George F. Tornay, Jr. 1936–2025

By Claire Tornay

George’s introduction to bridge was at his parents’ party bridge games. It was the major inexpensive entertainment of the era. As a child, he took a serious interest in the game and would practice playing hands with his parents as opponents. When he encountered his first “bad break,” he exclaimed, “Damn!” and was immediately sent to his room. This may have been the start of his disciplined demeanor at the table. He did not tolerate idle chitchat and demanded total concentration, especially of

Elvis.
Madonna. The Babe.

Every community has a member so infamous and beloved that no

last name is needed for identification. In Philly proper, we have Rocky and Fabian. In the Philly duplicate bridge scene, we had Arnold.

A Boston-born, lifelong Red Sox fan and lobster lover, Arnold spent much of his professional life here. After he retired from his job as a statistician for Philly's Public Health Department, he stuck around playing pinochle, bowling and building his reputation as one of our most colorful bridge characters.

You'd have known him immediately. Arnold was a Buddy Hackett type – he looked like Buddy a little, sounded like him a lot, and was at least as funny.

He was also what you'd call a shirt-off-the-back guy. He'd offer a ride to the game if he found out you were stuck. He'd pay off your parking meter if you lacked the change, buy you a meal if you were short, even help with your tax return. But if you went down in a cold contract, watch out. Players at North Penn Duplicate Bridge Club were more than relieved when they stopped using travelers to keep score because it put an end to Arnold scrutinizing all results after each hand and then running across the room to holler at some player: "How could you go down in four hearts? Even (name deleted) made four hearts!"

He knew his stuff, too. He played the hand beautifully, but he was always a little different. Playing South at Table 1 with Bobbie Gomer in Yorktown, he'd doze off as declarer, then wake up and resume his line of play as if nothing had happened. He kept opening 1NT with a seven-card suit for years after the practice was banned – just couldn't break the habit.

When he wanted partner Ellen Gordon to play the jack in dummy, Arnold would say "What's Mendelsohn's first name?" (Jack Mendelsohn was Arnold's good friend and rival – a slightly less notorious Yorktown regular. Ellen, not wanting to give Arnold the satisfaction, would shoot back "Jacob!")

Not to be discouraged, declaring another hand later in the match with Q-10-x in hand and K-9-x on the board, Arnold would pause and scan the room. "Where's Mendelsohn sitting?" he'd ask Ellen. If he spotted Jack somewhere on his left, he'd finesse to the dummy. With Jack on his right, Arnold would lead to his hand.

He slowed down during the pandemic. Elaine Clair brought a spare iPad over to Arnold's assisted living facility and showed him the ropes on BBO. He could have had his pick of partners for a lift to a game when things opened back up – friends who remembered rides offered years back, meals sprung for, change for the parking meter. Instead, Arnold shipped himself home; back to family, Fenway Park and a lobster dinner. Or two.

We missed him. When he slipped away entirely on Sept. 10, 2024, we grieved.

This final weekend in Philly, we celebrate Arnold with the morning side game series. No matter which events you choose, feel free to check this space in tomorrow's Daily Bulletin for a few Arnold-isms that still come up in these parts and see why Arnold Selig possessed a spirit that truly lives on.

Elaine Wentraub

Elaine
Weintraub
began her bridge
career in 2004,
as retirement approached and she was looking for a new hobby.

Elaine has a master's in mathematics from Johns Hopkins University and worked as a computer programmer, systems analyst and engineering manager. At Honeywell, she created products for the automation of oil refineries and chemical plants. At G.E., she created systems for automating electrical substations. At Motorola, she helped develop digital cable TV. Elaine served as tournament chair for Unit 141, chaired the Information Desk at the 2018 Philadelphia NABC, and served for many years as the tournament chair for District 4.

Elaine passed away in early 2025 and is sorely missed by her friends in and outside the bridge world.

No smoking in stairwells

The management of the Marriott has announced that any players caught smoking or vaping in the stairwells of the hotel will be ejected from the property and issued no-trespass warnings.

Local entertainment

The Philadelphia NABC host committee has arranged for several local entertainers to perform and engage with players during the afternoon lunch break.

Today, Rocky will be walking around the fourth and fifth floors between 1:45 and 2:45.

Limited events eligibility

Players who have previously won an NABC+ event are not eligible to participate in any event with an upper masterpoint limit, including 0–10,000 events.

In bracketed events, players with less than 10,000 points who have won an NABC+ event should report their masterpoint total as 10,000 rather than their actual holding.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Tanis Nielsen is here at the NABC to play in the Collegiate Pairs with Dane Meade. They both go to the University of Illinois at Chicago, where they were recruited into the bridge club by the math department; they are both graduate students.

Tanis has been playing for almost one year. "It's fun," he said. "I love it so far. I feel like I'm like, working with the system, like rapping with it."

He admitted that both the bidding and the card play can be "stressful, but I'm at the point where the bidding is more of a memory challenge and the card play is more of a skill challenge."

Dane, who didn't want his photo taken, added, "I think it's more strategy than any other card game that I'm familiar with. And that's without gambling."

"I don't feel that I'm good enough to even recognize how many mistakes I'm making, but I'm enjoying it."

Take All Your Chances

By Eddie Kantar

North (Dummy)

♦ J 7 3
♣ A 10 5 4

South (You)

♠ K 2
♥ A 10 8 5 3
♦ K 4
♣ K Q J 2

You talk yourself into opening 1NT because you want to protect your kings in case the contract ends up in notrump.

Besides, you like playing the hand. Partner bids 2♣, Stayman, and you bid 3♥, showing five hearts. Partner, not impressed, bids 3NT. West leads the ♠J. Plan the play.

You start with eight sure tricks and must look to a red suit for a ninth. If you attack hearts, you more or less have to find hearts 3-3 (36%). If they are 4-2 (48%), the opponents may be able to establish a spade trick before you can set up your fifth heart, not to mention the ♦A. In other words, if hearts are 4-2, your chances of success are remote with a capital 'R.'

What about diamonds, your weakest suit? It may be a weak suit, but it still offers you a 75% chance of getting one trick! Lead up to the king, and if that loses, lead up to the jack: That's two finesses. You have to find the ♦A with East or the ♦Q with West.

At times the shortest combined suit offers the best percentage chance of building up a quick trick. However, don't try to make a living playing short suits before long suits!

The full deal:

|------------|--------------|
| ♠ A Q 7 5 | ♠ 8 4 3 |
| ♥ 6 2 | ♥ K J 7 4 |
| ♦ J 7 3 | ♦ 10 9 8 6 |
| ♣ A 10 5 4 | ♣ 8 3 |
| ♠ J 10 9 6 | ♠ K 2 |
| ♥ Q 9 | ♥ A 10 8 5 3 |
| ♦ A Q 5 2 | ♦ K 4 |
| ♣ 9 7 6 | ♣ K Q J 2 |

Tip: Though it may work once in while, don't make a practice of opening 1NT with 5-4-2-2 distribution, particularly when the five-card suit is a major! With something like:

♠ A Q ♥ K 6 ♦ J 8 7 4 ♣ A Q 8 3 2, both long suits minors and strength in both doubletons, 1NT is the best opening bid. You will have a major second-round bidding problem if you open 1♣ and partner responds 1♥ or 1♠. You are not strong enough to reverse by bidding 2♦, showing a minimum of 17 HCP with this distribution. Nor are you strong enough to jump to 2NT showing 18-19 HCP. Finally, you are too strong to rebid 1NT showing 12-14 HCP. In effect, you have painted yourself into a tiny corner.

Spingold KO: No. 2 seed ousted

In the Spingold Knockout Teams Round of 16, the No. 2 seed, ZIMMERMANN, fell to No. 15 VENTIN. The final score was 88–150.

ZIMMERMANN (Sebastiaan Drijver, Sjoert Brink, Michal Nowosadzki, team captain Pierre Zimmermann, Michal Klukowski and Jacek Kalita) led at the half by a margin of 16 IMPs, but VENTIN (Fredrik Nystrom, Johan Upmark, team captain Juan Carlos Ventin and Simon Hult) put on a clinic in the third quarter, outscoring their opponent 68 to 14. In the fourth quarter, they again outperformed by a margin of 51 to 27.

No. 6 ROSENTHAL (Andrew Rosenthal, Chris Willenken, Aaron Silverstein, Martin Schaltz, Christian Bakke and Boye Brogeland) was up by 31 at the half to HANS (Sartaj Hans, Andy Hung, Michael Whibley and Nabil Edgton) that was cut to an 18-IMP edge after three. HANS came roaring back with a 52–15 fourth set to win the match 135–116.

No. 5 SHOURIE (Rajath Shourie, Kevin Bathurst, Gavin Wolpert, Vincent Demuy, John Hurd and John Kranyak) fell behind to No. 12 VEDANTA CAPITAL (Parag Saxena, Migry Zur Campanile, Bart Nab, Veri Kiljan, Oren Toledano and Ami Zamir) by 19 at the half. They picked up 4 after the third set to be down 15 and rallied to win in the fourth 135–123.

The bracket and pairings for the quarterfinal matches can be found on pages 8–10.

Mini-Spingold final: East meets West

In the 0–6000 Mini-Spingold Knockout Teams, the East coast team (New Jersey, Virginia, Ontario) of Ryan Connors, Randi Adelman, Shona Donovan and Mark Donovan will face off against Californians Philip Kuhn, Jennifer Kuhn, Charles Riffle and Douglas Grant.

Rich–Hamilton lead 10K pairs

Larry Rich of Cumming GA and Carol Hamilton of Sarasota FL won the opening round of the NABC 0–10,000 Pairs. The duo scored a strong 67.45% in the morning session and followed up with a 49.64% in the afternoon to lead the contest by a fraction of a board over Tracey Bauer of San Rafael CA and Melissa Baker of West Harrison NY.

Narrowly in third place are Daiva Vitukynaitė and Gediminas Poska of Palos Hills IL.

Of the 56 pairs that entered the contest, 36 survived to today's two-session final.

second final was enough to win the contest.

This is the first NABC win for captain Perlmutter, making him a Grand Life Master. It is also the first NABC title for Bethe, a former Junior star who has not played actively in many years. Cooper is his mother. She and Feldman each have multiple NABC wins. Feldman previously won the Mixed BAM in 1979.

Playing with Miniter were Swedish teammates Cecilia Dwyer Rimstedt, Ida Gronkvist, Frederic Wrang and Tor Elvind Grude.

Micro-Spin enters QF round

The round of eight in the 0–3000 Mini-Spingold KO Teams feature the following pairings:

Robert Gervis vs. Simon-Pierre Goulet; Huang-Chia Chang vs. Ken Pelowski; Elizabeth Wood vs. Jason Grove; and Jichong Chai vs. Edward Lechner.

"Giorgia is the best," said Rotaru.

The event was pretty much a two-horse race after the first final session, with Botta–Rotaru 20 matchpoints (77 top) behind the leaders. Their final session score – 59.54% – put them ahead by 10. Their final score was 2756.69

In second place with a score of 2746.70 were Adam Wildavsky of New York NY and Douglas Doub of Oak Ridge TN. They had a monster 71.28% first final session to move up from 24th to first. They finished with 58.14%.

Thursday's final sessions featured 156 pairs.

himself. However, many people have commented on his dry sense of humor and his outstanding ability to tell a joke. He often complained of "Excedrin Headache No. 8-26-62" (the date of our marriage).

George was born in Brooklyn, but spent some early years in New Jersey, Manhattan and, later, Queens where he was a member of his high school chess team. His father's work eventually took the family to Toledo OH where he finished high school and went on to earn his bachelor's degree at Miami University in Oxford OH. While in college, he explored his interest in theater and singing by performing in school productions. Bridge was still an active, but not major, part of his life. By then, he was also involved with tennis and golf. In summers, he was a tennis counselor at sleep-away camp. After college, he taught high school math and also served as tennis coach.

After we married, George began working as a consulting actuary, while simultaneously studying for the exams in that field. Bridge had now become a major focus for us. We attended many tournaments, frequently playing together or as teammates, both domestically and in Europe. In 1987, the tragic death of our only child occurred just minutes before his 21st birthday. Bridge became an even more prominent diversion.

When George retired and moved to Florida in 2003, he had three hobbies which he pursued vigorously: bridge, golf and singing. He joined and sang with the Choral Society of the Palm Beaches, also serving as an officer on its board. He played some golf nearly every day and played lots of bridge, even more so when he received a diagnosis of Parkinson's. The pandemic shuttered him, as well as the rest of the world, and he then began playing online. George had already attained the rank of Grand Life Master well before that, so the quest to garner masterpoints had quelled.

Along the road to some of his successes, he had developed serious partnerships with Leon Shore, Lou Levy, Saul Bronstein, Sam Stayman and Armond Barfus to name but a few. He won many regional events but his major bridge achievements were wins in the Senior and Advanced Senior Masters Pairs (1962), Men's Board-a-Match Teams (1980), Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams (1984), the Swiss Plate (1986) and an eighth-place finish in the Rosenblum Teams (1986).

He is survived by Claire, his wife of 62 years, his sister Tish (husband John Bayer), plus numerous nieces and nephews.

Flipper kibitzes at the Youth NABC

Ethan Wu of Cupertino CA and Beatrice Hung of Los Altos CA (and her penguin, Flipper) had a sit-out in the Thursday morning Youth Pairs. They tried a round of BridgeWar – a new game developed by the ACBL to introduce people to the concept of bridge – and then answered a few questions.

Beatrice has been playing since she was 7, “so, like, four years.” This is her first time at an NABC, but she’s played in tournaments before. Her parents play, and her younger brother is here too; he played in the Cardrook Pairs.

Beatrice got right to the point. “I like winning,” she said. “I like it when I make a doubled contract. I also hate it when I go down in a doubled contract. Or when my partner passes my takeout double.”

Beatrice said BridgeWar is “a good way to learn, but I think the best way to learn bridge is to first, learn whist; second, learn how trumps work; third, learn mini-bridge; fourth, play actual bridge.”

Beatrice, who will be in seventh grade, is thinking about studying computer science. Besides playing bridge, she likes to code “and play video games and think about how they work.” She also crochets and knits and likes penguins. “They’re just so cute.” Her favorite is the gentoo penguin. “They can swim over 22 miles per hour.”

Beatrice and Flipper

Beatrice described a memorable event at the bridge table. “There was a time when my partner played the ♠A then king and I accidentally ruffed it. I was just discarding from my longest suit, but my longest suit was the trump suit, because they violated Burn’s Law. I know all three of them. The first one is, do not play in a contract when the opponents have more trumps than you do. Second is the rule of eight: Find out how many aces the opponents have. Subtract that number from eight. Do not play at that level. And the third rule is, you can’t make notrump on a crossruff. That one is my favorite.”

A gentoo penguin

Ethan didn’t have as much to say. This is not his first NABC. “I went to Atlanta last time,” he said. He likes bridge because “there are so many

How have you changed?

During lunch at the Youth NABC on Thursday, we asked players: How has your life changed since you started playing bridge? Here are their answers.

"It's been nice to meet a lot of new people. I've grown as an intellectual and it's great fun."

*Ethan Wu, 12
Cupertino CA*

"I've learned to think more deeply, in play and in everyday situations."

*Keith Lin, 15
San Francisco CA*

"I've gotten to meet a lot of people. It teaches me a whole new perspective."

*Daniel Yfrah, 15
Palm Coast FL*

"Now I can concentrate during school work. It's a memory game that helps your mind and mindset."

*Luthando Libisi, 12
Orange NJ*

"When I started I was confused a lot. Now I'm getting better because I pay attention more and am more focused."

*Kiarra Jeffries, 12
Orange NJ*

"Bridge has made me more open to the real world and more strategy and cooperation with my partner."

*Sahara Kendall, 14
Scranton PA*

"It's a good way to participate in the community with older people. It's good for them and good for us."

*Ivy Chen, 16
Palm Coast FL*

"I've gotten better at memory. It's been a great highlight of my life – a terrific life-changing experience."

*Syed Haider, 16
Palm Coast FL*

"Bridge helped me expand my mind and make new friends."

*Alexa Jiu, 11
Waterloo ON*

"I can hang out with my friends more and concentrate."

*Thyme Johnson, 11
Orange NJ*

"I've been meeting a lot of people and I've been traveling a lot."

*Kurt Hoisie, 8
Tiburon CA*

"It's my first year. It's fun. It makes me concentrate."

*Success Clement, 10
Orange NJ*

"I've met so many new people. It gave me an activity to do to improve my mental health."

Brayden Dobbins, 17
Flagler Beach FL

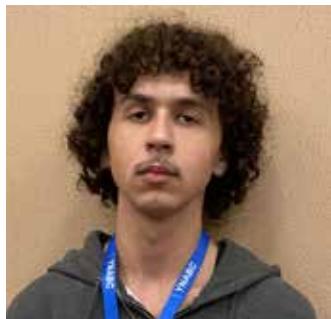

"I met a lot of new people and actually gotten smarter. It's been a super experience."

Clayton Kaneko, 12
Danville CA

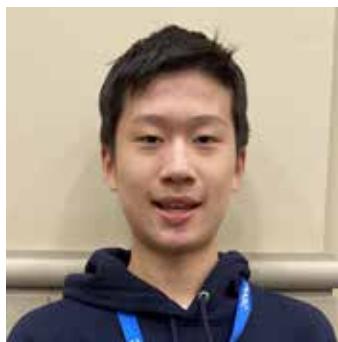

"I've been spending more quality time with my day. It's a fun way to spend time without technology."

Ziyan Khan, 15
Hummelstown PA

"Bridge made me think a lot harder and allowed me to develop critical thinking skills."

Daniel Gnatyuk, 15
Palm Coast FL

"Bridge has helped me make better decisions – decision-making skills, collaborative skills, strategic thinking. I can think a little bit beyond what I could before."

Aydan Jia, 15
Waterloo ON

"I've gotten more in tune with the community, especially the older population. It's fun and different from other activities like video games."

Spencer Habeck, 16
Bunnell FL

"I've become more patient. You have to pause think and before making a decision. I take my time instead of rushing school work. It's opened new opportunities for me."

Kayla Jia, 17
Waterloo ON

"Lots. Definitely broadened my range of perspectives. I've seen every single old person in North America. It's really improved my patience, manners, self-control. I'm less shy."

Casper Gu, 15
Barrie ON

"It helps us communicate with each other. It helps socializing with people we don't know well."

Kristina Seang, 16
Palm Coast FL

"I started traveling, did a lot of tournaments. My dad started pushing me harder."

Beatrice Hung, 11
Los Altos CA

"It's given me something to do in my free time and it helps with mental endurance."

Cesar Bocanegra, 15
Palm Coast FL

"It's more traveling and it's a fun hobby to have. Nothing too major."

Eddy Qi, 13
San Francisco CA

West made a reasonable jump to 4♥ over the 1NT opener, and Zhang chose the equally reasonable 4♠. When this was passed back around, West made an ill-advised stab at 5♦ – the vulnerability makes this a dangerous choice – and Zhang calmly passed as North, confident that his partner would understand that the pass was forcing.

When East corrected to 5♥, it was Ge's turn to pass as South, knowing that his partner would take further action.

Zhang decided that the pass of 5♥ suggested no wasted values in hearts, so he offered 6♣ at his next turn, which pleased Ge as South.

West now compounded his error on the second round by doubling on a hand with little/no defense against a black-suit contract. Zhang had no difficulty scoring all 13 tricks, scoring +1190 for 77 out of 77 matchpoints.

Spingold Round of 32 recap

By Mark Horton

The first offerings on BBO were FLEISHER (4) vs ROMBAUT (29) and RUBENSTEIN (7) vs KAPLAN (26).

Board 22. Dealer East. E/W Vul.

|-------------|---------------|
| ♠ K Q 8 2 | ♦ 7 5 3 |

| ♥ A J 10 9 | ♥ Q 7 |
| ♦ A Q | ♦ 9 4 |
| ♣ 8 7 5 | ♣ Q J 3 2 |

This looks like a reasonable 6♥ for E/W, cold if hearts are 2-2, or if the diamond finesse is right.

(3) Weak with hearts

North led the ♠K and continued with the ♠2, declarer winning with the ♠9 and playing two more spades, pitching diamonds from dummy. South won North's diamond switch and returned the ♣7, North taking the ♣A and exiting with a diamond. Declarer ruffed in dummy and claimed seven tricks, two down, -300.

(1) Game forcing or 5+♦, 3-8 HCP

South led the ♦9, and declarer took dummy's ♦A and cashed the top hearts, +680.

RUBENSTEIN vs KAPLAN

Open Room

| West | North | East | South |
|----------------------|------------------|--------------------|-------------------|
| Kolesnik | Rosenberg | Kaplan | Rubenstein |

- (1) Heart support
- (2) Control
- (3) First-round control
- (4) RKCB
- (5) Two keycards

Declarer knew there was a probable diamond loser and was not prepared to bid a slam that would require him to locate the $\heartsuit Q$.

South led the $\diamond 9$, and having won with dummy's $\diamond A$, declarer played a spade to the king and cashed the top hearts, +680.

Closed Room

| West | North | East | South |

(1) 4+ \heartsuit , 10+ HCP
 (2) Game forcing

South led the $\clubsuit Q$. Declarer won with the $\clubsuit A$, unblocked the $\spadesuit A$, went to dummy with the $\heartsuit A$ and ran the $\heartsuit J$, +650, to lose an IMP.

Board 14. Dealer East. None Vul.

|----------------------------|----------------------|
| $\spadesuit A K Q 9 7 6 4$ | $\spadesuit J 2$ |
| $\heartsuit K 5 3$ | $\heartsuit Q 9 8 6$ |

| $\diamond 10 4 3 2$ | $\diamond 9 8 6 5$ |
| $\clubsuit A 9 7 4$ | $\clubsuit 10 6 3 2$ |

Both Norths in the FLEISHER vs ROMBAUT match bid and made 4 \spadesuit for a push.

In RUBENSTEIN vs KAPLAN, however, Rosenberg chose 4 \spadesuit as North while his counterpart, Li, opted for just 3 \spadesuit . That was 6 IMPs to RUBENSTEIN.

Board 15. Dealer South. N/S Vul.

|-----------------------------|----------------------|
| $\spadesuit 9$ | $\spadesuit J 8 4$ |
| $\heartsuit K Q 10 7$ | $\heartsuit A 9 4$ |
| $\diamond A J 10 2$ | $\diamond K Q 9$ |

| $\heartsuit J 6$ | |
| $\diamond 8 7 4 3$ | |
| $\clubsuit —$ | |

In FLEISHER vs ROMBAUT, the auction was the same at both tables: 3 \spadesuit by South and 4 \spadesuit by North. The West players led the $\diamond 6$ at both tables, losing to East's queen. The trump return was won by West, and a second diamond meant one down. Push.

FLEISHER had held ROMBAUT to just 15 IMPs, but they themselves had scored only a single to trail by 14.

RUBENSTEIN vs KAPLAN

Open Room

|-----------------|------------------|---------------|-------------------|
| Kolesnik | Rosenberg | Kaplan | Rubenstein |
| | | | 3 \spadesuit |

Pass 4 \spadesuit All Pass

West led the $\diamond 6$ and East won with the $\diamond Q$ and switched to the $\clubsuit 4$, declarer winning with the $\clubsuit A$ as the $\diamond 4$ went from dummy. I was expecting a long think at this point, but declarer almost instantly played the $\spadesuit 9$ and had to go one down, West winning and playing a diamond.

Closed Room

| West | North | East | South |
|-------------|-----------|-------------|----------------|
| Moss | Li | Grue | Wei |
| | | | 3 \spadesuit |

Pass 4 \spadesuit All Pass

West led the $\diamond 6$ and East won with the $\diamond Q$ and switched to the $\clubsuit K$, declarer winning with dummy's ace as a diamond went away. Declarer now ran the $\spadesuit 9$, but West won with the $\spadesuit A$ and a second diamond spelled the demise of the contract.

After East's switch, declarer needed to play on hearts.

KAPLAN led 19–15.

Plenty of IMPs were traded in other matches (70 or more eight times), a testament to how well our featured teams performed.

Roth Open Swiss starts today

Winners of last year's Roth Open Swiss Teams: Eddie Wold, Eric Rodwell, Oren Toledano, Ami Zamir and (not pictured) Doug Simson and Venkatrao Koneru

The six-session Open Swiss Teams, named in honor of ACBL Hall of Famer Al Roth, begins with today's two-session qualifier. The nationally rated event was first held in 2005.

Al Roth (1914–2007) is generally considered the premier bidding theorist of his bridge generation, perhaps of all time. He and longtime partner Tobias Stone are credited with developing the negative double, the unusual notrump, 1NT forcing and weak two-bid.

An ACBL Grand Life Master with more than 12,000 masterpoints, Roth won 26 national titles, including the Spingold five times, the Vanderbilt three times and the Reisinger twice.

He represented North America in the Bermuda Bowl in 1955, 1958 and 1967. A WBF Life Master, he placed second in the World Team Olympiad in 1968.

During his first world championship appearance, Roth was declaring a 2♦ contract and felt he played the hand before – but as a defender. The director, Al Sobel, did not believe him because the hands had been dealt at the table. Sobel made Roth call out all the cards in each hand – including the spots – before he threw out the board. No one ever discovered how this happened.

Roth retired from active bridge competition in the '70s but remained active as a staff member of Bridge Today and on panels of The Bridge World, Bridge Today and Australian Bridge.

He was the author of "The Roth-Stone System," "Al Roth on Bridge" and "Picture Bidding" and co-author of "Bridge Is a Partnership Game," "Modern Bridge Complete" and "Bridge for Beginners."

A longtime resident of New York, where he owned and managed the Mayfair Club, Roth retired to Boca Raton FL.

New Life Master

Cindy Mueller of Mechanicsburg PA is ACBL's newest Life Master. Mueller earned the last few gold points she needed for her new rank in Wednesday's Bracket Round-Robin Teams. Her squad – which included fellow-Pennsylvanians Margaret Sobolewski, James Boyer and Thomas Anderson – won Bracket 5 of the contest.

Mueller also topped the 750-masterpoint milestone to become a Bronze LM at the same time.

Linda Gaston of Austin TX became a Silver LM in Wednesday's Bracket Round-Robin Teams.

Gaston, playing with partner Heike Koistinen and teammates Robert Jennings and Ed Gould, won Bracket 8 of the event.

Milestone

Paul Holmes of Wadsworth OH became a Gold Life Master on Thursday playing in the Wernher Open Pairs with Eric Gentleman of Ellicott City MD. He was about 8 points short of 2500 when he arrived in Philadelphia, and needed just 0.7 on Thursday. They placed 52nd in the Wernher for 9.08 platinum points.

New Life Master – and Bronze Life Master

Madonna Wadden of St. John's NL became a Life Master – and a Bronze Life Master – on Thursday.

"I came all the way from Newfoundland to play here," she said. "My husband insisted I come even though two of my friends couldn't make it. The guys from Halifax helped me get the gold."

Madonna needed 11.41 gold points. On Monday, she played bracketed round robin teams with Bonnie Gallagher of Longmont CO, Bob Wyman of Boulder CO and Linda Gaston of Pflugerville TX and picked up 6.03. On Thursday, she played with Michael Ritcey of Indian Harbour NS, David Wolfe of Halifax NS and Noah Cotterill of Halifax NS for 5.50.

(4) Odd number of keycards

I'm basing the interpretation of West's pass on a convention card from the U.S. trials. When West bid 6♣, it was clear he held three keycards, but East must have been worried about where his ♥8 would go. Scoring +1460 meant the loss of 14 IMPs.

Kaplan won the session 40–19 to lead 59–34.

East found the devastating lead of ♠6, and West took dummy's ♠K with the ace and switched to the ♥J to the king and ace. When East continued with the ♥Q, West must have been tempted to unblock the ♥9, but what if declarer held the ♥8? When he followed with the ♥3 East switched to the ♠10 and that was four down, -200.

(2) Shortage

When West led the ♠8, declarer won and cashed the clubs before advancing the ♦J. East, down to ♦K10, covered and that was +490 and 12 IMPs.

The au pair (she says, "Hi, Chip") wanted to lead the ♥9.

FLEISHER won the session 34–26, but ROMBAUT still led, 41–35.

For the last two sessions, the FLEISHER–ROMBAUT match remained online, but for the second day running, the defending champions (STREET) were in trouble, this time to the tune of 55 IMPs against RIPPEY (who includes three of the current world champions).

South led the ♥5, and declarer won with the ♥Q and cashed the ♠A. When South's king appeared, he went to dummy with the ♥A and played the ♠7 to the 10 and jack and could play on clubs for 10 tricks, +620.

Do you see how the defenders could have prevailed?

East must play the ♥10 at trick two!

Declarer can let that run to his jack, but there is no entry to dummy, so West will score a ruff to go with the missing aces.

It was a 10-IMP swing, 123–101, RIPPEY ahead.

East led the ♣J and West took the ♣A and switched to the ♦2. When declarer put in the queen, East won and returned the ♦8, West ruffing and playing the ♥8, one down, -50, and 10 IMPs to STREET, still alive at 111–123.

Because the clubs are 6–2, declarer could have got home by taking the ♦A, drawing trumps and playing on diamonds – he will score a heart at the end.

If you are a follower of cricket, you will be aware of the superstition surrounding the number 111 (there is no truth in the rumor that when this score appears on vugraph that Barry Rigal hops on one leg until it changes).

Convention card notice

Each player must have an ACBL convention card legibly filled out and on the table. The convention card must include the first and last name of each member of the partnership, and the cards must be identical. Please note that other types of convention cards, such as the WBF convention card or homemade cards that do not sufficiently resemble the ACBL convention card, are not acceptable substitutes.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6-board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as they deem to be appropriate under the circumstances.

Email us

Got a hand you'd like to share or a nice story? We'd love to see it: NABCDailyBulletin@acbl.org. You'll also find our email address on the front page of the paper under the "Daily Bulletin" between the date and the editors' names.

This email address won't be checked with any regularity when the NABC is not in session, so please continue to use our office email addresses for non-tournament-related correspondence.

Merch booth

The ACBL Merch booth on the fifth floor is open daily from 9:45 to 10:45 a.m. and 1:45 to 2:45 p.m. It offers Philadelphia NABC T-shirts, ACBL hats, polo shirts and jackets. Come by and shop during the pre-game hours.

NABC Philadelphia attendees – Play a free ACBL game at the IntoBridge booth and get a free T-shirt

If you're at the NABC Philadelphia, stop by the IntoBridge booth for a special offer: play an ACBL game for free and receive a complimentary T-shirt!

We're excited to announce that participants who visit us at the booth can enjoy a free game, earn official ACBL masterpoints, and take home a stylish T-shirt as a memento. Whether you're new to online bridge or looking to expand your playing opportunities, this is your chance to try IntoBridge in a fun and welcoming setting.

Signing up is easy, and our team will be on hand to guide you through the process. By participating at our booth, you'll experience how streamlined and enjoyable playing bridge on IntoBridge can be — all while collecting masterpoints and exclusive swag.

Don't miss out on this opportunity at NABC Philadelphia. Drop in, play a free ACBL-sanctioned game at our booth, and grab your T-shirt. Whether you're a bridge enthusiast or curious about taking your game online, we'd love to meet you, answer your questions, and help you get started.

See you at the IntoBridge booth!

Monitoring

ACBL monitors events at North American Bridge Championships with both visible and concealed real-time cameras in public spaces. The images are recorded and available for later inspection and review by ACBL management and tournament officials. These recordings are also uploaded to the internet following the NABC.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues or disputes arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. Please summon a director if a problem occurs at the table. This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

Submitting a score correction

If you can access ACBL Live, you can submit a score correction for a pair game (not a team game).

If you don't have a computer, tablet or smartphone, there are kiosks in the hallways outside the playing areas.

Here are instructions on how to submit a score correction via ACBL Live.

1. Go to live.acbl.org/
2. Find the event you played in. It's probably easiest to enter your name or player number to reach your results quickly.
3. Find the session and click on summary.
4. Find your name on the recap and click on scores on the far-right hand side.

| Color | Personal Scores |
|----------|------------------------|
| Platinum | Scores |

5. Now, on the far left, there is a column to the left of the board number with three dots. Click on that.

| | Board | Contract | By |
|--|-------|----------|----|
| | 01 | 4♦ | S |
| | 02 | 3♦ | E |
| | 03 | 3NT | S |
| | 04 | 1NT | S |
| | 05 | 6♦x | E |

6. Choose "correct score," follow the instructions and hit "submit."

Entry Express and purchase options

All monetary transactions are cashless, including entries for NABC and regional games. All major debit/credit cards are accepted wherever entries are sold.

Advance entries for events are available through the ACBL's online Entry Express system. It is necessary for eligible players to use this system in order to receive the host discount of $10 per session for being a guest of the host hotel or resident of the host district.

To use Entry Express, go to members.acbl.org/tournaments/2508001/detail or scan the QR code at right. This may be done until 8 a.m. the day the event begins (new extended hours!).

Hotel guests* are assigned two discount coupons per night of stay plus one (e.g., six nights gets 14 coupons).

For help with Entry Express, visit the ACBL Help Desk located on either the fourth or fifth floor, outside Franklin Hall and Salon E.

Entries may also be purchased at the event location in the hour before the start time.

Entries for NABC events are no longer available on Bridge Winners.

Buying early is especially recommended for NABC+ pairs events. All entries must be purchased at least 15 minutes before game time. Pairs who expect to be seeded should buy at least 30 minutes in advance.

*Important: Entry fee discounts through Entry Express are available through the ConferenceDirect list. If you book your own reservation at an NABC-associated hotel or added/modified a roommate, you must notify us prior to Entry Express purchases in order to receive the discount. No refunds on prior purchases given. Use the form at acbl.org/philadelphiaEEform.

Crazy Bridge takes your favorite game and adds a new rule to every board. Show up solo or with a partner and get ready to play, laugh, and think on your feet.

ACBL Electronic Device Policy

This policy applies to all events at NABCs and events where ACBL is the Sponsoring Organization. Regional and Sectional tournaments are encouraged to adopt and apply this policy or one more well-suited to their players. A violation of any of the restrictions below will result in an automatic penalty, pursuant to Law 91 of the Laws of Duplicate Bridge.

1. Any electronic equipment must be kept in silent mode (except for health-related equipment, where silent mode is unavailable or could constitute a health risk).

It is recommended, though not mandatory, that any such equipment remain switched off while in the playing area during a session.

Penalties: If it is determined that an electronic equipment is not compliant with (1) above, the penalty for the first offense is 1/8 of a board, 1.5 IMPs, or 1/2 VP. For each subsequent offense during an event, the penalty will be doubled. Beginning with the third offense, the player may be subject to disqualification, upon approval of the Sponsoring Organization.

2. Players are expected to be paying attention to the game. While at the table, players may not use or interact with their electronic devices during bridge play. When between rounds or sitting out, use or interaction with electronic devices is permitted, provided it is inaudible. For other situations, permission to use or interact with an electronic device will be granted upon the director's judgment and on a case-by-case basis.

Penalties: If it is determined that an electronic equipment was operated in violation of (2) above, the penalty for the first offense is 1/2 of a board, 6 IMPs, or 2 VP. For each subsequent offense during an event, the penalty will be doubled. Beginning with the second offense, the player may be subject to disqualification, upon approval of the Sponsoring Organization.

The above restrictions apply to all players, captains, coaches and kibitzers, except those persons granted permission by the ACBL, and are in force throughout any playing session or segment of play.

A kibitzer in violation of these policies must leave the playing area and may be readmitted only by permission of the tournament director.

Penalties for captains and coaches: Same as for players.

For the purpose of this policy, each day of a multi-day event is treated independently.

Further restrictions and requirements may apply in events involving live internet and/or VuGraph coverage and/or instruction from the Sponsoring Organization.

For the purpose of this policy, Sponsoring Organization is the ACBL for NABCs, the organizing District for Regionals, and the organizing Unit for Sectionals.

Don't be a pig

Players are reminded to strive for a neat playing environment. Please pick up trash around your table, especially after the session.

Being a hand hog is one thing; being a pig at the table is another. Please clean up!

ACBL kiosks

A new feature at this NABC is the ACBL kiosks stationed near the playing areas. You can use them to:

- view or print personal scores
- buy entries on Entry Express
- submit score corrections
- file a player memo
- renew your membership
- access the ACBL website.

You will need to know your MyACBL password to access most of these features. The simple screen displays three buttons for the most common uses. The home button will take you to the ACBL website.

There are five kiosks: two on the fifth floor, across from Salon H and between the doors for Salons D and E; two on the fourth floor, next to the ACBL Help Desk and in the corner outside Franklin A; and one on the third floor in the Liberty Ballroom foyer.

Entry Fees

A valid ACBL player number is required to play in all events at the NABC.

For all daytime events, a discount of $10 per player per session is available to

- 1) ConferenceDirect-reserved registered guests of the host hotel;
- 2) other registered guests/roommates added through the EE form;
- 3) residents of the host district or within 50 miles of the playing site who purchase entries through Entry Express.

Players must be ACBL members whose service fees or dues are current in order to compete in any Premier NABC+, NABC+ or NABC events.

Premier NABC+ events are the Grand National Teams (Championship Flight), von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs, Spingold Knockout Teams and the Roth Open Swiss Teams. The undiscounted entry fees for these contests are $50 per player per session. For team events, this means $200 per team per session for four-person teams, $250 per team per session for five-person teams and $300 per team per session for six-person teams.

NABC+ events are the NABC+ Open Pairs, Wagar Women's Pairs, Truscott/USPC Senior Swiss Teams, Wernher Open Pairs, Freeman Mixed Board-A-Match Teams and the Oshlag Fast Pairs. The undiscounted entry fees for these contests are $45 per person per session. For team events, this means $180 per team per session for four-person teams, $225 per team per session for five-person teams and $270 per team per session for six-person teams.

Note: $1.50 per person per session benefits the International Fund for all of the above events.

NABC events are the Grand National Teams (Flights A, B & C), the 0–6000 and 0–3000 Mini-Spingold Knockouts, the NABC 0–10,000 Pairs, the 0–10,000 Mixed Swiss Teams, the Bruce LM–6000 Pairs, the Young 0–3000 Pairs and the Bean Red Ribbon Pairs. The undiscounted entry fee for these events is $35 per player per session. For the team events, this means $140 per team per session for teams of four, $175 per team per session for teams of five and $210 per team per session for teams of six. (The GNT Flights A, B & C have no fee the first two days of the contest.)

Regional events are $32 per player per session for ACBL members, and $37 for inactive members. For team events of one or two sessions, the entry fee is $128 per session. Evening events are $22 per session.

Events with a masterpoint limit of 300 or lower are $28 per player per session for ACBL members, $33 for inactive members. Players with 0–5 masterpoints play free in I/N events on Friday, July 25.

Navigating the Marriott and PCC

To get to locations in the HeadHouse Tower (Liberty Ballroom, Independence Ballroom), take the skywalk from the third floor of the Marriott and exit to the right. (If you are already in the HeadHouse Tower, take the elevator to the second floor.) To get to locations in the Pennsylvania Convention Center, take the skywalk straight through the gate and exit to the left.

See the Welcome Desk on the fourth floor for a detailed map of the playing areas.

Senior events

You must be age 65 or older to play in ACBL Senior events.

In B flights, no single player may be over 3000. In Gold Rush events, no single player may be over 750. BOLD, UPPER CASE = NABC+ events. UPPER CASE = NABC events. Green = Regional events (gold and red points). Blue = Gold Rush events (gold and red points). Red = Intermediate/Newcomer 299er events (red points).

International Fund

In NABC+ events, $1.50 (per person, per session) of each entry fee will be allocated to the ACBL International Fund. These funds are used to underwrite part of the expenses of ACBL players who participate in international competition.
