

LEAGUE COUNSEL REPORT

SCHREIBER V. ACBL (AND VARIOUS OTHER NAMED DEFENDANTS)

Facts: On September 24, 2013 Michael Schreiber filed a lawsuit against the ACBL and various other named defendants in Shelby County, Tennessee, claiming that he was slandered, libeled and otherwise injured by the acts of the owners and managers of the M. A. Lightman Bridge Club in Memphis Tennessee. Insurance counsel has been appointed for the ACBL. Insurance counsel has filed an answer on behalf of the ACBL.

Status: Mediation was ordered by the court and a tentative settlement has been reached.

SPENCER V. ACBL

Facts: On February 28, 2012 Cynthia Spenser and Richard Spencer filed a lawsuit in Providence, Rhode Island Superior Court against the League, Marriott and various other persons and entities, claiming that she was injured in a fall at a tournament “operated” by the League. In fact, the tournament was a 2009 Massachusetts Regional operated by District 25. Insurance counsel in Providence, Rhode Island has been appointed to represent the ACBL.

Insurance counsel reports that “...it does not appear that plaintiff has any documentation that would support a theory against the insured [the ACBL]. Counsel then filed jurisdictional motions to dismiss the matter from the Rhode Island Superior Court based on the facts that the plaintiff is a Massachusetts resident, the League is a New York corporation, based in Mississippi, and the tournament was held in Massachusetts.” Subsequently, The Rhode Island Judge dismissed this complaint for lack of personal jurisdiction. On December 10, 2013, Mrs. Spencer filed a similar complaint this time in the Massachusetts Superior against the League, Marriott and the New England Bridge Conference, again claiming that she was injured in a fall at a bridge tournament “operated” by the League. Insurance counsel has filed an answer on behalf of the League.

Status: The insurance company has appointed a new attorney to represent the League in Massachusetts.
