Exciting prizes include a giant, oversized cap you've likely spotted around the tables, and three copies of Zia's latest book, personally signed by the legendary Zia himself.

Playing in an NABC+ pairs game? Buy your entry early!

In an effort to speed up the start of all NABC+ pairs events – which require additional time for proper seeding – the ACBL asks participants to please buy their entries at least 15 minutes before game time. This is especially true if you expect to be a seeded pair.

Concessions

Concessions are located in the hallway outside Southwest Hall. Additional seating is located in the Riverview Lobby, just around the corner.

Smoking Policy

Smoking is not permitted in the playing area during any bridge playing event at an NABC. This includes electronic smoking devices.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Bidding Basics

by Larry Cohen

Good bidding habits start with understanding the basics. Author, teacher and many-time national champion Larry Cohen takes newer players on a tour of the bidding box.

The series first appeared in the Bridge Bulletin beginning in the January 2017 issue, and it can also be found on Cohen's website at larryco.com.

Opening bids at the four level or higher

A four-level preempt uses all the same principles as a two- or three-level preempt. The main difference is that an eight-card suit is expected. So an opening of 4♣, 4♦, 4♥ or 4♠ typically shows a decent eight-card suit, but not enough strength for a one-level opening. Here are some examples:

♠6 5 ♥— ♦J 7 6 ♣A Q 10 8 7 5 3 2
 ♠K Q J 10 7 6 4 3 ♥2 ♦4 3 2 ♣2.

Don't preempt with a strong hand. A common mistake made by inexperienced players is to open four of a major on hands such as:

♠A K Q J 10 7 6 5 ♥A Q J ♦— ♣3 2
 or
 ♠2 ♥K Q J 10 9 8 7 6 ♦A K Q ♣2.

This makes it too likely you will miss a slam because your partner won't expect you to have game in your own hand.

The Rule of 2, 3 and 4 is a reasonable guideline for evaluating if you should preempt. This refers to how many tricks you think you have in your hand. When vulnerable against not ("unfavorable"), be within two tricks of your four-level preempt. So a probable eight-trick hand such as either of these would be representative:

♠5 4 ♥K Q J 9 6 5 4 2 ♦K Q ♣2
 ♠A K J 10 9 6 5 4 ♥7 6 5 ♦3 2 ♣—.

If the vulnerability is "equal" (neither side vul or both sides vul), be within three tricks of your bid:

♠5 4 ♥K Q J 9 6 5 4 2 ♦J 4 ♣2
 or

♠3 ♥6 5 ♦4 3 ♣A Q J 10 8 7 5 4.

At favorable vulnerability (white versus red), be aggressive. Either of these hands, within about four tricks of your bid, would be about right:

♠K J 10 9 6 5 4 2 ♥— ♦2 ♣8 7 3 2
 ♠— ♥7 2 ♦J 9 5 ♣Q J 10 8 6 5 3 2.

All the same thinking as in the previous articles (on two- and three-level preempts) applies. Try to have most of the points in your long suit, but there is no exact rule. Be more disciplined when vulnerable. Pay attention to position. In second seat, be sound. In third seat, especially at favorable vulnerability, be more aggressive. In fourth seat, pass the hand out if you have lots of garbage.

Is an eight-card suit required? No. It is the norm, but it is more than acceptable to try a 4♠ opening on either of these hands:

♠K Q J 10 8 7 3 ♥3 ♦2 ♣Q J 10 8
 or

♠Q J 10 9 8 7 6 ♥— ♦2 ♣K Q J 3 2.

Opening 4NT

Don't try this at home. Your partner won't know if it is (a) Blackwood, (b) natural, or (c) something else. Even if you agree to one of these choices, will you and your partner both remember what you agreed to when it actually comes up two years later?

Opening on the five level

A five-of-a-minor opening is also "preemptive" in nature, but shows quite a few tricks. After all, nobody wants to go for 800. You can apply the same Rule of 2, 3 and 4 as a guideline. So with nobody vulnerable, I'd expect to have about eight tricks. For example:

♠7 ♥5 ♦K Q 10 ♣K Q J 9 7 6 5 4
 or

♠— ♥Q 4 3 ♦K Q J 10 9 7 6 5 4 ♣2.

Five of a major

According to “the book,” this isn’t a preempt. It shows 11 tricks, missing only the ace-king of trumps. Something like:

♠Q J 10 9 8 7 6 4 ♥— ♦— ♣A K Q J 2.

Don’t hold your breath waiting for this. (I did actually open 5♠ on a similar hand in 1980. That was a long time ago!)

Six- or seven-level openings

I’m still waiting for one.

Mary McIntyre of Torrance CA and Cherene Birkholz of Long Beach CA are here in Memphis to represent District 23 in the North American Pairs, Flight C. It’s Mary’s first NABC; Cherene has attended three.

“We’ve been playing together for about a year,” said Mary. They both have a goal: Life Master. “But not this year,” said Cherene.

“We need too many gold and silver points,” added Mary.

They both agreed that getting to the next level this year is a good goal.

Quiz

You deal with nobody vulnerable. What is your action with:

1. ♠A K Q J 10 9 7 6 ♥A J 7 6 ♦— ♣2
2. ♠5 4 ♥3 ♦2 ♣K Q J 10 9 8 7 6 2
3. ♠— ♥Q J 10 9 8 7 6 2 ♦K 10 9 7 2 ♣—
4. ♠5 ♥K Q 10 8 6 5 2 ♦J 3 2 ♣3 2

You are in second seat, vulnerable against not. What is your action with:

5. ♠5 4 ♥6 2 ♦K J 9 7 6 5 4 3 ♣2
6. ♠— ♥K Q J 9 7 6 5 2 ♦Q J 10 2 ♣2
7. ♠7 6 5 ♥2 ♦K 2 ♣K Q J 10 7 6 5
8. ♠— ♥Q J 10 9 8 7 6 5 ♦A K Q 10 7 ♣—

Answers

1. 1♠. Way too strong for a preempt (2♣ is also possible).
2. 5♣.
3. 4♥.
4. 3♥. No reason to preempt on the four level with only a seven-card suit and nothing extraordinary.
5. Pass (or an aggressive 3♦). Not enough strength for a four-level vulnerable preempt.
6. 4♥.
7. 3♣.
8. 5♥. The once-in-a-lifetime hand, asking partner to raise one level for each top heart.

Fleisher meets Wolfson in Vandy final

The teams captained by Marty Fleisher and Jeff Wolfson face off in today's final of the Vanderbilt Knockout Teams.

In the semifinal match, Fleisher (Chip Martel, Alfredo Versace, Antonio Sementa, Cedric Lorenzini, Thomas Bessis) defeated Pierre Zimmermann's squad 128–119.

In the other bracket, Wolfson (Steve Garner, David Berkowitz, Eldad Ginossar, Frederic Wrang and Simon Ekenberg) beat Sam Dinkin's team 127–119. Wolfson, who trailed throughout the first three quarters of the match, rallied in the final set to win.

Hamman, 86, won his first NABC event – the Reisinger – in 1962(!).

In second were Peter Friedland of Cupertino CA and Matt Granovetter of Cincinnati OH.

Ozbay said it’s her second time playing at an NABC but her first with her regular partner. The two have an extensive and impressive playing record for their home country, including winning the Women’s Teams in the World Bridge Games held in Buenos Aires last October.

In second place with a combined score of 848.99 were Wenfei Wang of Northbrook IL and Bo Fu of Shanghai, China. “I’m so proud to play with Wenfei,” said Fu. “She is my team leader, and this is the first time we played in the Women’s.”

New Life Master

Bob Enyeart of Fort Wayne IN became one the ACBL's newest Life Masters on Thursday when his squad won their bracket in the Bracketed Round Robin Teams. Enyeart, who needed about 10 gold points to advance, picked up more than 14 in the contest.

Playing with Enyeart were Dimi Cooklev, Joseph Shull and Michael Clegg, all of Indiana.

New Bronze Life Master

R. Mani of Lanham MD crossed the 750-masterpoint threshold at the Memphis NABC to become a Bronze Life Master. Mani needed nine masterpoints to attain the new rank, and he earned more than 33 at the Spring NABC.

Open Swiss teams begin play today

The Jacoby Open Swiss Teams begin play today with the Jacoby Trophy honoring the winners. This is a four-session event with two qualifying sessions and two final sessions.

The trophy is named for Oswald and Jim Jacoby – one of the premier father-son pairs in ACBL history, the first father-son to win a national championship together and the first father-son to be elected to the ACBL Bridge Hall of Fame.

The senior Jacoby (1902–1984) won his first major title – the National Team Championship of the American Whist League – in 1929 and his last major title – the Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams – in 1983.

In between, he won the McKenney Trophy (now the Barry Crane Top 500) four times. He was the first player to win 1000 masterpoints in a single year and the first player to earn 10,000 masterpoints.

Oswald Jacoby won seven Spingolds, seven Vanderbilts, two Reisingers and more than a dozen other major titles. He was named to the ACBL Bridge Hall of Fame in 1965.

He and son Jim are the co-authors of Jacoby transfer bids, Jacoby 2NT and other bidding ideas. Together, they won the Reisinger in 1955 – when Jim was 22 – and the Vanderbilt in 1965.

Jim Jacoby (1933–1991), elected to the Hall of Fame in 1997, won the Bermuda Bowl in 1970 and 1971, the World Mixed Teams in 1972 and the World Team Olympiad in 1988. He won more than 14 NABC titles and captured the Barry Crane Top 500 in 1988 – the same year he won the Olympiad title.

The history of the event became more complicated in 2015, when it was one by a team including a pair who were later convicted of cheating and stripped of the title. The other members of the team announced they wished to renounce the title.

Women's Swiss starts today

Last year's winners of the Women's Open Swiss Teams: Irene Baroni, Janice Seamon-Molson, team captain Susan Zhang and Sylvia Shi

The Women's Open Swiss Teams, an event that debuted on the spring calendar last year, begins today.

Between 1982 and 2017, the Machlin Women's Swiss Teams was held in the spring. It was discontinued due to lack of participation.

To help make the new event viable, more than half the field will qualify for the second day.

- 2024 Susan Zhang, Sylvia Shi, Janice Seamon-Molson, Irene Baroni

NABC results by email/text

Want to be notified when results and the Daily Bulletins from the NABC are posted online? Want to see your results in the events you played in? ACBL Live does just that.

With the ACBL Live notification system, you will receive emails and/or text messages after each session with links that go directly to the information you're looking for. The email/text message will contain your score for the session and a link to your results. (These results will also be available on your MyResults page at MyACBL.) Players will also receive a notification to indicate when the Daily Bulletin for that day is available.

This service is automatic for members unless they have specifically opted out. To receive text messages, go to MyACBL at acbl.org and select Update My Information to enter your email address and/or cell phone number.

Also at MyACBL, visit the Privacy Settings tab to make sure you've selected the Subscribe setting for General Email Communication and Cell Phone Text Communication to receive these notifications.

Golder North American Flight B champs from last year: Colin Schloss and Alan Munro, representing District 6

Golder NAP Flight B begins play today

Competition begins today in the Golder North American Pairs, Flight B – a grassroots event limited to players with 0–2500 masterpoints.

The first stage is conducted at the local club level and qualifiers advance to unit competition. Those qualifiers then advance to the district finals where three pairs – more, depending upon attendance – qualify for the North American final.

Winners are honored by the Golder Cup and will also receive a certificate of recognition.

The trophy is presented in memory of Benjamin M. Golder (1894–1946) of Philadelphia, who died the day before the close of his term as 1946 ACBL president. He was named ACBL Honorary Member of the Year for 1947.

The event was not held in 2020, but those who qualified in 2019 for the 2020 event competed online in 2021.

NAP-C Pairs compete for President's Cup

Players in the North American Pairs Flight C, a grassroots event limited to players who have not yet become Life Masters and have less than 500 masterpoints, will begin competition today for the President's Cup.

The trophy was presented in 1942 by Morgan Howard, ACBL president that year. The trophy previously honored the winners of the President's Pairs event, held at the Summer NABC.

The competition began last summer at the local club level and qualifiers then advanced to unit competition. Those qualifiers advanced to the district finals and three pairs from each district – more, depending upon attendance – qualified for the North American final.

The event was not held in 2020, but those who qualified for that year's contest competed online in 2021.

South led the ♦K, and having won perforce, declarer played the ♣5 to dummy's jack. North won and returned the ♦6, declarer ruffing, and exiting with the ♥10. South went up with the ♥K and ... well I would like to tell you, but the play record stops, the contract failing by three tricks, -100 and a 14-IMP loss.

We can see that the miraculous spade layout means 10 tricks can be made by playing on hearts, but that information was not available to declarer.

West led the ♥J, and declarer won with dummy's ♥A, cashed the ♣A and played a club to the 9. West's ♣Q meant one down, -100.

A couple of thoughts: If the ♥J was a singleton, could West have started with two of them?

If declarer had played a diamond to the ace at trick two, how would the defenders have signalled?

Appealing a ruling

Players in NABC+ events who want to appeal a director's ruling initiate the process by speaking with the director who delivered the original ruling. The table director will fill out paperwork regarding the appeal, and the appellants will explain what they believe to be wrong with the initial ruling. From there, the case may be handled by a variety of means. When the appeals reviewer receives the case, the circumstances of that particular case will determine whether the case can be resolved by the original staff (in the case of misapplication of Law or regulation, for instance), a panel of directors, or even a committee-type hearing which could include bridge experts.

(1) Strong, artificial

(2) 0–5 HCP, non-forcing

There are two reasons why West might bid 4♥. The first is the irritation factor if it makes. The second is that once hearts are supported, West's fifth heart becomes important – think of it in terms of an extra king. It was a missed opportunity, and with declarer taking 10 tricks, an IMP was lost.

* For premier, NABC+ and NABC events, participants must be full ACBL members and up-to-date with their membership dues or service fees. For all other events, participants must be ACBL members (or guest members). Inactive members may renew or pay a $5 upcharge per session.

Unless otherwise noted, strata breaks for all stratified events are: A (2500+), B (750-2500), C (0-750). Three-flight events are divided A/X (6000+/0-6000); B/C (1500-3000, 0-1500); Gold Rush (400-750/200-400/0-200). Two-flight events are divided A/X/Y (6000+/4000-6000/0-4000); B/C/D (1500-3000/750-1500/ 0-750) if no Gold Rush OR A/B/C (3000+/1500-3000/0-1500) and Gold Rush (400-750/200-400/0-200). In B flights, no single player may be over 3000. In Gold Rush events, no single player may be over 750. BOLD, UPPER CASE = NABC+ events. UPPER CASE = NABC events. Green = Regional events (gold and red points). Blue = Gold Rush events (gold and red points). Red = Intermediate/Newcomer 299er events (red points).

International Fund

In NABC+ events, $1.50 (per person, per session) of each entry fee will be allocated to the ACBL International Fund. These funds are used to underwrite part of the expenses of ACBL players who participate in international competition.
